

No wonder why (medical entities + medical personnel + etc), recommend circumcision for 99% of newborn males.

This shit has been ongoing for multiple decades btw. To all of those dumb retards who indicate that “males are not being circumcised FOR PROFIT REASONS” → I give you the middle finger.

The title of this post is about, (foreskin cells + foreskin stem cells) are being utilized for commercial use cases → in the present. And, (foreskin cells + foreskin stem cells) have been utilized for commercial use cases → in the past.

→Foreskin cells are wanted for their (FIBROBLASTIC PROPERTIES). Foreskin cells are considered as (FIBROBLAST CELLS). (FIBROBLAST CELLS) are highly sought after by (medical entities + other entities). Fibroblast cells are wanted for their superior wound healing abilities, for significant wound injuries.
