The Dark Feminine & Her Money Saga

Goddess or should I say, the Dark Infernal chosen one, the one who came to run with wolves but instead is drowning in a sea of small fish....

You heard this before, you keep hearing it and now it feels like a cruel curse that just won't go away no matter which direction you take.....

You were born temple-coded — and your DNA thinks money = danger.

Listen

Your female brain, female nervous system, female organs - (emphasis on FEMALE - because this body is of a different currency - most healing systems are male dominated and revolve around the masculine structure) learned collapse, so when abundance talk shows up, your body instantly says - FUCK NO - not again.

It feels like rape.

It is, because it's erect, left brained and very masculine and it rubs against the feminine aggressively.

So subliminally, you don't say 'yes.' You brace, resist and reject. You shut down, freeze, flee and fight all at the same time.

I'm talking about nervous system dysregulation neurodivergent style..

It's so embedded and silent you don't even know it's happening..

If you're in the ADHD/Autism spectrum, this is deeper — you feel and store more. The fix isn't more manifesting posts or surface level affirmations. This is how you gaslight, dismiss and piss off your entire operating system.

The way through - (the only one in this case) is somatic: it is a softening of your jaw, sacrum, psoas, nerves — a softening that speaks to the viscera and sends a memo saying, 'Ok its safe to open, allow, receive'

The darker, more powerful you are, the more sensitive you probably are.
A sort of delicate mafia boss...

So the rewiring to allow pleasure stands at hierarchy above anything else

Money for you is not numbers, or a stack of cash. Its not even energy in the floaty sense.
It is vitality, life force, blood and bone.

It is a thick impenetrable obsidian chunk of rich energy that you can locate in your field.

So....

Somatic unbracing....so money can land in your body without tripping the alarm.

This is psychosomatic rehab, not pep talk or quantum hype.

If this touches your G'Spot, you know you are Temple-coded but was taught collapse and you've done everything in your ability to change this, it might mean that you and I have some work to do.

I don't take anyone into my portals. As a neurodivergent myself, who I work with has to resonate with my bones but if you feel I am the woman you wish to work with, go into this PORTAL.

This is 1:1 work designed to arouse and let me in on what you're going through. It's also a solid way to let me know if we're aligned to work together. The form will take you down 2 paths - SORCERY Based work / PSYCHOSOMA based journeys. Choose what is for you but if it's money related, your focus needs to be SOMATIC work for now..

I feel where you're at in terms of money collapse. Money is a very savage reflective mirror for the DF as it shows her who she was born to be and where she is designed to 'spend' her vital energy...

Money is life-force; your body must accept it before your brain can believe it
