

DIALOGUE – Having Fun and Budgeting

A: Hey, do you want to go out tonight? We're thinking of checking out that new restaurant downtown.

B: That sounds like fun, but I'm not sure if I can afford it. I'm a little broke at the moment...

A: Oh, no problem. We can find something else to do that's more budget-friendly. How about we go to a park and have a picnic instead?

B: That's a great idea. I could bring some snacks and drinks.

A: Perfect. And if you want, we can help you out with some money for the food.

B: That's really kind of you, but I think I can manage. Thanks for being so understanding.

A: Of course, we've all been there. It's important to stick together and have fun no matter what.

B: I appreciate that. Let's plan on the picnic then! I'm excited to spend some time outdoors.

A: Me too! It'll be a great night.

NOTE: Budget-friendly is another way to say inexpensive, or reasonable in price.
