

Privacy Policy for TabuTabu App

Ulutas Studio ("we", "our", "us") respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your data while using TabuTabu.

1. Data Collection

- We use Google AdMob for personalized ads. Device identifiers (IDFA) may be collected.
- We do not collect your name, email, contacts, health, or financial information.

2. Advertising

- We may display ads through third-party ad networks.
- Users may allow tracking via App Tracking Transparency (ATT) prompt.

3. Payments

- Any payments are processed by Apple. We do not access your payment information.

4. Security

- We implement reasonable measures to protect your data.

5. Contact
