

American Film Showcase Application Form

Applicant's name, email, and phone number:

Statement of Support:

Please write a statement supporting your application and how you would benefit from participating in an AFS workshop in 2025. Please include how you are unique and how your work and approach stand out.

Please answer the following questions:

1. Would you work well with candidates from different countries and be open to participating in diverse cultural exchange?
2. Upon your return, how would you share your experiences? How would you apply your participation upon return?
3. English language is a requirement. Do you have the English language fluency to participate in a classroom environment?
4. Documentary Feature Title: What is the current working title of your feature documentary project they'll be workshopping at the Doc Residency?
5. Current Status of Project: Research / Development, Pre-Production, Production, or Post-Production?
6. Project Description: This should communicate the documentary's narrative, structure, characters, and relevant themes. (500 words max)

7. Personal Statement: This is a director's statement that should communicate why you are telling this story, relevant personal background information relating to the story, and artistic approach to the film. (500 words max)
8. Link to Project Sample: Online link to work-in-progress documentary footage.
9. Password to Project Sample: If password protected, please provide.
10. Please share a professional CV that includes the filmmakers' work experience as a filmmaker, past projects, past film festivals, etc.
11. Additional Reference Materials/Video Links: If there are additional links to past works, please provide here.