Cross Country

The Middle School Cross country team ran in Owosso last night against Owosso and Kearsley. The girls team ran incredible times to take down both Owosso by a score of 24 to 31 and Kearsley by a score of 15 to 46. Each of our girls ran to personal best times to run to the victory. The team was led by Quinn Timlick who placed second with a time of 14:39. She was followed by Rilynn Mittan who finished 3rd with a 14:45 and Elley Minton who finished 4th with a time of 15:17. Ellis Sule and Natalie Boone raced to a top ten finish, finishing 7th and 8th to help secure the win for Corunna. Payton Spencer dropped almost a minute off her time to finish 13th and Olivia Ross dropped almost a minute and a half to finish 16th. Great racing girls.

The boys all achieved their personal best times as well but fell to Owosso 22 to 53. They were able to beat Kearsley by a score of 22 to 33. Owen Carter placed 2nd running a 12:49.4 and Adam Brooks ran a 12:51 to finish 4th. Noah Chevalier ran in his first meet finishing 13th. Hudson Rathbun dropped a minute and a half to finish 18th and Ben Kennedy dropped 5 and a half minutes to finish 23rd.

Next up is Greater Lansing Championships on Monday. Amazing job team!
