

Avatar: Roni, 29 y/o, wants to live his best experience during his holiday in Corsica.

Current State: Roni can't find any personal help from any place to assist him in finding a hotel in Corsica. He has a challenging professional life so he doesn't want the stress of organizing his trip to make it wonderful by finding the hotels and the places to visit. He doesn't have time and doesn't want to do it, he wants someone else to do the work for him.

Dream State: Roni wants to explore this new amazing place, Corsica. He wants to find someone to plan for him the best trip ever, where he can relax and have time to get to know the place, visit all the natural beauties of Corsica, and suggest the best places to make a culinary experience.

Roadblock: The thing that is keeping Roni away from reaching his dream state is that he doesn't have the support of someone that knows a great place like Corsica well. He doesn't have the expertise and time to do it on his own and he needs someone to help him make him live one of the most pleasant experiences of his life.

Solution: If Roni finds a travel agency to support him, then he will live his vacation at the greatest level possible.

Product: The product is the great assistance and support of the travel agency. The agency will give 24/7 assistance before, during, and after the vacation. They will understand and base the planning of the vacation on the needs and desires of Roni, they will put up a program to make him explore Corsica at the best, and they will help them find the most pleasant structure for Roni to relax and live a great vacation.

Admired from a deck chair while sipping a Long Island.

Hearing finches mixing their chirping with the sound of waves breaking on the shore,

With the summer breeze stroking your cheeks.

Your feet dangling, slightly touching the ground, with the sand still warm from the morning,

Next to your family or the person you love.
