Assignment Due Week ending April 28 2017

1. Briefly discuss three areas where information can be misused.

2. Identify two examples of agencies that store personal records for their clients.

3. Give two examples of how personal data can be misused by an organization.

4. Write a paragraph to explain why people should be protected against information misuse.

5. What is meant by the terms 'hacking' and electronic eavesdropping?

6. Identify three reasons why a company may conduct industrial espionage against another company.

7. Identify three methods of surveillance used to monitor computer use.

8. List four ways in which people can protect their data.

9. Define the term 'software piracy'

10. Discuss the implications for software programmers when original software is copied and distributed freely.