Student Learning Opportunities & Resources Week of March 30

Attention ATC families: The resources listed below are not intended to replicate your child's school day or learning experiences. They are however useful to support learning, promote academic engagement and assist in skills maintenance during the disruption to school-based learning. Your child can log in to Clever to access some of our online resources. Click here to view directions for logging in to Clever without their Clever badge.

Subject	Grade Level and Other Resources Please click on appropriate grade It is strongly suggested that students engage in the learning opportunities each day (Monday through Friday) in their core subjects as well as choosing one special to engage in each day. Please know, these learning opportunities are not required and will not be graded.  Need help keeping track of your lessons? Mrs. Sullivan shared a Home Learning Chart with you in your computer's Google Classroom.
