November Preschool Newsletter

For our spanish speaking families: Para español, seleccione el icono «Traducir todo» situado en la parte derecha de la pantalla. Tiene el aspecto de un símbolo chino y es de color azul.

As the days grow cooler and we move into this season of gratitude, we want to thank you for the many ways you support your child's learning every day. Whether you are reading together, exploring nature, or talking about your daily routines, these simple moments nurture curiosity, language, and connection.

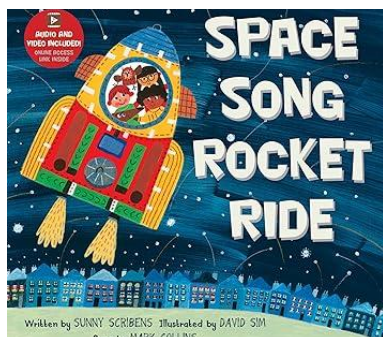

Our program continues to focus on building children's confidence, strengthening early literacy, and creating joyful learning experiences both at school and at home. We appreciate the opportunity to partner with you as we work together to design success for every student.

For families who receive the newsletter by mail, it should arrive before Thanksgiving. For families whose child or family member brings the newsletter home, it will be sent home tomorrow or Friday.

If you have not received your newsletter by the end of Thanksgiving break, please contact us so we can ensure you get a copy.

Sincerely,

Julie Briggs briggsju@d93mail.com and Jodi Barnes barnesj@d93mail.com

Two Links of Awesomeness:

Lesson Plans: At least once a year we like to share the preschool resources provided by the Idaho Migrant Education program. They have put together a book of preschool lessons and activities in both English and Spanish. They have made this available for free to anyone that would like to use it. A description from their book: This little book is intended to give you lots of hours of fun helping your 3-5 year-old child learn many of the skills he or she will need when he or she starts school in kindergarten. The lessons are found on the Idaho Migrant Education Homepage, after choosing Preschool Learning Kits. Here is a link to all the lessons: English/ Spanish Idaho Migrant Preschool Lessons at Home
