

Privacy Policy

Effective date: June 26, 2026

This Privacy Policy explains how Ball Spin Fight ("the App", "we", "us", or "our") handles information when you use the App.

Information We Collect

The App may store gameplay information on your device, such as level progress, coins, energy, unlocked skins, selected team, achievements, upgrades, and sound settings.

If you use Game Center, Apple may process your Game Center profile, leaderboards, achievements, and related gameplay data according to Apple's policies.

If you make in-app purchases, purchase information is processed by Apple and RevenueCat. We do not receive or store your full payment card details.

If you watch rewarded ads or interact with ads, Google Mobile Ads may process ad-related data such as device identifiers, ad interactions, diagnostics, and approximate location, depending on your device settings and consent choices.

If Facebook SDK features are enabled, Meta may process app event and purchase event information for analytics, attribution, and advertising measurement.

If you contact support by email, we receive the email address and any information you choose to include in your message.

How We Use Information

We use information to:

- Save and restore your game progress.
- Provide leaderboards, achievements, rewards, ads, and purchases.
- Improve app stability, performance, and gameplay balance.
- Respond to support requests.
- Measure ads, purchases, and app events where supported by third-party SDKs.

Third-Party Services

The App may use the following third-party services:

- Apple Game Center and App Store in-app purchases.
- RevenueCat for purchase management.
- Google Mobile Ads for ads and rewarded ads.
- Meta/Facebook SDK for app events and attribution, if configured.

These services may collect and process data according to their own privacy policies and your device privacy settings.

Data Storage

Gameplay progress is stored locally on your device using Apple storage technologies such as SwiftData and UserDefaults. Some data related to purchases, ads, Game Center, or analytics may be processed by third-party services.

Children's Privacy

The App is intended for a general audience. We do not knowingly collect personal information directly from children. If you believe a child has provided personal information through support email or another channel, contact us and we will take appropriate steps.

Your Choices

You can manage Game Center, tracking, ad personalization, and app permissions in your device settings. You can also reset or delete local app data by deleting the App from your device.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The updated version will be posted at the Privacy Policy link available in the App.
