

Howell Krom, 88, of Wethersfield, died Friday (Jan. 17, 1997). He was born in Providence, RI, son of the late Rev. Dr. Asbury Krom and Margaret (Place) Krom. He had lived in Wethersfield most of his life. He worked for Connecticut Bank and Trust Co., retiring in 1974 as Assistant Treasurer. He was an Army Veteran of World War II. Funeral services and Burial will be at a later date. The James T. Pratt Funeral Service has charge of the funeral arrangements.

Assistant Treasurer HOWELL KROM retires on February 1 after 37 years of service with the bank. Howell has been in charge of the Main Office Safe Deposit Department since 1963. He had previously been assigned to the Mortgage-Real Estate Department. A native of Providence, Rhode Island, he attended Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. He is a member and past president of the Connecticut Safe Deposit Association and has also served on the executive committee of the American Safe Deposit Association. Howell resides in Wethersfield.