

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: 07 August 2025

I deeply value your privacy and appreciate that you're entrusting me with your details. Here's how I handle your information:

WHAT I COLLECT

When you sign up for BRAVE and FREE, I ask for your name and email address. Payments are handled via Stripe, who may collect your card details and billing address securely.

WHAT I DO WITH IT

Your email is used to:

- Confirm your purchase
- Give you access to the private Facebook group
- Occasionally check in to see how you're doing or share updates related to BRAVE and FREE

That's it. No spam. No sneaky sales tactics. And no sharing your info with anyone else.

THIRD PARTY SERVICES

Stripe is the secure payment processor I use. You can find their privacy policy [here]. I never see or store your card information.

KEEPING YOU SAFE

Only I (Siubhan) have access to your details, and I treat them with care and confidentiality.

YOUR RIGHTS

Want to update or remove your info? Just email me at siubhangreen@gmail.com, I'm happy to help.
