Hour 1

“Kellen, What’s that your writing in?” Kat asked.

Then I replied “While were all on this adventure I thought it would be cool to journal everything we see and do.” We were going on a cruise in Camden’s new artificially intelligent liner. He said that he loved it and that he was thinking about proposing, but I wasn’t sure if he was joking or not.

“How long till Camden does that thing with the win-”(Crash) said

Cj as he was cut off by the crash of the wine bottle against the side of T.s.w.b.h.b.a.s (For the rest of the story of these journal entries I will say “The ship” or spell check will put a bounty on my head.) That’s the name Camden gave his ship. He told me it came in a dream. It stands for: This ship will be hit by a Stevence “Whatever that’s supposed to mean.” I said out loud accidentally writing this down as dialogue. “How long until we leave?” I said excited.

“Immediately!” said the ship.

Hour 2

Now that we were on the ship far out at sea without the hope of being rescued in the case of a disa- ADVENTURE we could all settle into to our cabins. As I was walking into my cabin the ship said, “What do you prefer?”. Confused I said back: “Glorious battle?”. Just then a hun launched at me. “Ahh!” screamed the hun.

“Ahh!” I screamed back confused. I slammed the door closed.

“That’s it! I’m sleeping in the brig.”

Hour 3

This is awesome! This ship is so cool! Were all relaxing on the deck. Swimming, getting tans. (just kidding) nobody's getting tans. This ship is way to cool! There's an entire water/action park here. "Too boring! I need to shoot something! I cant take all of this anymore! AHHHHHHHHHHH!" Max said through blood blurred eyes jumping off the ship. "Max! We have lifeboats!" Kat yelled over the side of the ship. "CRAAAAAAAAAAAAAAP!" max yelled.

RIP MAX

Hour 4

Today I had a dream. It was really weird it had a very large plot convenience stevice rising out of the ocean and tipping the ship. It's probably nothing. I'll go back to sleep on my container of generic very expensive crab and lobster.

Hour 5

BOOM! It came from the kitchen. I ran into the hallway. Apparently so did everybody else. "The kitchen" We all yelled. IN the kitchen we found Griffin next to the stove. He must have used the stove wrong, because he had become a burning husk on the floor. "Time to bury the dead!" said the ship gleefully. "Not now!" said Camden.

RIP GRIFFIN

Hour 6

"Boom! Splash!" I looked out my window. There it was! A colossal Stevence rose out of the water! "You have been warned!" He boomed. "UH-OH!" The ship said. Just then the Stevence pushed the ship over and it cracked into three!

Just then I started running. I looked to the left and saw CJ impaled on a spike. "Kellen! The lifeboats!" (A tree shaped spirit floats out of his body.)

RIP CJ

Now running for the lifeboats I looked to my right. Boom! Some of the roof fell and landed onto Kat! "Remember me!" She croaked.

RIP KAT

The lifeboats were ahead. Standing next to them was Camden. "Camden get in the lifeboats!" I yelled. "No! I must stay with my love!" begged Camden. "I love you to my love!" said the dying ship.

RIP T.S.W.B.H.B.A.S.

I jumped into the lifeboat and floated away just as the final blow from the Stevence was done.

RIP CAMDEN

"YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED!" screamed the Stevence once more sinking into the ocean along with the dead ship.

Hour 7

Apparently, I was a lone survivor. I'll probably die eventually due to lack of food and water unless a ship shows up. But I have one warning!

SAYS SOMETHING, LISTEN!!!
