

SOCIETY RULES

CURTIN COMPUTER SCIENCE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

All Guild clubs are required to govern themselves in accordance with the rules set out in the Default Guild Club Constitution which outlines basic rules for the daily running and management of the club. The most current version can be found on the Guild website.

Society Rules may be developed in accordance with the Society Rules clause within the Default Guild Club Constitution. The Society Rules may include additional operational and administrative processes and procedures deemed necessary and appropriate in order for a Society to meet its objectives.

1. Commencement

- 1.1 Guild Council approved these Society Rules on 17 June 2025.
- 1.2 These Society Rules were passed by a 75%+1 special majority of the members of the student society present at a general meeting of the student society on [date] at which time it will take effect.

2. Definitions

- 2.1 An 'Advisor' is an individual who is a member of the society who has been appointed by the committee to offer insights and recommendations to the committee.

3. Meetings

- 3.1 Advisors shall have a standing invite to all committee meetings with the following restrictions:
 - (a) They do not hold voting rights;
 - (b) Their presence is not required to reach quorum.

4. Committee

4.1 Powers of the Committee

The Committee

- (a) May appoint up to three (3) Advisors to provide insights and recommendations to the committee in order to achieve the overall success of the Club.
- (b) Advisors must meet the following minimum requirements:
 - (i) is a current Member of the society as per the definition of a 'member' within the constitution.
 - (ii) has previously served on the Committee; and
 - (iii) served at least 6 months on the Committee.
 - (iv) the Committee has deemed the Advisor holds the knowledge, skills, and experience that are relevant to the Club's objectives; and
 - (v) are appointed by simple majority vote of the committee.
- (c) Advisors may have their role declared vacant or be removed from their role by the following means:
 - (i) resignation;

- (ii) death;
- (iii) by the Discipline Tribunal/Appeals Tribunal; or
- (iv) upon making of a declaration by the Chair of the Committee at a meeting of the Society certifying that the Advisor has:
 - (A) failed to observe the Rules of the Society or whose conduct, in the opinion of the Committee, was prejudicial to the interests of the Society;
 - (B) their membership cancelled or suspended;
 - (C) not met, or at any point during their term failed to meet, the eligibility requirements in the Constitution and Society Rule; or
 - (D) has been deemed by two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the committee to not have been performing the requirements of the role to an acceptable standard.

5. These Society Rules

5.1 The Society Rules shall be subject to the Guild Statute Book and Default Guild Club Constitution and to the extent of any inconsistency between the two the Guild Statute Book shall prevail and to the extent of any inconsistency have priority in the following order:

- (a) Guild Statute Book;
- (b) the Constitution; and
- (c) these Society Rules.

5.2 Any adoption of the rules of the Student Society or amendment to such rules must follow the process outlined in the Default Guld Club Constitution.