

Aside from commissioners/trade partners/adopters reposting the work I've done for them, my art CANNOT be taken and uploaded/used anywhere by anyone.

Upon asking for/recieving a pic from me, I will assume that you have read those rules. If you did not and later realize you do not agree with something here, that will be your own fault as it is your responsibility to read through before agreement.

General reposting rules :

- I retain rights to my art.
- You must own at least one of the characters (if you buy a commission/an adoptable for someone else, you can't repost it).
- You MUST credit me with a clickable link to my page.
- Do not remove/hide my signature or the credit text.
- DO NOT edit my art.
- If you part with a character I've drawn, please remove my art from any of your galleries, to avoid confusion of ownership.
- Adoptables have specific TOS that should be read here.

Reposting on Toyhou.se :

- You can directly credit on-site artist HoshiBerry.

Reposting on other art sites or your own site/blog :

- You must credit me with a clickable link (not just my name).
- If you can't put links and only in that case, cypaste my page url or write "Myra at Furafinity" or "HoshiBerry at Deviantart".

Special case : Weasyl :

- Do not repost. Ask me to upload the art and I'll send you a collection invite.
- Exceptions : Adoptables and reference sheets, but only in the "Character" feature. Do not post them in your gallery. Credit me with a clickable link.

Where you CAN'T repost :

- Pixiv (I don't know if they allow it anyway, but please don't).
- Boorus, Zerochan, e621 and Image boards in general. Pinterest, weheartit...
- Tinypic, Imageshack, Flickr, Photobucket and any image hosting site, unless the pics are submitted as private/password protected.
- Youtube, Tiktok, Dailymotion and other video hosting sites (You can't make a video slideshow containing my pic).

Printing and commercial use :

- You can print your pics for your personal use as much as you'd like.
- You can't use them for commercial purposes. NTFs are strictly prohibited.

Ignoring and/or breaking the rules will result in blacklisting.
