

18_Subjects & Predicates & Prepositional Phrases:

/103

Directions:

- put a / between the subject & predicate
- underline simple subject
- box the prepositional phrase
- double-underline simple predicate

Example:

Alfredo's birthday party was a great success.

Answer:

Alfredo's birthday party/was a great success.

1. Homemade strawberry ice cream, a real treat, was served at the party.
2. All the guests had a wonderful time.
3. Two of the girls arrived late but were in time for the games.
4. Valerie and Misty performed their magic act.
5. The icing on the cake spelled "Happy Birthday, Alfredo."

- - - turn over - - -

30 Points

1. We saw an old spinning wheel on display at the historical museum.
2. Anyone of us could have missed that turn!
3. David sent us a spectacular postcard from Rome.
4. The host asked her guests many questions.
5. Mom and Dad gave Evan a watch for his birthday.
6. Pam has made an appointment with Dr. Cabot, her dentist.
7. A meteor flashed across the sky and disappeared.
8. The planetarium on Harmon Street is one of our favorite places in town.
9. Sue mixed a fruit salad with grapes, cantaloupe, and berries.
- 10 Two deer, emerging from the trees, made their way to the stream.

.

