

PROJECTS CAFÉ

Quality assurance and financial management of Erasmus+ projects 12.01.2023

Agenda

| Time  | Topic                                                                                                             |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 15h00 | Welcome                                                                                                    |
| 15h05 | Presentation on financial management (dealing with lump sums) + Q&amp;AKlaas Portier, Ghent University |
| 15h25 | Presentation on quality assurance + Q&amp;ALiliane Santos and Joseph Soba, University of Lille         |
| 15h45 | Discussion and conclusion                                                                                  |

PROJECTS CAFÉ

Information about speakers:

Klaas Portier joined Ghent University as EU Project Advisor in 2021. He focuses mainly on Erasmus+ actions, as well as education projects in other funding programmes, and has closely monitored the introduction of the lump sum funding model. Together with colleagues at the International Relations Office, he advises promoters during the application and implementation phases of projects that follow this new lump sum funding model.

Joseph ARMANDO SOBA, PhD in American Studies, is Director for International development at the University of Lille. Former external evaluator of European programmes, he was also a Steering group member for the EAIE Expert Community Cooperation for Development.

Liliane Santos is the head of the Master's Program in Lusophone Studies at the University of Lille, also being the Academic Coordinator of student mobility for Portuguese-speaking countries at the Faculty of Languages, Cultures and Societies since 2002.

