FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Cranford High School Madrigal Choir will present its annual Spring Concert on Sunday, May 31st at 1:30PM at Trinity Church, Cranford. Join the students as they celebrate their exceptional season with selections spanning the ensemble's repertoire from throughout the school year.

It has been an exciting season for the Madrigal Choir. Members performed alongside singers from across the country in concerts at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. In addition, four of the Madrigal students participated in the 2025 NJ All-State Chorus, and four of the students were selected for the upcoming 2026 All-State Choruses. This past December, the choir also released its holiday album, Cranford Madrigals: A Holiday Reunion, while continuing its tradition of sharing holiday music and carols throughout the Cranford community.

The CHS Madrigal Choir's final concert of the season on Sunday, May 31st, will feature works by American composers, including Samuel Barber, Randall Thompson, and Leonard Bernstein. The performance is at 1:30PM at Trinity Episcopal Church, on the corner of North and Forest Avenues. Admission is free and open to the public. Free-will donations will be accepted to benefit the Cranford High School Choral Program.
