Terms of Service

By commissioning me, you agree to the following terms:

Pricing and Payment:

- Payments are made in two parts - half upfront, the other half upon completion.
- Prices are subject to change at any time.
- Price may increase, for example if you want a detailed background, a complex character, multiple characters or something not normally offered in the commission.
- Please do not argue about the price, beg for a lower price, or ask for free art.
- I am only accepting payments via PayPal at this time. Sorry!
- Prices are listed in US dollars as most of my audience is from the US. Paypal will automatically convert the currency to CAD, so don't worry about that!

Art Process:

- It is the commissioner's responsibility to provide visual references and descriptions. These can be for the character (appearance, pose, and personality), the background, and sometimes even a specific style. Make sure you are clear about what you want and answer my questions.
- I will send you watermarked WIPs (works in progress) of your commission. Normally I will send a sketch, the lineart, and the flat colours. If you want me to change anything, please inform me when I send you these progress pictures, NOT when the artwork is finished.
- I do not normally work on commissions in the order I receive them. I may work on multiple at a time, especially if I have some very simple commissions and some very complicated ones.
- How quickly I finish the commission depends on the complexity of the artwork and how much free time I have. Please keep in mind that it can take anywhere from a few days to a few months. I am working a full time job!

Copyright:

- All rights to the artwork produced belong to the artist (me). This means I am allowed to post it on DeviantArt, YouTube, Instagram and other social media platforms as a means of self promotion.
- When posting the commissioned artwork, you must credit me for the art. This includes providing a link to my social media pages, either DeviantArt or YouTube (links below).
- You may only use the commissioned artwork for personal use.
- You may claim rights to the character(s) in the artwork, but not the artwork itself (assuming the characters are yours).
- Do NOT use my art commercially (making money off of it), take credit for the art/claim it as your own, trace it, remove my signature or edit/alter the original artwork in any way.

Other:

- I have the right to cancel the commission and refund your money at any time. I will usually only do this when I don't have the time to finish it.
- You do NOT have the right to cancel and demand a refund. You may only cancel the commission if you have not paid me yet.
- Please be respectful and kind.

Contact Information:

Please DO NOT ask for commissions in the YouTube comments! YouTube frequently deletes comments on my videos!
