

My name is Albert Tang, a rising 8th grader at Mountview Middle School in Ellicott City, Maryland. I started coding with Python in 5th grade and finished courses in data science using Python. I am currently in a computer science course and taking a python course. Python is a great language to learn.