Part 4. You are a member of a food club. You received this email from the club
Dear members, The club will invite a famous chef. What will the chef guide to cook? Please give us the suggestions for both young and old people.

1. Write an email to your friend. Write about your feelings and what you would like to do. Write about 50 words.
2. Write an email to the manager of the club. Write about the feelings and what you think the club should do about the situation. Write about 120-150 words

Dear Manager,

My name is Susan. I have been an active member of the club for the last six months. I am writing this email regarding the upcoming event mentioned in the recent announcement.

I have been informed that we are planning to invite a famous chef to guide us how to cook. This news truly thrills me as I have been eagerly awaiting this event.

To make the event a memorable experience for all attendees, I would like to offer several ideas. Regarding the famous chef we are going to invite, I highly recommend Mr. David, who won the first prize in the ABC competition last year. He can come and share his interesting stories and experiences about cooking. I believe that with his talent and good sense of humor, he can make the event a big hit. As for the food that the chef will prepare, I suggest making simple but healthy and delicious dishes that everyone can make at home. It is more practical than preparing difficult ones.

Hopefully, my ideas can be a big contribution to make the event successful.

Best regards
