Cyprus blog: www.cyprushive.blogspot.com

Overseas blog (all locations except Cyprus): www.internationalhive.blogspot.com

The HIVE blogs are online information noticeboards and are best viewed through a personal device because official work firewalls may block some links. They are continuously updated and aim to provide generic and local information of relevance to the military community on a wide range of topics.

Support for Armed Forces personnel and their families in general

HIVE also produces generic Information Sheets on the following topics. Find them on our website or ask your local HIVE for a copy:

- Accommodation
- Childcare, Schools and adult education
- Domestic Abuse

- Employment
- Finance
- Health and Wellbeing
- Non-UK Nationals
- Death and Bereavement

Whilst these have some information that is specific to the UK, there is also information that is generic to all Service Personnel and their families wherever you are located.

There is also a HIVE Relocation Checklist providing generic guidance for moves to posts within the UK, Overseas, or back to the UK.

Many UK HIVEs also have a local accommodation sheet that provides details of the Service Family Accommodation (SFA) types and locations. For security purposes these can only be requested directly from any HIVE.
