

Ultra-realistic cinematic portrait of a stylish South Indian man standing in a lush tropical garden, smiling naturally while looking slightly to the side.

He has thick wavy black hair with a voluminous textured hairstyle, a full well-groomed beard, and wears premium yellow-tinted aviator sunglasses. He is dressed in a loose-fit artistic multicolor abstract printed linen shirt with rolled-up sleeves, partially unbuttoned for a relaxed casual look, paired with black trousers and a luxury silver wristwatch. One hand is casually in his pocket while leaning slightly against a wooden pillar. The background features rich green tropical plants with a shallow depth of field and creamy bokeh. Warm natural golden-hour lighting softly illuminates his face, creating a cinematic atmosphere. Captured with a DSLR, 85mm portrait lens, f/1.8 aperture, ultra-detailed skin texture, realistic fabric details, HDR color grading, soft shadows, vibrant colors, photorealistic, premium lifestyle fashion photogra
