

FABHAMPTONS

Curated Weekend Calendar

August 28–30, 2026Art • Fashion • Philanthropy • Fabulousness

The final weekend of August is packed with culture from Southampton to Montauk. Art leads with ACA Galleries, Rebecca Moses, Contessa Gallery, The Watermill Center, Dalton Portella and Ma's House. Music & Performance brings Donna McKechnie, Sammy Figueroa, contemporary dance and comedy. Film & Culture includes JUMPERS and SummerDocs, while the Hampton Classic anchors the weekend in Bridgehampton.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 28

SPRINGSVIGNETTES: Where Two Roads Meet*Ashawagh Hall*Opening Reception: 5–8 PM

Exhibition August 28–31, daily 10 AM–6 PM

About ACA Galleries brings a selection of American art from the 19th century to the present to Ashawagh Hall, including work by Milton Avery, E.M. Bannister, Romare Bearden, John Marin, Henry Ossawa Tanner, Balcomb Greene, Doowon Lee and others.

Why We Like It A remarkably strong roster for an intimate Springs exhibition—and a chance to see major names in American art outside the usual museum setting.

780 Springs Fireplace Road

East Hampton, NY 11937

ACAGalleries.com

SOUTHAMPTONTALK: Rebecca Moses — The Art of Observation*Southampton Arts Center*5:30–7 PM

About Rebecca Moses joins Ralph Pucci and Stefano Tonchi for a conversation exploring the intersection of art, fashion, design, storytelling and the evolution of a creative life. The discussion accompanies Moses' immersive Art of Observation residency.

Why We Like It Art, fashion, design and storytelling in one conversation—an especially FabHamptons intersection of creative disciplines.

25 Jobs Lane

Southampton, NY 11968

SouthamptonArtsCenter.org

BRIDGEHAMPTON

JUMPERS — Screening + ReceptionThe Tractor Barn at Bridgehampton Museum / A Room at the Beach*Screening: 6–7 PM

Reception: 7:30–10:30 PM

Reception registration subject to host approval

About Naomi Sedgwick's JUMPERS follows rising equestrian athlete Skylar Wireman as she pursues elite competition. The screening is followed by an intimate dinner-and-cocktails reception at A Room at the Beach.

Why We Like It One of the weekend's especially relevant Hamptons stories: equestrian sport, ambition, documentary filmmaking and the Hampton Classic world coming together.

Screening: 2368 Montauk Highway, Bridgehampton, NY 11932

Reception: 2668 Montauk Highway, Bridgehampton, NY 11932

BridgehamptonMuseum.org—
MONTAUKDALTON: Paintings*The Montauk Beach House*Reception: 6–9 PM

Music: 8 PM

About Montauk artist Dalton Portella presents an evening of paintings, with music later in the evening.

Why We Like It Local, personal and quintessentially Montauk, combining painting and music with an artist deeply connected to the community.

55 South Elmwood Avenue

Montauk, NY 11954

DaltonPortella.com—
EAST HAMPTONRoderick George | kNname Artist: The Grave's Tears*Guild Hall*8–9:30 PM

About Performed by seven male dancers, The Grave's Tears examines grief, resistance, intimacy, survival and collective care while confronting systemic oppression and the legacy of the HIV/AIDS epidemic.

Why We Like It Powerful contemporary dance with emotional and cultural substance.

158 Main Street

East Hampton, NY 11937

GuildHall.org—
SATURDAY, AUGUST 29

SOUTHAMPTON

Hampton Vintage — A Luxury MarketplaceThe Elks Lodge Southampton

10 AM–5 PM

About Hampton Vintage brings together more than 60 curated vendors featuring vintage, handmade pieces, and independent design.

Why We Like It A fun Saturday shopping stop for discovering one-of-a-kind fashion, accessories, home finds, and independent makers.

605 County Road 39

Southampton, NY 11968

Rebecca Moses: The Art of ObservationSouthampton Arts Center*12–5 PM

Free admission; no registration required

About Part exhibition, part working studio, part performance and part conversation, Rebecca Moses' residency invites visitors to watch her paint in real time and witness the creative process as observation becomes image.

Why We Like It Instead of seeing only the finished object, visitors get access to creativity while it is actually happening.

25 Jobs Lane

Southampton, NY 11968

SouthamptonArtsCenter.org

—

SOUTHAMPTON

Presence: The Photography Collection of Judy Glickman LauderSouthampton Arts Center*12–5 PM

About Approximately 100 photographs by more than 50 artists explore human presence through portraiture, landscape, photojournalism and city life.

Why We Like It A substantial museum-quality photography exhibition and an easy pairing with the Rebecca Moses residency.

25 Jobs Lane

Southampton, NY 11968

SouthamptonArtsCenter.org

—

BRIDGEHAMPTON

Hampton Classic Horse ShowHampton Classic Horse Showgrounds*August 23–30

Main gates open 8 AM daily

Grand Prix Sunday: 10:30 AM & 2 PM

About The Hampton Classic returns for its 51st edition with FEI 5* and 2* show jumping, world-class hunters and a weeklong social scene. Sunday's finale includes the $70,000 2* Grand Prix at 10:30 AM and the $400,000 Longines Hampton Classic Grand Prix at 2 PM.

Why We Like It The quintessential end-of-summer Hamptons tradition—elite equestrian competition, people-watching, shopping and social scene.

240 Snake Hollow Road

Bridgehampton, NY 11932

HamptonClassic.com

WATER MILLThe Disappearance of Landscape: Oakleyville, 1964–2022*The Watermill Center*Opening Reception: 4–6 PM

About Curated by Marcelo Gabriel Yáñez and Noah Khoshbin, the exhibition investigates artists connected to New York City and Oakleyville on Fire Island, including Peter Hujar, Paul Thek and Ann Wilson.

Why We Like It Art, place, memory and cultural history converge here.

39 Watermill Towd Road

Water Mill, NY 11976

WatermillCenter.org

SOUTHAMPTON

Everything I Envisioned Happened — Flávia JunqueiraContessa Gallery*Opening Reception with the artist: 6–8 PM

Exhibition August 29–October 31

About Contessa Gallery opens an exhibition of photographs and an immersive installation by Brazilian artist Flávia Junqueira. Known for introducing thousands of balloons into grand architectural spaces, Junqueira travels from São Paulo to create a new installation inside the Southampton gallery.

Why We Like It A visually seductive collision of architecture, fantasy and impermanence—and the artist is in Southampton for this one-night opening reception.

9 Main Street

Southampton, NY 11968

ContessaGallery.com

SOUTHAMPTON

JazzFest: Sammy Figueroa Presents A Tribute to Cal TjaderSouthampton Arts Center*6:30–8 PM

About Grammy-nominated percussionist and bandleader Sammy Figueroa celebrates pioneering vibraphonist Cal Tjader with Latin jazz, Afro-Cuban rhythms and improvisation.

Why We Like It A sophisticated summer-night choice.

25 Jobs Lane

Southampton, NY 11968

SouthamptonArtsCenter.org

EAST HAMPTON

SummerDocs: The Last First: Winter K2Guild Hall*7–9:30 PM

About Director Amir Bar-Lev's documentary follows a perilous 2021 winter expedition on K2. The screening is followed by a conversation with Bar-Lev, Alec Baldwin and HamptonsFilm Chief Creative Officer David Nugent.

Why We Like It Far more than an adventure film: life-and-death stakes meet questions of ambition, money and power.

158 Main Street

East Hampton, NY 11937

GuildHall.org

WAINSCOTT

Donna McKechnie: A Musical Memoir

LTV Studios

7:30 PM

About Tony Award-winning A Chorus Line star Donna McKechnie closes the Hamptons Summer Songbook By The Sea season with stories and songs from an extraordinary theatrical life.

Why We Like It Living Broadway history in an intimate East End setting.

75 Industrial Road

Wainscott, NY 11975

LTVEH.org

SOUTHAMPTON

Sticks & Stones Comedy Presents: Irene Bremis

Southampton Cultural Center

Doors: 7:30 PM

Show: 8 PM

About Stand-up comedian, writer, actress and radio personality Irene Bremis headlines with Kyle Mara, Matt Ritter, Frenchie Ferenczi and Pete Cestaro.

Why We Like It A welcome change of pace after a culture-heavy Saturday.

25 Pond Lane

Southampton, NY 11968

SticksAndStonesComedyClub.comSUNDAY, AUGUST 30

SOUTHAMPTON

A Moment of Our Time: A Shinnecock Response to America 250

Ma's House

Opening Reception: 5–8 PM

Free; RSVP required

About This group exhibition centers living Shinnecock artists as they consider the United States' 250th anniversary through land, sovereignty, cultural survival, military service, family memory and the continuing consequences of American history.

Why We Like It One of the weekend's most important exhibitions, centering contemporary Shinnecock voices and their enduring relationship with the land.

159 Old Point Road

Southampton, NY 11969

MasHouse.studio

Full event details in the @FabHamptons Link.tree in bio.

Please like, comment, save, and share—it really helps more people discover FabHamptons. Thank you for your support!

XO, Debra