The Mt. Fuji International Opera Competition of Shizuoka was first held in 1996, the 50th anniversary of the death of the first Japanese internationally renowned prima donna, MIURA Tamaki.

Born in 1884, MIURA Tamaki was an opera singer with ties to Shizuoka Prefecture. In the early 1900s, she expanded her career to London and America after performing extensively across Japan. She went on to star in “Madama Butterfly” worldwide, achieving the remarkable feat of 2,000 performances in the role.

This competition is held every three years. In 2026, it will mark its 30th anniversary since the first edition, establishing itself as a historic international competition. The next edition will be the commemorative 10th Competition.

Furthermore, it attracts applications not only from within Japan but also from young opera singers across Asia and the world, establishing itself as a gateway for them. Our competition is characterized not only by the contestants' competitive skills but also by the opportunity it provides for applicants to discover new possibilities.

We sincerely look forward to applications from young opera singers aiming for success on the international stage and those wishing to test their abilities.

Payment is provided

The Oslo National Academy of the Arts is organizing an information webinar for applicants on November 5, 2025 from 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM. See website to register.

For 2026, there is a vacancy for a doctoral fellow in the field of Opera at the Norwegian Academy of Opera.

The Norwegian Academy of Opera has national responsibility for opera education in Norway. With world-class teaching staff and performing facilities, the Norwegian Academy of Opera combines individual, group and project-based teaching. Singing, musical rehearsal, acting technique and language, together with performing productions and concerts, are the cornerstones of the program.

Working with professional directors, conductors, orchestrators and a full stage technical team gives students a versatile, practical education.

The Norwegian Academy of Opera has close contact with the Norwegian Opera & Ballet and other music institutions in Norway and is a member of several international opera networks.

The Opera Academy is seeking candidates who wish to explore and develop the field of opera as an important and meaningful art form in our time. Singers, pianists, conductors, composers, librettists, directors, choreographers, set designers, dramaturgs, etc. are encouraged to apply.

Compensation

Payment is provided

A position as a research fellow is a 3-year full-time position with normal working hours, and with rights and obligations that apply to employees at state universities and university colleges and the Regulations to the Universities and University Colleges Act.

When employed in position code 1017 Research Fellow according to the Main Collective Agreement, a minimum salary of NOK 550,800 and automatic salary development for up to 4 years with a 3% annual increase are provided.

A statutory contribution of 2% of the salary goes to the State Pension Fund.

Rheinsberg Sat 31st Jan
Germany: 2026

After a pre-selection, three ensembles will be invited to present a 15-20 minute programme featuring 18th century music in a public concert on January 31st, 2026 in Rheinsberg.

Since the reopening of the Rheinsberg Court Theatre in 2000, almost 250 years after the historical court chapel of Crown Prince Frederick, the Musikakademie Rheinsberg has annually awarded the protected title »Rheinsberger Hofkapelle« to an ensemble for historically informed performance practice (3–5 instrumentalists/singers). The award of the title is linked to a funding program for ensembles in the field of Early Music. The program lasts for one year and aims at the artistic and conceptual development of the ensemble as well as the promotion of the musical heritage of the historical Rheinsberg court chapel.

Compensation

Payment is provided

As part of the funding program, the ensemble is offered the following opportunities:

Time and space to rehearse, plan, and research at the Musikakademie Rheinsberg: 3 residencies of 7 days each, including travel, accommodation, and meal expenses

Professional development

The ensemble is granted €500 per residency for coachings (ranging from marketing to outreach).

Concerts

in connection with the residencies (€450/person/concert).

Mailing Address

There is no paper application or audition fee required to apply for Opera al Mare!

We typically are looking for Italian repertoire of the classical, bel canto, and romantic eras, but occasionally (as with this year!) we will be looking for early music lovers as well!

There are no in-person auditions, as your application and submitted links of recent performances will serve as your audition.

There is no need for any pianist associated with this specific application.

Donizetti's L'Elisir d'Amore (Information about the production can be found @ www.operaalmare.com/elisir)

Pergolesi's La Serva Padrona (Information about the production can be found @ www.operaalmare.com/laservapadrone)

Program Dates

June 15, 2026 - July 05, 2026

Opera al Mare offers a transformative three-week operatic training experience on the stunning coast of the Adriatic Sea in Cesenatico, Italy — a seaside jewel known for its historic Porto Canale, designed by Leonardo da Vinci himself.

What Makes This Opportunity Extraordinary

This isn't just another summer program. Opera al Mare is a project of Opera Vermont that creates a cultural bridge between the United States and Italy, offering young artists the chance to:

Immerse in Authentic Italian Culture

Far from tourist crowds, you'll experience genuine Italian life in a coastal town that breathes opera and tradition. The program includes Italian language courses alongside your musical training, allowing you to deepen your connection to the language of opera at its source.

Learn and Perform Full Operatic Roles

Whether you're a beginner or an established professional, you'll work with world-class faculty to expand your personal repertoire and perform complete roles from the operatic canon, with an orchestral ensemble from the Conservatorio Maderna in Cesena. The 2026 season features Donizetti's L'Elisir d'Amore and Pergolesi's La Serva Padrona.

Perform in Historic Venues

Make your summer home at the Teatro Comunale di Cesenatico, where you'll present fully staged productions in collaboration with the town of Cesenatico. Multiple public performances throughout the program give you invaluable stage experience in front of enthusiastic Italian audiences.

Work with International Faculty

Train with distinguished artists including Joshua Collier (Artistic Director), Cailin Marcel Manson, Scilla Cristiano, Kathleen Echols, Francesco Ricci, Dr. Maria Rabbia, Francesco Triossi, and Sandra Carletti—professionals who bring decades of international experience to your development.

The Complete Experience (June 15 – July 5, 2026)

Your three weeks include:

*Oceanfront, private, air-conditioned, hotel accomodation for each day of the program

*Breakfast Buffet, and 2 multi-course, gourmet meals daily - with

Italian wine included

- *Daily rehearsals and coaching with world-class faculty

- *Daily Italian language instruction to enhance your linguistic fluency

- *Multiple public performances including opera productions, concerts of operatic favorites, and our Poolside American Music spectacular

- *Cultural immersion in a town that celebrates the arts

- *International collaboration with fellow artists from around the globe

Performance Highlights

Throughout the program, you'll participate in public performances open to the community:

Full productions of L'Elisir d'Amore and La Serva Padrona at Teatro Comunale

"Opera's Greatest Hits" concert featuring baroque to contemporary repertoire

American Musical Theatre Spectacular poolside at Hotel Miramare (July 4th)

A Proven Track Record

Now in its fourth consecutive year, Opera al Mare has built a reputation for excellence, even performing in Bologna where the program received tremendous acclaim. The partnership with the Municipality of Cesenatico and the support of Hotel Miramare and the Vernocchi family ensures a professionally supported, culturally rich environment. Opera Vermont and Opera al Mare are committed to transparency and honesty in all things, and would be happy to connect any prospective participant with past artists for a true accounting of the experience.

Who Should Apply

This program welcomes artists at all levels and all indentities—from those just beginning their operatic journey to established professionals seeking to refine their craft. If you desire to grow your understanding of Italian language and culture, expand your repertoire, and work with world-class faculty in one of Italy's most beautiful coastal settings, while being welcomed into a supportive and nurturing, but professionally encouraging environment, Opera al Mare is your opportunity, and we look forward to welcoming you to Cesenatico in June 2026.

Fees

Payment is not provided

We know the unfortunate and sometimes abusive role that summer training programs have acquired, and we at Opera al Mare are hoping to change that reputation, with transparency, honesty, and integrity. To that end, on our website there is a very clear articulation of costs associated with the price of attending Opera al Mare, and we have decided to eliminate the middleman, and ask that participants pay the hotel directly the entire cost of participation (5000 Euro, all inclusive) as the majority of the cost associated is with room and board. While oceanside, private, air-conditioned, hotel housing, 3 meals a day, wine, all costs for coachings, theatre costs, and taxes are included in the cost, what is NOT included is as follows: Airfare to Italy, any transportation before June 15, and after July 5th, any transportation out of Cesenatico, any other alcohol/food/refreshment outside of mealtime.

Opera al Mare is a boutique resident training program that single casts (with covers if appropriate) all productions in order to ensure that every artist has the maximum amount of meaningful time working on their assigned role with Maestro Cailin Marcel Manson, Stage Director Joshua Collier, and our fabulous Vocal/Music Staff (Sopranos: Scilla Cristiano & Kathleen Echols, and Pianists: Francesco Ricci, Dr. Maria Rabbia, and Francesco Triossi.) It is the ultimate hope that we will be able to find, work with, and develop exceptional artists in Italy, and continue their performance journey by taking part in future Opera Vermont programming. To this day, well over 50% of all participants of Opera al Mare have performed in principal roles with Opera Vermont, and we hope that you are the next addition to the Opera Vermont Family!

The ROSL Annual Music Competition is the flagship of our Arts programme. With an increasingly international reach, talented young musicians apply each year to compete for over £75,000 in prize money. The competition is divided into six sections, Wind and Brass, Keyboard, Singers, Strings, String Ensembles and Mixed Ensembles. Our four solo winners progress to compete for the prestigious Gold Medal award, in a grand final held at Wigmore Hall.

Once a musician wins a prize in our competition, they are offered an artistic home, where we provide experienced mentorship, links into the industry, and further paid performance opportunities both at ROSL and through a wide range of promoting partners. Many of our musicians become familiar faces at ROSL, strongly valuing our long-term support even over their initial prize money.

Lyric Opera Studio Weimar is an intensive, month-long training studio, set in the heart of the historic cultural centre of Weimar.

We are unique to opera training programs in that our program gives singers a realistic view into launching a career in the German theatre system. Our faculty are successful artists and pedagogues who have careers in opera houses in Germany and throughout Europe – professionals with important industry connections that will help you get a foothold in the business.

We offer approximately 30 positions each session; this ensures an excellent teacher to student ratio, as well as a high degree of individualized attention, tailored to your own development and career goals. You'll have the opportunity to perform an entire role from the standard operatic repertoire, in one of the most historic cultural cities in Germany. Your time at the Studio will give you a realistic idea of what is required to launch your career – and just as importantly – what it takes to live and work in Germany.

Singers (principal artists) and auditors (composers, librettists, singers, pianists, teachers, theater makers and others are encouraged to apply). CoOPERAtive 2026 will offer college credit, if desired.

Received By Sat Feb 14, 2026

Headshot, resume, complete online application. There is a $5.00 application fee.

Please note: All auditions will be submitted by video.
Auditors do not need to submit videos.

<http://www.yaptracker.com/applications/cooperative-program-2026>

Singers: 3 video recordings

3 videos of contrasting language and style. One selection must be an aria or song written after 2010 and one selection must be in English. Your aria or song written after 2010 may be in English and satisfy both requirements leaving you free to choose two other selections in contrasting styles and languages.

Michael Ching is our composer/librettist as well as the music director. We will work on the 14 - 20 arias, duets, and trios from his new opera, Overheard. Each singer will have solo opportunities. Auditors will be welcome to attend. We especially encourage young composers and librettists so that they can experience how to take new opera from "page to stage."

Mark Craig, the general director of the Taos Opera Institute, who is commissioning the opera, will be the stage director.

Principal singers: Fourteen to 20 new arias and duets will be featured in Overheard and each singer in the program is guaranteed the chance to workshop a new aria, duet, or trio in addition to very light ensemble work. The arias, duets or trios may be double cast. There will be six hours of rehearsal each day. Additionally, there will be conversations and master classes with the creative team in the evening. The final night (Friday, July 10) will feature the workshop performance of the newly composed music with a talk-back with the cast and creative team after the performance. The workshop performance will be open to the public.

Auditors: Auditors will be in attendance for all the rehearsals and activities. This is a wonderful opportunity for young composers, librettists, stage directors, music directors, pianists, and singers to observe the intensity and rigor of working on three scenes of a new opera. There will be many opportunities for interaction with the creative team.

This year, for the second time, CoOPERAtive will be offered for college credit (undergraduate or graduate) should the participant desire.

Over the course of the one-week program, participants will receive nearly 40 hours of instruction, including music and staging rehearsals, as well as discussions and activities designed to enhance their learning. The program will culminate in a public workshop performance where the singers can show what they've learned.

CoOPERAtive is committed to connecting young singers and musicians with industry professionals. In addition to singers, we extend this opportunity to young composers, librettists, pianists and educators. Learning to develop and perform new opera strengthens participants' artistic skills and prepares them for professional opportunities. Auditors attend all the activities of the participants.

July 05, 2026 - July 11, 2026

The CoOPERAtive program, established in 2006, has long been a trailblazer for crafting a unique program for the developing singer. In 2026 we will continue on the NEW PATH, crafting a program that addresses skill sets that are not readily available to many singers for the WIN.

- Workshop for new operas
- Innovative opportunity to work with the creators
- New skills acquired

When you join us in July 2026 you will learn from the experts (composer, librettist, music director, stage director) and grow your expertise so that you are work ready when offered your first opportunity to create a new role in a new opera.

Program Director: Susan Shiplett Ashbaker

CoOPERAtive is thrilled to feature a collaboration with composer/librettist Michael Ching on his new opera, Overheard. Many of you know this famed composer for his innovative opera Speed Dating Tonight!, based on a concept by Dean Anthony, which has been produced over 150 times, making it one of the most popular operas of the 21st century.

Principal singers: Fourteen to 20 new arias and duets will be featured in Overheard and each singer in the program is guaranteed the chance to workshop a new aria, duet, or trio in addition to very light ensemble work. The arias, duets or trios may be double cast. There will be six hours of rehearsal each day. Additionally, there will be conversations and master classes with the creative team in the evening. The Resident Artist Program is led by renowned opera coach and pianist Nathalie Doucet, Detroit Opera's Head of Music. The program offers individualized study to cater to the unique needs of each artist and aligns with the country's top training programs. Detroit Opera serves as a nurturing home for these rising stars, supporting and helping them achieve their full potential in the highly competitive opera industry. The program builds on the strong foundations of the Studio Artist program founded by the late Dr. David DiChiera, the company's founder, while embodying the forward-looking leadership of Yuval Sharon, the Barbara Walkowski Artistic Director of Detroit Opera, President and CEO Patty Isacson Sabee, and Music Director Roberto Kalb. The program was reshaped in 2022 by Detroit Opera's former Associate Artistic Director, Christine Goerke, to keep pace with the spirit of innovation, outreach, and community-building that has characterized Detroit Opera's programming and administration since Yuval Sharon's arrival in 2020.

The four Resident Artists commit to an intensive program while living in Detroit from September through May. They train directly with Nathalie Doucet as their main coach in specially crafted and individualized curricula curated by Doucet, covering voice, movement, language, and career guidance. In addition to hands-on training and mainstage performances with Detroit Opera, Resident Artists also benefit from mentorship by a wide range of guest professionals throughout the season. In the 2024–25 season, guest faculty included soprano Caitlin Lynch, tenor Galeano Salas, bass-baritone Alfred Walker, voice teacher Don Marrazzo, stage director Chía Patiño, fight director and choreographer Katherine Coyl, Italian-language instructor Daniela D'Amico Henderson, and financial planner Brian Rood. Throughout the season, Resident Artists also work with Detroit Opera Staff Pianist John Etsell, Roberto Kalb, and Yuval Sharon. Additional guest artists and faculty in the program since 2022 have included sopranos Ana María Martínez and Janet Williams, mezzo-soprano Susan Graham, conductor Francesco Milioto, coaches Ellen Rissinger and Timothy Cheek, and numerous visiting directors and collaborators from across the industry.

In keeping with Detroit Opera's longstanding focus on making opera accessible to the surrounding community, Resident Artists forge direct ties to Detroit through recitals, concerts, and other collaborations with local schools, nonprofit organizations, businesses, and institutions. Resident Artists perform regularly during the season for patients at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital and in public concerts throughout Detroit and the state of Michigan. All Resident Artists begin on a one-year contract, and selected artists are invited to participate in a second year.

Repertoire Targeted:

- Le Nozze di Figaro - Mozart
- Don Pasquale - Donizetti
- Rigoletto - Verdi

June 21, 2026 - July 29, 2026

We are excited to return to Sicily for our 2026 Summer Intensive! The beautiful Unesco sponsored city of Caltagirone will host us again, and the Island of Sicily will be a beautiful backdrop to your intense artistic experience.

Mediterranean Opera Studio and Festival has for over a decade brought a uniquely powerful Summer program to opera performers and students.

Our teaching and coaching staff, and conductors are among the finest seasoned professionals in the World, from ROH Covent Garden, Vienna Staatsoper, Frankfurt Oper, Zürich Opera, Stuttgart Opera, Metropolitan Opera, etc.

Our scheduled operas for 2026 are: Don Pasquale, Le Nozze di Figaro, and Rigoletto.

Unique to MOSF is “orchestra time” where instead of coaching at the piano you coach with orchestra as our conductors help you understand timing, dynamics, and legato in ways learned only on stage by actively performing singers.

Transform your vocalism and your artistic skills under the careful guidance of the best teachers and coaches. Other programs promise a lot in 2 or 3 weeks. We actually deliver a lot, transforming your vocalism in 5 weeks of activity for a comparable price. MOSF is superior in every way. It is the hardest and most rewarding learning experience you can have.

The MOSF immersive artistic/cultural experience will be for six weeks, from June 21 (Arrival) through July 27th (Departure). Our entire focus will be on developing greater familiarity with what it takes to be a professional opera singer. This means voice training, coaching, and significant time with orchestra, conductors, and directors, and many performances.

Our schedule in 2026 will be divided into sections.

Preparing Before Arrival

Before we arrive in Sicily, we will already begin to study and plan our staging virtually. This will allow voice teachers, conductors, and coaches to become familiar with your work, and give you direction in preparing vocally, emotionally, and in acting – for the operas. This will allow us to hit the ground running in Sicily, and gives us more time to perform.

Performances

There will be a performance on most days starting at the end of week #2. Some performances will be open to the general public, and others will be by invitation only. ALL PARTICIPANTS ARE REQUIRED TO BE AT EVERY SHOW, as everyone will perform either as protagonists or chorus. Every singer in the program must arrive knowing their role/s and chorus completely off-book. Failure to know your role means you will become a cover and will not perform the role.

Voice Lessons and Individual Coaching

This will be the most vocally demanding period of your life. You will be challenged musically and in your vocal technique to perfect your vocalism, and you must be prepared, rested, hydrated, and focused as the pace of the program will truly test your endurance. We demand absolute focus and dedication during this period. Excessive recreational activity will be frowned upon during this time.

Orchestra Time and Ensemble Coaching

A particular opportunity unique to MOSF is what we call Orchestra

Time. This activity is meant to give participants time to sing with orchestra on an individual basis, as conductors explain the nuances of working in theaters and knowing how to connect with the pit. This will increase your familiarity and skill in following conductors and understanding the repertoire's demands.

Recreation

Sicily is one of the most beautiful places on the planet. Its landscape, beaches, people, and food - are the envy of the World. We will also focus on recreational activities so as to balance the significant workload with recharging. When we work we work hard, and when we recharge we leave opera behind and decompress.

Typical Day

Week 1 & 2 – Monday through Saturday: Major focus on staging operas, typically from 9am-1pm, and from 3:30-6:30pm. Opening Concert Sunday evening first week.

Week 3 & 4 - Monday through Saturday: Masterclass 9-11am; Orchestra Time 11-12:30; Lessons and coaching from 11-2, and 4-5:30pm; Shows at 6:30pm by invitation only (weekend shows 8:30pm open to general public).

Week 5 Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday: Masterclass 10-12; Coachings and lessons with guests (10pm-4:30pm). Performances alternating between 5:00pm (by invitation) and 8:30pm (open to general public) (some performances will be in other venues aside from our campus auditorium). Weekends are free except for evening shows 8:30pm.

Wednesdays and Saturdays during this period are dedicated to trips and recreation, and Sundays are free, except for potential weekend performances.

If committing to 5 weeks of intensive do not fit your availability for the Summer, then consider enrolling for a shorter period. Shorter programs run on a week to week basis and are encouraged to be during weeks 3 through 5, minimum of 1 week. Singers on an abbreviated program will receive voice lessons and coachings, and participate in all MOSF activities, but will not perform in Operas as soloists but can participate as chorus.

Fees

Payment is not provided

MOSF will cost singers $6,000 USD for the five-week period which runs from June 21st (arrival) through July 27th (departure). This includes all activities, including voice lessons, coachings, masterclasses, performances, transportation to and from airport on our scheduled shuttles, and tourism. Abbreviated programs are also available for those who cannot stay 5 weeks. They are $1200 per week.

Your participation fee is non-refundable under any circumstance. We strongly advise participants to purchase insurance BEFORE paying your Participation Fee (many insurance companies require acquisition of policy before your purchase of airline tickets and participation fee to the program. Notice we do not call fees "tuition" but rather "participation fees." Ours is an immersive artistic/cultural experience with opera in Italy. Insurance companies do not typically cover tuition to schools).

SOLO: Netherlands Bach Society Auditions (Utrecht The Netherlands)

<https://www.bachvereniging.nl>

<https://www.bachvereniging.nl/en/open-auditions-for-ensemble-singers>

At the moment, we are looking for one tenor and two basses to complete our core ensemble. In addition, we have openings for singers of all voice types for our substitute list and larger projects.

We are looking for professional singers with a high grade of musicality, flexibility and experience in ensemble singing. Our main focus is the baroque repertoire, especially Bach, but polyphony, early baroque and contemporary projects are also part of the repertoire. Therefore an affection for the 17th and 18th century repertoire and its style is obligatory, as well as sight reading skills. Singers should be excellent ensemble singers, as well as singing soloistically especially in the earlier repertoire. Significant experience in historically informed performance practise is essential.

We prefer candidates who live in the Netherlands and are taxable here for their remuneration.

Received By Fri Oct 31, 2025

Complete the online form. Selection for the auditions is based on the assessment of the CV and a recent video recording (in a single take) of an aria by J.S. Bach. You can upload your CV and recording via the application form.

Utrecht The Netherlands: Thu 4th Dec 2025

Utrecht The Netherlands: Sat 6th Dec 2025

Applicants will be notified by email on November 17 whether they have been invited to audition and will then receive a link to the sheet music for the required audition repertoire.

Auditions will take place on December 4 for altos and tenors and on December 6 for sopranos and basses, at the Berenkuil, Biltstraat 166 in Utrecht and will be live only (not online).

Pianist Provided

The Netherlands Bach Society is a unique and leading vocal-instrumental ensemble that has been committed to sharing the music of J.S. Bach with the world for over a hundred years. We do this through more than sixty concerts a year, educational projects, talent development and All of Bach, our YouTube channel full of high-quality recordings of Bach's works. The ensemble consists of approximately thirty musicians, including twelve core singers.

Indianapolis, Sun 12th Jul
IN USA: 2026

Preference for unaccompanied recordings unless submitting previously recorded material

July 12, 2026 - July 12, 2026

The Blakeman Gerber Indianapolis International Baroque Competition is a prestigious international event dedicated to showcasing the next generation of talent in historically informed performance of Early Music. The competition returns for its third iteration on July 12, 2026, and is held every four years, marking it as a highly anticipated event within the global early music community.

After the application process is complete, an anonymous screening committee selected by IEM/IBO will choose up to five Finalists and three alternates, based on the performance quality of their videos. Finalists and alternates will be notified of their status by March 18, 2026.

The selected Finalists will be invited to perform one of the two Baroque concertos submitted in their video with the IBO in concert at the Indiana History Center on Sunday, July 12, 2026 as part of the 2026 Indianapolis Early Music Festival.

The orchestral accompaniment must be for strings and continuo only; the IBO will not provide wind players. Pitch: A=415 Hz.

The chosen concerto must be no longer than 15 minutes in length.

The IBO will perform without a conductor; Finalists will be expected to provide their own orchestral parts in advance and will lead the rehearsal and performance of their concertos.

A panel of 5 jurors, internationally recognized specialists, distinct from the screening committee, will judge the Finalists' performances in Indianapolis. The jurors will base their decision on all aspects of the final performances. The panel will select the winner immediately after the concert and announce the results at the post-concert reception. All other prizes will be awarded at the same time.

Compensation

Payment is provided

The first-place winner will receive the Devona and Amos Gerber Prize of $15,000.

All Finalists, excluding the Gerber Prize winner, will be awarded a $1,000 Laureate Award.

A $500 Audience Prize will be voted on by the audience in attendance at the Finals.

All cash awards are subject to the regulations of the United States tax code.

Alexandra Baybutt: Body as Basis – Movement to enrich singing

Wednesday November 5th 7pm – 9 pm

Evelyn Freebury and Jenny Miller: Body, Breath, Voice

Friday November 14th 7pm – 9 pm

Additional courses TBA.

Barefoot Opera's tutors positively enable and support the work that singers are already engaged in, whilst offering fresh insights into the skills of classical singing and integrated movement.

Since we believe that real artistry and satisfaction in our art form is only found by engaging our whole self in the process, we work with the whole body /person in every sense. We firmly believe that a deeper understanding of how your body and breath work in movement will significantly develop your understanding of your voice, and to this end we have been creating a unique body of work for over fifteen years with our movement specialists.

Barefoot Opera invites you to rethink and deconstruct: to strip opera down to the basics of body, breath, movement, sound. We help you to access what you already have: the tools and resources to improve your whole experience of singing and performing.

Your Career in the Driver's Seat - Self-Producing for the Modern Singer

NOVEMBER 17-23, 2025 | online (live/asynchronously/hybrid)

DESCRIPTION

For the artists who ask the question... I want to produce a concert, an opera, or form an arts organization - how do I get the skill set needed to do so?

We will walk you through the the process of production in various formats, including self-production, in 5 engaging & information-packed sessions with artists who are producing – in the trenches, so to speak – day in and day out. No vague inspiration, just real, current, lived experience.

At the end of the program you will have the opportunity to create a project proposal of your own choosing and receive specific feedback and mentorship on the project.

- Walk through a production process - how to, from conception to wrap-up
- Marketing/venue search/publicizing (including digital)
- Programming and planning
- Hiring and contracts
- Writing biographies, program notes, and copy for events
- Funding and partnerships
- Budgeting and business plans

FINAL PROJECT

At the end of the program, each participant will be asked to create a project proposal, including:

- Name and description
- Budget and financial planning
- Personnel
- Funding/partnerships
- Production plan and schedule
- Marketing strategy

Project proposal will be evaluated by Opera Programs Berlin and detailed written feedback provided. The goal of the successful proposal is to serve as a blueprint for future projects!

Participants will receive a course certificate upon successful completion of the project proposal.
