

Video Worksheet - English Grammar Lesson - The Sentence

Name _____

____ / 20 Points

What is a sentence?

1. The definition of a sentence contains three things that a sentence must do. List what those three things are in English and Japanese in the spaces provided below.

A sentence must:

- | | English | 日本語 |
|----|---------|-------|
| a. | _____ | _____ |
| b. | _____ | _____ |
| c. | _____ | _____ |

2. Write one example each of an English sentence that meets the criteria above and one that doesn't.

A good sentence: _____ .

A bad sentence: _____ .

3. There are four types of sentences in English. List what those three things are in English and Japanese in the spaces provided below. Below each type of sentence, write an example of that type of sentence.

The four types of English sentences are:

- | | English | 日本語 |
|----|---------|-------|
| a. | _____ | _____ |

Example: _____ .

- | | | |
|----|-------|-------|
| b. | _____ | _____ |
|----|-------|-------|

Example: _____ .

c. _____

Example: _____

d. _____

Example: _____

Exercise - 1 Identify the type of sentence.

Example sentences

Type of sentence

1. Mother cooks food at home.

2. Virtue has its own reward.

3. Do you believe in God?

4. Oh! I'm so sorry.

5. Do as you are told.

6. Please do not leave me alone.

7. Oh! My joy is beyond words.

8. Be quiet and move in a line.

Exercise - 2 Rewrite the following as meaningful sentences.

1. I new jeans a pair bought of.

2. spectacles wears he.

3. train getting the closer is.

4. you clean should wear clothes every day.

5. making you why a noise are.
