About 124 St, Edmonton, AB

Stretching through one of Edmonton's most lively and creative districts, 124th Street is more than just a road—it's a local landmark. Known for its charm, culture, and strong sense of community, this street offers a blend of old Edmonton character and modern-day vibrance.

Take a stroll down 124th Street and you'll find everything from boutique shops and galleries to cozy cafés and artisan bakeries. It's also home to some standout addresses, like 10141 124 Street NW and 12451 97 St NW, where local businesses and creative hubs thrive. Whether you're exploring the art scene or just enjoying the street view, this part of the city feels both inspiring and welcoming.

Beyond its small-business energy, the area benefits from practical amenities, too—like nearby Canada Post locations and support from the Canadian Government in the form of accessible education and training programs for locals. It's a space where creativity, commerce, and community come together.

If you're visiting or live in the T5N 1R3 postal code, you know 124th has something special to offer. And if you're just discovering it now—consider this your invitation to experience one of Edmonton's most loved and walkable neighbourhoods.
