During Times of War the opportunity for social change is present	Questions/ Thoughts
A) African-Americans
B) Women
C) German-Americans

World War I brought about many changes at home, including unprecedented government control of the economy, news information and suppression of civil liberties. In times of war, the U.S. government has restricted people's personal freedoms. Since September 11th, the government has imposed new restrictions on personal freedoms in order to protect Americans which has caused many Americans to contemplate the question:

Is security of a nation more important than personal freedoms? Answer in a 7-10 sentence paragraph with examples.
