

Welcome to Camp, Counselor-in-Training!

We are so excited to have you join our team as a Counselor in Training (CIT) this summer! In your role, you'll be helping your classroom teacher with fun projects, games, and activities, and you'll also help keep our younger campers safe and happy. You're not just a camper anymore, you're part of the team!

Here's what you need to know:

You're a Leader!

You'll be acting as a teacher assistant. This means helping out in class, setting a great example, and stepping up when someone needs a hand.

Your Badge

You'll get a special name badge on your first day so everyone knows who you are. Please send us a photo of yourself before camp starts so we can have it ready!

Walkie Talkies!

You'll wear a walkie to stay in touch with other teachers and staff. Don't worry, we'll show you how to use it like a pro!

Let's Speak Spanish!

We encourage you to speak Spanish as much as possible. It's totally okay if you make mistakes, practice is how we get better!

On Field Trips...

You'll walk at the back of the group to help keep our younger campers safe and on track. You'll help make sure everyone's listening and following directions.

Lunchtime

You're welcome to eat with your group at the picnic tables, or if you need a little break, you can relax in the teacher lounge with your lead teacher.

First Day Tour

On your first day, we'll take you on a tour so you know where everything is—and so you can learn all our camp rules and routines.

We're so proud to have you stepping into this new leadership role. You're going to be amazing, and we can't wait to see you shine!
