

Habit+ App Privacy Policy

Your privacy is paramount to us. This Privacy Policy delineates the manner in which Habit+ collects, uses, and shares information when you interact with our app. By using Habit+, you consent to the policies and practices described herein.

1. Collection of Information

- Non-Personal Data: Habit+ does not collect personal identifiers. However, for analytical purposes, we utilize third-party analytics software.
- Communication Information: Should you contact us via email, we will collect the email address you use and any information you voluntarily provide in your message.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use the information in the following ways:

- Service Delivery: To deliver services you request, process transactions, and ensure you receive a seamless experience.
- Customer Interaction: To address your queries, feedback, and concerns, and to offer responsive customer service.
- Performance Analytics: To gain insights from anonymous user data, which helps us enhance our service quality and user experience.
- Operational Communication: To dispatch confirmations, updates, security notifications, administrative alerts, and support messages that aid both your usage and our management of the service.

4. Policy Updates

Our commitment to being at the forefront of privacy standards means our Privacy Policy may evolve over time. Any updates or modifications to this policy will be published on this page and communicated to our users through official notifications or emails. We encourage users to periodically review this policy to stay informed. Continued use of the Habit+ app signifies your acceptance of any revised terms.

Your trust is essential to us, and we strive to be transparent and diligent in safeguarding your privacy. Should you have any concerns or questions regarding this Privacy Policy, please reach out to us.
