

Module 9 Section 2
Guided Reading Questions

Hardship and Suffering

Main Idea: During the Great Depression, Americans did what they had to do to survive.

Supporting Idea #1 The Depression Devastates People's Live

Why did people in cities live in shacks and wait in bread lines?

How did competition for jobs impact race relations during the Great Depression?

Why did many farm families leave their land during the Great Depression?

How did the Dust Bowl conditions in the Great Plains affect the entire country?

Supporting Idea #2 Effects on the American Family

How did the Depression affect men and their families?

Module 9 Section 2
Guided Reading Questions

How did the Depression affect women and children?

From what long-lasting psychological consequences did Depression survivors suffer?

Create and complete the diagram (Organize Information) from page 428 in the space below.