

RESOURCE DIRECTORY FOR MIGRANT WORKERS IN MANITOBA

With the support of Employment and Social Development Canada, the Manitoba Association of Newcomer Serving Organizations (MANSO) has developed a live resource directory to share with our members and key stakeholders. This directory resource was created to support the unique needs of migrant workers. This includes workers with work permits giving them temporary status, such as Seasonal Agricultural Workers (SAWs) and Temporary Foreign Workers (TFWs).

Reporting Abuse and Misuse

Canada takes the abuse of temporary foreign workers very seriously. The following links lead to federal government pages that provide important information about reporting abuses.

1. Learn about reporting an abuse - This link explains the different types of abuses that can be reported, the things to know, and the information required to make a report
2. Make a report about abuse- This link leads directly to the Government of Canada online forms to make an abuse report
3. For more information call Service Canada Confidential Tip Line at 1-866-602-9448

Temporary Foreign Worker Program Employer Compliance

Each employer has a set of obligations that they must comply with. If an employer is suspected of not fulfilling these obligations, an inspection may take place. It is important for the employer and employee to be aware of these obligations for the protection of both parties.

Employer compliance: This link leads to a list of obligations of your employer. It explains the credentials required before someone can employ a TFW, the relevant records that must be kept and the particular situations employers are obligated to report.

Migrant Worker Hub: Resources for SPOs serving TFWs

A Safer Space for Migrant Workers: The Affiliation of Multicultural Societies and Service Agencies of BC (AMSSA) has put together an information sheet to help employers understand and navigate around the barriers that stand in the way of intercultural communication. They have identified issues such as a lack of knowledge about the different communication styles in different cultures, stereotypes, unconscious bias, and language barriers as important factors which employers should always work to avoid. By acknowledging these barriers the hope is to create a safer space for migrant workers.

A Guide to Employment Standards in Agriculture

Employment Standards in Agriculture at a Glance: The Government of Manitoba has created a guide to employment standards in agriculture. The guide outlines the most important pieces of information seasonal agricultural workers should be aware of. The Government of Manitoba has created a chart outlining the most common employment standards provisions in the province and to whom they apply within agriculture.

A Guide to Workplace Rights and Protections for Foreign Farm Workers in Manitoba

The Government of Manitoba has created a list of rights and protections for Temporary Foreign Workers that are ensured by the province. It is important to be aware of these rights in order to be able to identify any violations. The government fact sheet lists the most frequently asked questions and addresses a variety of helpful topics. Below you can find information about:

- Manitoba's minimum wage and pay statements
- Tax deductions and what your employer cannot charge you for
- Vacation pay and what happens if you or your employer choose to end the job early

The entire fact sheet is also available in Spanish

Employer Registration and Foreign Worker Recruitment License Information

The Work Recruitment and Protection Act, created to increase protections for foreign workers, mandates that anyone interested in engaging in recruiting foreign workers in Manitoba requires a license from Employment Standards. The act outlines the obligations of the recruiters in order to get approval of their license.

Employer Registration Information Fact Sheet: The Employment Standards Government of Manitoba Employer Registration fact sheet provides information about foreign worker recruitment and general expectations that come along with the role. It also addresses frequently asked questions such as: What should an employer do if there is no job when the worker arrives? What if the employer needs to lay off a worker? or Who pays the fees associated with immigration assistance?

Foreign Worker Recruitment License Information Fact Sheet: The Employment Standards Foreign Worker Recruitment License fact sheet provides basic information about the application process and license renewal. It also explains the boundaries between workers and recruiters.

- Recruiters cannot charge workers any fees, either directly or indirectly.

SAFE Work Manitoba

SAFE Work Manitoba has created resources to help workers understand their rights and responsibilities for safety at work and help employers carry out safety training and orientation.

- The Being Safe at Work Guide contains information in plain language about how people get hurt at work, workers' and employers' rights and responsibilities, and the right to refuse.
- SAFE Work also provides information about reporting serious incidents.
- Many downloadable safety and health guides are available.

Financial literacy

Because of the language barrier, Temporary Foreign Workers are more vulnerable to scamming. A scam is a trick in which someone tries to cheat another person out of their money. The Migrant Worker Hub has created a short video guide on how to avoid scams. The video explains several different important points: how to identify a scam, how to report a potential scam and how to protect yourself from being scammed.

Migrant Worker Hub's Video Guide to Avoiding Scams

The Little Black Book of Scams: The Competition Bureau of Canada has also created “The Little Black Book of Scams” in hopes to better inform anyone working and living in Canada about common scams and how to protect yourself from them. The Little Black Book of Scams describes many different types of scams, things to watch for and how to report a scam.

This resource is available in multiple languages: Arabic, Chinese Simplified, Chinese Traditional, French, Punjabi, Spanish, Tagalog

Let's Talk about Money: There is a lot to know about earning and using money in Canada. MANSO has created a small booklet in plain language to help inform newcomers about what you need to do and know to be financially safe and responsible while working in Manitoba. The “Let's Talk About Money” booklet covers the very basics of what you need to be aware of. The book discusses topics such as:

- Income: money you've earned and deductions (p.2)
- Income tax (p.4)
- Money management: How to make a budget (p.7)
- Banking services (p.11)
- Chequing and savings accounts: how to open and use different types of accounts (p.12)
- Electronic banking: types of services and safety tips (p.17)
- Investments: types of investments, how to get started and safety tips (p.19)

Financial Responsibility: Income tax and Benefit Return

Every adult living in Canada, even part-time residents, need to file an Income tax and Benefit return. The income taxes collected by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) go towards services and benefits that everyone in Canada shares, such as: roads, public safety and national defense, schools, hospitals, employment income assistance and child, family or disability benefits. Completing an Income Tax and Benefit Return can be difficult. Below are some of the resources available to help you with the process.

Get Ready to Do Your Taxes: This link leads to the government of Canada's 8 step guide on how to file your personal income tax. The page covers the important dates, details and information you need to know.

How To Get Your Taxes Done: Community Financial Counselling Services offers a number of different tax preparation services. Their services are available in many different forms: over-the-phone prep, drop-off forms, coached self-file learning and walk-in tax clinics.

- Contact Community Financial Counselling Services for a virtual tax appointment: 204-989-1913

Access to Benefits: Supporting Employment and Economic Development \(SEED\) Winnipeg helps people living on a low-income to file taxes, open a bank account, apply for benefits (such as the GST credit and the Canada Carbon Rebate) and apply for birth certificates, if born in Canada.

- The Access to Benefits and ID program
- Contact: 204-927-9935

Food

There are a number of services across Manitoba that provide emergency and community supported food.

Food Matters Manitoba has created a list of emergency food supports in Winnipeg. This list provides the names of the organizations, their locations, and what they can supply for you. There is a wide range of needs that this list covers: access to affordable fresh fruits and vegetables, weekly hampers and snacks etc.

*Some of the organizations require a health card to access supplies, or proof of residents. In many cases student ID is also accepted.

Food Matters Manitoba List of Emergency and Community supported food in Winnipeg

Below is a list of resources available in some of Manitoba's rural communities. These supports range from emergency hot meals to weekly food hampers and community exchanges.
