Reading Comprehension- The Flying Dutchman

The Flying Dutchman is a famous ghost ship story from the 1600s. Captain Hendrik van der Decken was a Dutch captain from the Netherlands. In 1641, he tried to sail his wooden sailing ship around the stormy Cape of Good Hope. Strong gales with high winds and big waves pushed against the bow of his ship. He got very angry at the stormy seas and yelled that he would sail forever if he had to.

A terrible curse made his ship and crew sail on and on without ever stopping at a port. The ghost ship glowed with a strange light and moved fast even when other ships had calm seas. In 1881, Prince George of Wales and sailors on the British ship HMS Bacchante saw the glowing Flying Dutchman near Australia. Soon after, one sailor who saw the ghost ship fell from the mast and died.

People still tell this tale today to remember the power of the sea and the dangers faced by sailors.
