

ClariMed Privacy Policy

At ClariMed, your health information belongs to you.
We are here to protect it — not exploit it.

Here's what you should know:

1. Your Data Is Safe

When you upload your lab results or health information:

- It is securely stored
- It is protected with strong encryption
- Only authorized systems can access it
- We do not sell your health data

Your medical records are private — always.

2. Why We Collect Your Information

We collect your information to:

- Review your lab results
- Provide clear next medical steps
- Store your health history securely
- Help you share records with doctors when you choose to

We only collect what we truly need.

3. We Share Only With Your Permission

ClariMed will never share your medical information unless:

- You authorize us to share it
- The law requires it

No advertising companies.

No hidden third parties.

No data selling.

4. You Control Your Records

You can:

- View your stored records
- Request corrections
- Request deletion (where legally allowed)
- Download or transfer your records

Your health data moves only with your approval.

5. Protecting Children

We require parental or guardian consent before collecting health information for children under 13.

6. Important Reminder

ClariMed provides medical interpretation and guidance.
We do not replace emergency care or in-person hospital visits.

If you are in an emergency, please go to the nearest hospital immediately.
