Chapter 1: Welcome to California

In a small California town a man named Mike was taking an early morning run. He usually ran in the early mornings like 5 or 6 O'clock but today he overslept until 8 O'clock which was unusual to him. He was running in the depths of the forest near the park. He stopped to drink some water until a loud crash was heard in the distance. He looks around as another crash happens but this time he sees that the crash came from an overgrown path. He follows the path then he comes to a Yellow-ish Creature with two stubby arms and two sharp things coming from the things back. It had four eye looking things on its weird face. The thing was digging like it was looking for something. Mike says in a scared tone, "Hello...?" The thing turns to him then just stares. Mike slowly walks back then the ghost charges him as he runs out. Around the same time. Three children were sitting on a curb. Owen speaks in a frustrated tone, "Man it is so hot..." He was waving his hand to his face. Travis says in a tired tone, "Yeah very hot..." He was also waving his hand to his face. Travis asked, "Jonny are you hot...?" Jonathan looks up from his book annoyed as he said, "It's not that hot, you guys are overreacting." He puts his head back in his book. Owen and Travis spoke in unison, "WHAT!?" Owen says with a dramatically surprised tone, "How are you not hot!?" Travis nods at this question. Jonathan looks back up annoyed then says, "You guys are overreacting... It could be way worse." He rolled his eyes then he put his head back in his book. Owen says sarcastically, "You're a psycho man." They sit for a while in an awkward silence. After a couple of minutes Travis speaks up, "We should go on the bikes!" He said this with a smile. Owen smiles then says, "Oh heck yeah! Maybe I can find a cute girl!" Owen laughs. Jonathan just gives a thumbs up. They walk to Owen's house. Travis say's aloud, "I'll be back! I'm going to get my bike!" Owen nods as Jonathan gives a thumbs up. Travis runs off to his house. Owen and Jonathan walk in his house as his mom greets them. Owen's mom says, "Hey you two what are you guys up to?" Owen's mom smiles. Owen says to his mom, "Oh we're off to ride bikes Mom!" Owen fake smiles. Owen's mom looks at them then says, "Be careful out there..." Owen says as he was walking to the garage with Jonathan, "Yeah sure mom!" They close the garage entrance door. Owen pulls out his bike then a big red wagon. Owen ties the wagon to his bike. Owen tells Jonathan, "Okay get in so we can go Jonny." Jonathan gets in with his book as he pushes up his glasses. Owen says aloud, "Let's go!" Owen opens his garage then bikes off pretty fast. Jonathan just stays reading in the wagon. Travis pulls up next to them then says aloud, "Hey guys!" Owen says jokingly, "Took you long enough!" Owen laughs. Travis rolls his eyes then continues to bike. Owen yells aloud, "WHOOO!" Travis follows up with a loud voice, "YEAH!" Jonathan says with a sarcastic tone, "Yippe..." Owen says with an attitude, "Oh your so dramatic Jonny." Travis says in an annoyed tone, "Oh come on Owen leave him alone." They continue to argue as they bike. Jonathan noticed his fathers friend Mike. Jonathan smiles then as they're biking he says aloud, "Hey Mike!" Mike says nothing back then Jonathan looks confused. Jonathan mutters, "Mike usually says hello back...?" Jonathan just shrugs it off then continues reading. They start to bike to Jonathan's house but they stop as they see a girl struggling to get some boxes. Owen says with confidence, "Oh look a cute girl in distress, Let me help her." Owen walks up then helps the girl with her boxes. The other two boys walk over to help as well. When they finish helping her put the boxes inside the girl says, "Hey thanks guys for helping me! I'm Milly!" Jonathan says, "Hey I'm Jonathan and I live next door... With my dad." Owen says with a flirty tone, "And I'm Owen pleasure to meet you m'lady." Milly chuckles as he says this. Travis says, "Hello, I'm Travis, nice to meet you!" Milly smiles then says, "Nice to meet you boys and thanks for helping me again!" As the day ends and the sun starts going down Travis says, "Hey guys I better get home... My mom is going to kill me if I don't." Owen says, "Oh okay man see you tomorrow!" Jonathan waves while my head is still in his book. Travis bikes off into the distance. Owen looked at Jonathan and asked, "Hey want me to bike you home?" Jonathan nods then continues reading. Owen bikes up to his house then Jonathan gets off the wagon. Jonathan says, "Thanks for taking me to my house man... See you tomorrow." Owen smiles then says, "No problem man anytime! See ya!" Owen bikes off then Jonathan walks to his front door. He unlocks his house then walks in. Jonathan noticed his father was sitting at the kitchen table. Jonathan's father Rick says aloud, "Hey Bud, I have some... Bad news... Can you sit?" Jonathan says quietly, "Sure...?" Jonathan sits across from his father. An awkward silence grows until Rick speaks up, "So bud umm y-your Uncle he..." Rick sighs then continues with a shaky voice, "H-he passed away..." Jonathan looks at his father shocked. Jonathan says quietly, "H-he... What...?" Rick says, "I'm sorry bud... I know you loved him..." Jonathan said In a confused and scared tone, "What happened!?" Rick looks up then says, "He passed away Bud..." Jonathan stays silent as Rick speaks up, "Bud... Are you okay...?" Jonathan says in a nearly unheard voice, "I'm fine..." Rick sighs then says, "Bud you're not okay... I can see that you are hurting..." Jonathan sighs then Rick speaks up, "Bud I promise you will get through this... Just take your time... Okay?" Jonathan gets up then walks to his room shutting his door.

Rick says quietly, "I pray that he will feel better about this..." Jonathan sighs then gets his notebook and walks to his desk. He starts to mess with some old parts he found around the town while writing things he finds interesting about the parts. After a few hours a knock rings out from his door. Jonathan slowly approaches the door then opens it with caution and alertness, he looks around the hall from his room then sees nothing. He goes back to his room then sits down at his desk. He hears another knock ring around his room, he then rushes to his door then opens it. Rick was standing in the hall in front of him. Rick says, "There's food on the table... If you're hungry." Rick looked a little worried. Jonathan stares for a second before saying, "I'm fine dad." Rick sighs then says, "I think you should eat bud..." Jonathan then says in a frustrated tone, "I'm not hungry!" Jonathan's father stands for a second before nodding then starts to walk off. Jonathan was about to close the door until his father said aloud, "Good Night Bud." Jonathan stops, then says, "Night dad..." His father walks off then Jonathan closes his door. He goes back to inspecting the parts. A couple of hours later he starts getting ready to go to sleep, after getting fully ready then laying in his bed he falls asleep reading his book. The next day Jonathan wakes up then gets ready for the day, he noticed the time he woke up late, it was 12 O'clock. He usually heads out to meet with his friends at around 1:30. After getting ready for the day then grabbing his book, then getting his wallet and cell phone he walks out of his house. He walks to the curb where Travis and Owen were already sitting. Owen said loudly, "Travis, I'm telling you that girl was totally falling for me!" Travis replied, "Bro you're crazy plus you're not all that." Owen said with confidence, "You're just jealous that I have girls flocking to me." Travis smirked, then replied, "I have never once seen a girl approach you." I walk over then say, "Travis got you there Owen." Owen and Travis get startled. Owen says annoyed, "Oh crap you came out of nowhere..." Travis says with a confident tone, "At least he agrees with me." Owen rolls his eyes then Travis laughs. Jonathan speaks up, "M-my Uncle passed away..." Travis says with a sad tone, "What...?" Owen says, "How, and when?" Jonathan pauses for a few seconds before saying, "Well I don't know... My father told me yesterday..." Travis pauses then says with concern, "Oh man I'm sorry, Are you okay?" Owen nods at this question. Jonathan says, "I'm fine." An awkward silence purges the trio for a while. Jonathan says, "My Uncle's old house should have some interesting stuff... You guys want to go check it out?" Owen perks up then says excitedly, "Oh heck yeah!"

Travis says, "Sure I'll go!" Owen says, "Let's go get the bikes!" Travis nods then rushes off to get his bike. Owen and Jonathan walk to Owen's house. Milly walked out of her house and went off for an early morning walk. She walks down the sidewalk then bumps into someone by accident. She says in a concerned tone, "Oh I'm so sorry..." The guy speaks up, "Oh it's okay... are you okay?" Milly says, "Oh yeah I'm fine." He says, "My name is Mike." Milly says, "I'm Milly." Mike says, "Nice to meet you where you headed?" Mike gets a little scared and says, "Oh I- Saw something strange..." Milly asked, "What was it...?" Mike says fastly, "I must go bye!" Mike rushes off. Milly says, "Strange... Well better get back to my walk." Milly walks into a park and hears a noise towards a more wooded area of the park. Milly follows the noise then finds a ghostly creature in a gated area. It was digging still like it was looking for something. Milly jumps the fence then walks towards the thing. She speaks aloud, "Hello...?" The ghost turns around then stares at her. Milly says, "Are you okay...?" The ghost charges her then rushes inside of her body. Her eyes glow as she walks to the gate then jumps it.

Chapter 2: Now there's something strange.

They make it to Owen's garage then Owen ties the wagon to his bike. Jonathan opens the garage then gets in the wagon. They bike off as Travis joins in on his bike. Owen says, "Nice of you to join us" Travis says, "Always happy to!" They continue biking but as they are biking past an entrance to an abandoned department store. Jonathan sees something yellowish rush inside. Jonathan says, "Owen, Travis... We're taking a detour to the abandoned department store!" Owen turns his bike then bikes up to the abandoned store. Owen says, "So why are we here?" Travis bikes up then says, "Yeah good question." Jonathan says, "I saw something weird rush in here..." Owen says annoyed, "And as vague as always..." The trio walks in as they see the place has been trashed, stuff had been flipped, broken, and flung all over the store. Jonathan walks ahead to a puddle of a mysterious substance. Jonathan touches it as he feels it's sticky. He says quietly, "Ew." As he flings his hand to get the substance off. Owen says, "What is that stuff?" Jonathan says, "I don't know..." They walk to an old security office that was trashed worse than the store. They noticed some stairs to an unknown area.

Jonathan says, "That must go to the basement." Jonathan noticed there was the same substance on the floor right in front of some stairs. Travis says a little nervously, "So uh what now..?" Jonathan stands up then says, "We go down." Owen says, "Oh hell no man..." Jonathan says, "Suit yourself." Jonathan goes down the stairs. Travis rushes to catch up then says, "Hey Jonny wait!" Owen sighs then says, "This is so dumb..." Owen follows behind Travis. Jonathan was looking at a desk that was covered in the substance. Owen looks around then finds a see through yellowish creature with stubby arms and two sharp things coming from its back. Travis was a little behind Owen then stopped where Owen did. Owen whispers in shock, "Travis... Are you seeing this...?" Travis nods then whispers in shock, "Yeah..." Jonathan walks over then gasps. Jonathan said quietly, "Oh my god it's a real class 5!" Owen whispers in confusion, "A what...?" Travis rolls his eyes and whispers, "He means a Ghost Owen..." The ghost stops then looks at them. Owen says in a scared tone, "It's staring at us..." Travis says in a more hopeful tone, "Maybe it's friendly?" Jonathan says quietly, "I don't thi-" The ghost charges towards them as they run out. Owen and Travis come out first then hops on their bikes. Jonathan comes out a little after then hops on the wagon. Owen says They bike off fast then Owen says in a surprised tone, "Did we just see a ghost!?" Jonathan says more enthusiastically, "We saw one... A real one." The dusk was coming fast then Travis said, "Hey guys I gotta go home." Owen says, "Oh okay man we will explore Jonathan's Uncle's house tomorrow!" Travis nods then bikes the other way. Owen takes Jonathan to the front of his house. Owen says in a more excited tone, "That was so crazy man... We saw a real ghost!" Jonathan nods then says, "That was very interesting huh..." Jonathan adds, "We are going to explore my Uncle's house tomorrow okay?" Owen nods and bikes off. Jonathan walks to his front door and unlocks it. He walks inside then he turns on the lights. Jonathan was just standing still thinking about that Class 5 they saw. A light flicker startles Jonathan then he studys the Lamp as it flickers on and off. He cautiously walks towards it, he makes it to the lamp then turns it off then it goes dark in the living room. He looked beside the Lamp then noticed it was not even plugged in. Jonathan says confused, "What the...!?" Jonathan slowly backs away then goes to his room. A while later his phone goes off. It was his dad calling. Jonathan answers, then says, "Hello?" His dad says, "Hey bud I have to work late tonight. There's food in the freezer." Jonathan says back, "Okay dad." His dad says, "Good Night bud.” Jonathan says back, “Night dad.” Jonathan hangs up then gets ready for bed. He walked in his room after brushing his teeth. Jonathan noticed a rusty key on his desk. Jonathan looks at the key and says, “Where did you come from...?” He puts the key in his wallet then lays down as he falls asleep. The next day Jonathan met up with Owen and Travis. Jonathan walks up then says, “You guys ready to go?” Owen says with an enthusiastic tone, “Oh yeah let’s go get the bikes!” Travis nods then runs off to get his bike. Owen and Jonathan go to his garage then they get his bike with the wagon. They get on their bikes then bike off later they meet up with Travis. Owen says, “Well look who joined the party!” Travis says, “What you thought I would bail?” The two boys laugh together. Jonathan says, “The house right there!” They pull up in front of the house. It looked more worn for some reason. Jonathan said, “Woah... what happened to this place..?” Jonathan adds, “Well I haven’t been here since I was 10...” They walk to the front door and try to open it but it was locked from the inside. Jonathan looks at the boys then says, “Last night I found this rusted key on my desk... I don’t know where it came from...” Owen says in a surprised tone, “Like it just appeared on your desk? Freaky.” Travis adds, “Freaky is right” Jonathan adds, “And when I walked in my house one of the lamps in my house was flickering... So naturally I turned it off then I noticed that the thing wasn’t even plugged in...” Owen and Travis say in surprise, “WHAT!?” Travis says with a slightly shocked tone, “Now that’s freaky...” Owen says, also a little shocked, “You’re right there Travis...” Jonathan says, “Maybe this key is for the house?” Travis says, “Doesn’t hurt to try right?” Jonathan tries the key on the door, then it creaks open with a very loud creak. They walked in then Jonathan asked, “Hey Owen did you bring the flashlight I texted you to bring?” Owen says with a proud tone, “Well of course I did!” Owen tries to turn on the flashlight but it doesn’t work. Owen says frustratedly, “Just a sec...” Owen slaps the flashlight but it doesn’t work still. Jonathan grabs the flashlight then takes off the back then takes out the batteries. Jonathan pulls out some new batteries then puts them in then closes the back. Jonathan tosses the flashlight to Owen. Jonathan says with a slight smirk, “It pays to carry extra batteries, you should try it.” Owen rolls his eyes as they press on. They walk into the living room then find lots of books and maps. Jonathan says, “That’s new... I knew he liked to study and read... but not this much...?” Jonathan says, “Let’s split up to see if we can find anything interesting.” Jonathan tosses Owen and Travis a Walkie Talkie Radio.

Jonathan says, "If you find anything interesting... Call on the radio." Owen nods then Travis nods as they walk off. Around the time the trio was exploring the department store Mike was at the police station. Mike was sitting in a questioning room waiting for an officer. An officer walks in then says, "Hello my name is Officer Bretz... What was your name again?" Mike says, still a little shaken, "M-Michael Edwards..." Officer Bretz looked at him then asked with an attitude, "What happened?" Mike says, "Well I was running in the forest near the park and heard a loud crash... I followed the crash down an overgrown path and saw a see-through yellowish "Thing" digging in the ground... I slowly backed up once it looked at me and it started chasing me!" Officer Bretz looks at him very annoyed, "And you sure? Sir, are you on any type of illegal drugs?" Mike says, a little frustrated, "No, I have never taken a drug in my life! Except prescribed ones!" Officer Bretz sighs then says, "Sir you must be taking something there's just no way you saw something that... Outlandish!" There was a big window behind them then as Officer Bretz was still talking a reddish ghost that looked like the yellowish one appeared in the window. Mike says, "Ummm O-Officer Bretz... T-T-The thing I-It's behind you..." Officer Bretz sighs, annoyed, then says while turning towards the window, "Yeah like there's a creepy thing behi-" He stops as the thing stares at the two in the room. The thing then charges Officer Bretz which gets him covered in the ectoplasm then he passes out. The ghost possesses Mike as he fully possesses him, his eyes glow red as he grins with a large amount of unsettling energy.

Chapter 3: The Secret of Jonathan's Uncle.

Back in Jonathan's Uncle's house, Jonathan gave the other boys Walkie Talkies and told them to split up then report any strange things. Owen was tasked to search the first floor, Travis was tasked to search the second floor, then Jonathan was tasked to search the basement. Owen walks in the kitchen then finds the food in the fridge half eaten and chewed. Owen turns on his Walkie Talkie then says, "Come in boys..." Travis says on the Walkie, "What is it Lock?" Owen says, "The food in the fridge is half eaten and chewed." Jonathan says, "Weird..." Owen presses on then goes to the laundry. He pokes around then sees nothing until the washing machine starts running. The washing machine goes faster and faster until it suddenly stops. Owen says a little shook, "What the...?" The washing machine starts sparking then breaks down. Owen says into the Walkie, "Hey guys... I uh have something to report..." Jonathan says, "What happened?" Owen says, "Well... I walked into the Laundry and at first nothing until the washing machine turned on." Travis says, "I thought this place had no power?" Jonathan says in a concerned tone, "I'm sure the power was cut after the place because this place was condemned?" Owen says, "Well after I got a little closer the washing machine stopped and then started but it went faster and faster until sparking and breaking down..." Jonathan says, "Weird... Was that the last room?" Owen says, "No not yet, but I checked the Kitchen, Garage, Laundry, and Hall Closet." Jonathan says, "Okay pick up what you can." Owen walks towards the dining room. He walks in then the lights turn on. Owen says in confusion, "What..? I thought this place had no power?" He walks to the table then finds a pair of electronic goggles coated in green, black, and silver. Owen picks up the goggles then the lights go off again. Owen says into his radio, "Guys I found something... Are we meeting in the living room?" Jonathan says, "Yes, Something interesting I presume?" Owen says, "Yeah and an interesting story on how I found it as well..." Travis was on the second floor then started exploring. He started in a bedroom. Travis says quietly, "I'm guessing this is the guest bedroom..." He looks around then finds a device that was under the guest bed. Travis picks it up then continues on to another room. He makes it to the bathroom and as he walks in he hits his foot on the edge of the door frame. Travis yells, "OW WHAT THE FRICK!" Travis kept saying, "FRICK!" Over and over while the toilet behind him started oozing with a pink slime. As Travis's pain resigns he feels his neck hairs stand then he fastly turns around to look at the area. There was nothing there so he said to himself, "Weird It felt like something was back here..." Travis goes to a room then tries opening the door but it is locked. As he backs up he finds a piece of equipment. There was some text saying, "Gigameter." Travis says into his radio, "Found some stuff heading to the living room now." Owen says, "Oh okay see you." Jonathan looked around the basement. He saw nothing too interesting until he found a desk with a weird piece of equipment. It was a black device with a long handle with two buttons at the top of the handle. The top half was more oval shaped and had some buttons and things like that. Jonathan looks at the gadget. The gadget turns on and two arm looking mechanisms lift from the sides of the top part and the screen glows with a green dot going downwards. It was beeping very fast. Jonathan picks up the piece of equipment and points it to a hall going deeper into the basement it beeps fast. Then he points away towards the stairs going up to the first floor. It slows the beeping 10 fold then he slowly walks down the long hallway then makes it to a door the device was beeping very fast. Jonathan slowly creaks open the door. Behind the door was a small room with some shelves filled with books next to a chair. On the other side of the room was a desk with some blueprints and a book that Jonathan was familiar with. Jonathan says quietly, "Tobin's Spirit Guide... First edition..." Jonathan had the 34th edition. He picked up the book and noticed there was a doorknob on the wall. Jonathan says, "That's not normal... I wonder if-." He walked over to the doorknob then he twisted it, opening a door hidden behind the wall paper. It went to a smaller room with a firepole. Jonathan says quietly, "Do I go..?" As he says this the device he put on his waistband of his sweatpants goes off like crazy then he decides to go down there and take a peek. He slides down the firepole and finds what looks like a lab. Jonathan explores a little and finds a shelf with all kinds of spores, models, and fungus's. He was walking past a computer and saw a piece of a broken mini cyclotron as he whispered, "Woah, how did he make a small cyclotron!?" He finds a huge piece of equipment on the desk then he walks past it then finds a boxy looking piece of equipment that had a handle and petal. He picks it up and tries to speak into the radio, "Boys come in." The radio is silent. Jonathan looks around and finds some stairs and walks up to find he is back to the main room of the basement. A voice comes from his radio, "Jonny!!" Jonathan says, "Boys! I'm here, what happened!?" Travis says, "We couldn't get through to you!?" Owen adds, "We got worried man!" Jonathan says, "I'm fine... But I found something interesting... On my way to the living room now." Owen says, "Okay see you in a minute. Jonathan walks up the creaky stairs up to the front door area. He walks past and to the living room where Owen and Travis were sitting on the couch. Travis says with some concern, "Hey man what happened down there?" Jonathan says, "Well I found this piece of equipment..." I showed the weird meter like piece of equipment. Owen asked, "What is it?" Jonathan says, "I don't know but it turned on and lead me deeper into the basement and I made it to a study or office like area... Then I saw a doorknob just sitting in the wallpaper close to the desk..." Travis says, "Creepy..." Owen Jonathan says, "Yeah... So I turned the knob and found a small room with a fireman pole weirdly enough..." Owen says, "A fireman's pole? That's unusual..."

Jonathan says, "Right... So I went down the pole and found a lab looking place!" Jonathan adds, "With old computers, parts, and equipment... And I found this..." He shows the boxy looking piece of equipment. Owen says, "Woah..." Travis asked, "What is it?" Jonathan says annoyed, "If I knew, I would have told you." Owen rolls his eyes then speaks up, "I found something too." He shows the goggles he found. Jonathan looks at them and says, "Where did you find them?" Owen says, "Well I went to check the dining room and once I walked in the lights in the room suddenly turned on and these were on a glass plate on the table..." Jonathan says, "That's Interesting..." Jonathan adds, "Oh, you guys remember the book I read?" Travis, "Oh yeah the one you always have your head in?" Jonathan rolls his eyes says, "Yes, well in that same office-like area I found the first edition of that same book..." Travis asked, "Really? I found two things." Jonathan asked, "What did you find?" Travis said with a proud tone, "I found this device." He showed off the box with the rod like thing. Travis adds, "I also found this" He shows off the Gigameter he found. Travis says, "I'm guessing it's called a Gigameter because of the label..." Travis shows the label. Jonathan says, "I was thinking... We should go talk with our History Teacher... He likes myths and the paranormal. Maybe he knows something about this stuff?" Owen says, "Good idea!" Travis adds, "Yeah let's go tomorrow!" They all agree and they walk out of the house. Owen asked Jonathan, "Want me to take you home?" Jonathan nods as Travis bikes off. Owen bikes up to Jonathan's house and he hops off and goes into his house. As he walks inside he goes to his room to check out the equipment they found. He looks at the stuff at his desk. Later he was laying in his bed reading the book he got from his uncle's house. The Meter thing starts beeping by itself. Jonathan looks over and says quietly, "What the...?" He walks over and as he is walking up the thing shuts off. Jonathan stares at the device and then walks slowly back to his bed and lays down to go to sleep. Later in the night as Jonathan lays asleep, the meter goes off again but faster then it was when he was awake.

Chapter 4: The Uncle and The Ghostbusters.

The next morning Jonathan gathers the equipment into a backpack and grabs his phone, wallet, and new book. He walks out and meets up with Owen and Travis on the curb. They already had gotten the bikes and wagon. Jonathan says, "Looks like we're ready! Let's go!" They bike up to their high school and walk in. They walk to class B-21 and walk in. The teacher was sitting at his desk writing something. He notices the boys and says aloud, "Oh hey boys what do I owe the pleasure?" Travis says, "Hey Mr. Harris!" Jonathan says, "We had something we wanted to show you to see if you know what it is..." Mr. Harris nods and Jonathan brings out the equipment they found. Mr. Harris says in an amazed tone, "Woah that's a sick replica!" Owen asked, "Replica of what?" Mr. Harris says in a confused tone, "A Ghost Trap?" Mr. Harris continues, "In the 80's a group of 4 men saved New York city...?" Mr. Harris says, "Does this ring a bell?" The boys look confused as Jonathan speaks up, "It was way before we were born..." Mr. Harris nods then says, "You read Tobin's Spirit Guide... It was written by two of the Ghostbusters?" Travis says, "Jonathan found the Trap in the basement of his Uncle's house." Mr. Harris said with a little hint of surprise in his voice, "You found these in his Uncle's basement!?" The three boys nod in union. Mr. Harris asked, "Are you sure these aren't just replicas?" Mr. Harris was still in a state of bewilderment. Jonathan speaks up as he points to the device on his hip, "This thing pointed me in the direction of where I found this trap boxy device." Jonathan points at the Ghost Trap. Mr. Harris says, "This equipment can be dangerous if not used properly so I should explain what they do." Mr. Harris points to the black device thing on Jonathan's waist and says, "That device on your hip is a PKE Meter that detects spirit energy." Then Mr. Harris points to the boxy device and says, "That is a Muon Trap or Ghost Trap it conceals spirits." Mr Harris adds, "There's a website I made... It has every piece of equipment and other Ghostbusters stuff." Mr Harris says, "Oh and there is a piece of equipment that you seem to not have but it is important to mention! It's called the Proton Pack, it's the thing that temporarily naturalizes spirits until you trap them with the Trap." The Trio all say in unison, "Thank you, Mr. Harris!" They all start to walk out until Mr. Harris says aloud, "Hey guys be careful with that equipment it can be dangerous, maybe don't let the police see it!" They all nod and rush off to where they had left the bikes and hopped on and biked off together. They were biking as they talked Owen says, "So... Uh... What now?" Jonathan says, "We go explore my Uncle's house some more." They all bike up to the house and walk in. Travis said, "Jonathan, we should go down there with you." Jonathan says, "I'll go alone." Travis said a little more concern in his voice, "Jonny I really think we should join you..." Owen noticed he had dropped his backpack and had already gone, then he said, slightly annoyed, "And he's gone..." Jonathan walks off and through the big house to the same narrow and creaky stairs leading to the basement. He walks to the place he found the book then sees that the large door was now open to the basement then to the firepole room even though he closed it. He walks in through the large door as a weird feeling of being watched and a shiver runs down Jonathan's spine as he walks up to the fire-pole in the middle of the room. He slid down the pole then went back to the large piece of equipment which Mr Harris told them is called a Proton Pack on the work table. A light flickers on as the light guides Jonathan to fix the large equipment piece. Owen and Travis were waiting in the living room until the backpack Jonathan left started making noise. Owen looked at it with concern and said, "Oh crap... Do we check it out...?" Travis replies, "I guess so..." they walk up to the backpack then open it to see the Ghost Trap twitching. They take it out then place it on the floor. Owen says, "Maybe we open it?" Travis replies, "I don't know..." Owen says, "Oh what's the worst that can happen?" Owen grabs the Muon Trap then places it on the floor as Travis puts the pedal a couple of feet away. Travis says, "Owen come here I'm going to open it!" Owen rushes over then Travis slams the pedal and nothing happens. Travis does it a couple more times. Owen asked, "Are you sure you're doing that ri-" The trap springs open and a duo of two Terror dog ghosts rushes out to the north. Owen and Travis look at each other then say, "We're so in trouble..." Jonathan just finished fixing the equipment then saw on the table a blueprint of the big piece of equipment. Jonathan carries the heavy Proton Pack upstairs then places it up against the wall. He finds Owen sitting with a distressed look and Travis pacing back and forth. Jonathan is confused at first until he sees the window broken and some of the wall gone. Jonathan yells, "WHAT HAPPENED!?" Owen and Travis get startled then Travis speaks up, "Well uh when you were in the basement..." Owen continues, "Your backpack started making noise then it started rumbling slightly... so we checked it out and it was the Ghost Trap thingy..." Travis adds, "We took it out and placed it on the floor and tried opening it..." Jonathan yelled, "WHAT!? WHY DID YOU TRY TO OPEN IT!?" Owen says, "We thought it was empty but then two ghostly looking dog-like things... They rushed off, breaking the window in the process..." Jonathan says more collected, "Guys what made you think opening a piece of equipment we know nothing about...?” Travis says, “We were curious.” Jonathan shakes his head and says, “What am I going to do-” Before Jonathan can finish his sentence the sound of police sirens surround the house. A loud voice booms around the house, “Police come out with your hands up!” The trio looks at each other then they walk out the house with their hands up. The officer looks confused and walks up to the trio then says in a stern voice, “What were you boys doing in this house?”

Jonathan gulps then says, “This is my Uncle's house and we were just exploring it...” The officer says in a more stern voice, “You boys know it's illegal to explore places like this?” They all say, “Yes sir...” The officer says, “You're under arrest... You have the right to remain silent.” The boys are put in handcuffs then put into the police car. Travis says scared, “My parents are going to kill me...” Owen says, “God this backseat smells...” Jonathan sees that they found the equipment.

Jonathan says under his breath, “Crap...” Once they get to the police station the Officer takes them out of the car then takes them inside. Another Officer was waiting for the trio then said, “Hello my name is Officer Awes... Please come with me.” They were uncuffed so they followed the officer. They get to a room with a table with three chairs then one on the other side. Officer Awes sits then says calmly, “Please sit.” They sit then stay quiet. Officer Awes speaks up, “Now we know that you three were exploring a place that was not yours is that true...? You know breaking and entering is a serious crime?” Jonathan says, “Well it was my Uncles...” Officer Awes raises her eyebrow then says, “What...?” She adds, “I didn't know he even had family...?” Jonathan asked, “What do you mean?” Officer Awes speaks up, “Well when he moved in I was actually the one who sold him the house... He asked some bizarre questions about the place like "can the building hold more than 7,000,000 MHZ" and stuff like that...” They sit in the awkward silence for a long time until Officer Awes speaks up, “Well anyway you're going to have to be held up here while we call your parents to pick you guys up.” They all say, “Wait, please don't!” She sighs then says, “There's nothing I can do about it boys sorry...” Another Officer takes them out then puts them in a cell. Jonathan says, “Damn it...” Travis sighs then says, “We're so dead...” Owen says, “Yeah...” The kids were sitting in the cell until their parents showed up. Owen's mom took him then Travis's dad took him. Jonathan's dad showed up very late and asked, “What is the reason for this?” The Officer said, “Your son was exploring an abandoned house... The one off of Shelo Avenue.” The officer shows a picture of the house.

Jonathan's dad perks up then says, "That was my brother's house...?" The officer says, "Wait, that was the truth... Your son said, "They were there to explore his Uncle's house but we thought it was a lie..." Jonathan's father says, "Yeah he passed away recently... So what do I do to get him out?"

Chapter 5, Fresh & Blood:

The officer gives him a clipboard then says, "I'm sorry for your loss... Please sign here..." He signs then gets Jonathan then leaves. They get in the car then they drive off. Jonathan's dad says, "You know... That was dangerous and you could have gotten hurt..." Jonathan asked, "Dad... what was my Uncle's job?" Jonathan's dad responds, "I don't know but he always told me that it was top secret and I would learn one day." Jonathan perks up then says, "Wait, Really!?" Jonathan's father says obviously a lie, "Yeah...?" Jonathan didn't answer; he was lost in his thoughts. Jonathan's father sighs then continues driving. They make it home then Jonathan goes straight to his room. He sighs then plops on his bed. He got bored so he opened his window. He saw Mike walking weirdly and that new girl next door Milly was with him. They were walking towards somewhere. Jonathan closed his window then just went to sleep. While the trio then getting caught by the police Mike who was now possessed and Milly who was also possessed met up. The ghost using Mike's body said, "Sister, is that you...?" The other ghost using Milly's body said, "Yes brother..." Mike says, "We must unleash HIM..." Milly nods then they walk to an old barn. They walk inside then see a big hole in the middle of the barn. Mike asked, "Is this it...?" Milly says, "Yes sister..." The ghost unpossessed Mike and Milly as they hit the floor unconscious. The ghost twins go to the hole and hover over it as a bright red and purple light glows very bright. The Terror dog ghosts come out of the hole, then the twin ghost speaks aloud, "Please take our human offerings!" The two Terror dog ghosts look around to see no humans. One of the twin ghosts says, "They were just here..." One of the Terror dog ghosts smashes the Twin Ghost leaving ectoplasm everywhere. Milly had run home as well as Mike. Milly ran inside her house then locked the door. She was breathing heavily so she sat down on her recliner. She was sitting until she felt something touch her leg. She screamed then got pulled into a room with a bright light. At the same time Mike had just got home then he went off to use the bathroom. He turned the knob as the water started running. He waited for a while until he looked back. His bath water turned to red and then the room filled with the same bright light. He screamed then he was gone. At Jonathan's house Jonathan had just woken up then grabbed the Walkie Talkie and said, "Boys come in?" Travis, "I forgot we had this..." Owen says, "Copy." Jonathan asked, "Are you guys grounded?" They both say, "Yes." Jonathan sighs then says, "We're sneaking out... Meet outside the police station in 10 minutes." They both say, "Copy That." Jonathan grabs his wallet then his phone. He opens his window then goes out of it. They meet up at the back of the police station. Owen asked, "So what are we doing here...?" Jonathan says, "We're getting our equipment back." Travis says with a hint of caution in his voice, "Isn't that illegal... We could get jailed again...!" Jonathan picked the police station's backdoor then said, "Well it's open now... Either you are coming or not..." Jonathan walks in as both Owen and Travis sigh then follow him in. They walk into the storage area then walk around until hearing a police officer voice saying, "Yeah! Okay I have to get something from the evidence room!" The boys scatter then hide. The Officer walks by, grabs something then walks out. They all sigh then come out of hiding, they find their equipment behind a cell. Jonathan checks the lock, sighs then says, "That lock is unpickable..." Owen grabs a nearby pipe then says with a cocky tone, "I can use my strength to break through the bars." Jonathan stops him then says, "You can't do that Owen, you will alert the officers." Owen sighs annoyed then Travis looks around and finds the keys hanging up then says, "Oh look I found something." He tosses the keys to Jonathan as he says, "Good job Travis." Jonathan unlocked the cell then said, "Now how do we get this stuff out of here?" Owen and Travis shrug their shoulders. They all walk around to find something that can carry the stuff. Travis finds their bikes then gets the boys and shows them their bikes. Owen says, "This is great!" They grabbed their bikes then the wagon then they put the equipment on it Jonathan says, "You guys go and I'll lock this place back up so they don't expect anything." Owen and Travis nod as Jonathan grabbed the PKE Meter then put it on his waistband. Owen and Travis walked out with the bikes then they biked off. As they were biking off Mike was walking then he saw the backdoor of the police station open. Mike said with a slight smirk, "Well well well those officers forgot to close the door... It's time to get some payback!" Mike walks in then grabs the same pipe Owen had. Mike laughs then says quietly, "Time for some revenge..." Jonathan found him and said quietly, "Mike...?" Mike turns around fast then whispers, “Jonathan...? What are you doing here?” Jonathan says quietly, “Well I got arrested then I came back to get the equipment they stole from me... Now I'm trying to find the file room to find a file.” Mike looks at him a little shocked then says, “Guess I could help you...” Mike puts down the pipe then looks around. Jonathan finds the door then says, “I found the door.” Jonathan tried the knob but it was locked then he said, “Dang it... It's locked...” Mike looks around then finds a key then says, “Hey Jonny catch.” Mike tossed the key to Jonathan. Jonathan caught the key then unlocked the door. Jonathan said, “Ah, now we're cooking.” They walk into the file room then Jonathan goes to the file cabinet. Jonathan says, “Now we need to find the files for letter P...” Jonathan finds the cabinet then opens it and looks for his fathers file. Mike spots it then says, “Jonny right there.” Jonathan stops, then goes back a bit then grabs his fathers file. Jonathan looks through the file and finds the “Relatives in area” part of the file. Jonathan finds a name he feels like he has heard before. In the file it said, “one relative in the area named Egon Spengler.” Jonathan whispers, “We found it.” Jonathan looks for that name in the “S” section of the cabinet then finds his Uncle's file. Jonathan grabs it as a loud voice booms around the evidence as well as the file room, “Who is in here!” Jonathan and Mike see an open window then they go out the window. Jonathan and Mike split up then Jonathan talks into his radio, “Boy's do you Copy!? Meet at the old scrapyard and bring the equipment.” Travis and Owen say, “Roger that!”

Chapter 6, The Statue of Liberty

Incident of 1989:

Jonathan was leaning on an old car reading more of his Uncle's file as Owen and Travis biked up with the equipment. Owen says, “You okay man? We saw you and Mike running out from the police station!” Travis adds, “Yeah man are you okay?” Jonathan nods then says, “I'm fine we made it out before they found us but I got my Uncle's file!” Jonathan shows the file to the boy's then Owen speaks up, “Wait I was doing research on that website that Mr. Harris gave us and I saw that name...” Jonathan looks at Owen then says, “Really...?” Owen nods then says, “Yeah from what I read he was a scientist... That would explain your smartness.” Travis asked, “So Jonathan's a descendant of one of the Ghostbutsters?” Owen answers, “Yeah guess so!" Jonathan says, "Wait, why didn't my father ever tell me this...?" Travis and Owen shrug. Owen says, "Maybe he didn't know?" Jonathan says, "No he had a great relationship with him so there's no way..." Travis says, "Maybe he didn't want to tell you?" Jonathan says, "Yeah... but for what reason..?" They all shrug then Jonathan says, "Well anyway I wanted to test out some of this equipment." Jonathan grabs one of the Proton Packs then says, "Well I don't think one of us should test it... one of us could get disintegrated..." Owen goes up to a homeless guy passing by then says, "Hey I'll give you 20 dollars to help us test out this equipment." The homeless man says excitedly, "Sure!" He gets excited as Owen gives him the 20 dollars. The man walks up then we strap him in the pack. Jonathan says, "Now I'm going to turn this on and then when I say go press that button then that one and that last one." The man nods as the trio walks back. Jonathan whispers, "You guys sure this is a good idea?" Owen whispers, "Yeah of course!" Travis whispers sarcastically, "Yeah lets potentially kill a man, such a good idea..." Owen whispers, "Oh he will be fine." Jonathan whispers, "Let's hope so..." Jonathan pauses, then says aloud, "GO!" The homeless man presses the trigger then the Proton stream comes out with power. The homeless man fly's back and hits the back of a dumpster with a loud crash. They rush over to the man then Owen says, "Okay so maybe that was not the best idea..." Travis says sarcastically, "You think!?" Jonathan grabs the pack then notices it's very damaged. Owen goes into the man's pockets then grabs the 20 dollars he gave him. Travis says, "We kill a man and all you care to grab is your money?" Owen says annoyed, "Well Sorry Mr Let's kill a man." Travis sighs as Jonathan says in an frustrated tone, "It's totalled... It's going to take months to find more of the parts needed to fix this thing..." Jonathan noticed the strap wasn't fully secured then said, "I see the problem... the strap wasn't fully secured." Jonathan picks up the pack and puts it on the wagon then says, "You brought one of the other packs right Owen?" Owen says nervously, "Uhhhh." Jonathan raises his eyebrow then says, "You did bring one of the other packs, right?" Mike had split from Jonathan then ran home. Mike unlocked his house then walked in. Mike walked to his couch then plopped on his couch tired. The phone rings, at first he was scared to answer it but he did. Mike picked up the phone then said, "Hello...?" The voice said, "Hey Mike! It's Rick, how are you?" Mike sighs to himself then speaks up, "Oh hey Rick I'm fine..." Rick speaks up, "Anyway... Have you seen Jonathan? He didn't pick up his phone so I'm guessing he snuck out... I can't be there to see..." Mike pauses then speaks up a little shaky, "No bud I haven't seen him." Rick says, "Oh okay just wanted to check in. Bye Mikey!" He puts his phone down then sighs. The phone goes off again so Mike answers it then says, "Hello...?" The voice says, "Hey Mike... It's Milly..." Mike perks up then says, "Oh hey Milly what's up?" Milly says, "Was what happened that night real or was it a dream?" Mike says, "It was real Milly..." Milly sighs then says, "Oh..." Mike says, "You busy tomorrow?" Milly speaks up, "No... why?" Mike asked, "Do you want to go to dinner to talk about it?" Milly says, "Yeah sure. Where?" Mike says, "I'll send you the address" Milly says, "Oh okay thank you Mike bye." Mike says, "Bye Milly." Then Mike hangs up then gets ready for bed. Mike walks out of the bathroom then sits on his couch. A bang comes from the kitchen then Mike says, "What the...?" Mike gets up then walks towards the kitchen slowly. Mike makes it to the Kitchen then starts to hear low growls in his fridge. Mike slowly walks to the fridge then slowly opens it. Mike see's nothing until he hears a loud growl behind him. Mike turns around to see a huge demon dog looking thing. Mike says scared, "AHHHHHH!" The creature pounces on him then drags him into the fridge. The next day at the dinner Milly was waiting for Mike. Milly says to herself, "Where could he be..." A waiter comes up then says, "Hello, I'm Oscar I will be your server today! Are you here alone, miss?" She perks up then says, "Well I was supposed to meet with a friend about some strange occurrence we were put in..." Oscar perks up then says, "Strange you say? Can I sit?" Milly looks at him then says, "Go ahead." Oscar sits then says, "Can I tell you something that might sound unbelievable?" Milly perks up then says, "Sure go ahead." Oscar has a bit of a frightened expression then says, "When I was very young... I was kidnapped by a possessed painting... In New York." Milly looked confused then said, "Wait... what?" Oscar continues, "My mom came after me but got trapped until... a group of 4 guys in tan or beige-ish jumpsuits came and helped me... I remember one in particular... Peter Venkman... He became my step-father..." Milly looked surprised then said, "You were saved..." Oscar asked, "If you have time, do some research on The Statue of Liberty Incident of 1989 that will teach you more." A loud voice booms, "Mr. Barrett, get back to work!" Oscar yells back, "Yes sir!" Oscar says, "Well that's my cue... nice meeting you!" Oscar runs off then Milly has an idea. Milly runs out of the dinner then hops in her car. Milly drives home then rushes inside then to her computer. Milly turns on her computer then searches up what Oscar had told her. Milly found out that a group of 4 people dubbed the Ghostbusters had saved the Manhattan Museum of Art from the hands of a possessed painting dubbed "Prince Vigo". That same painting, weirdly enough, had recently gone missing. Milly looks up Peter Venkman's name then finds he works at Columbia University as a professor. Milly remembers that Jonathan and his friends were interested in this kind of stuff so she was starting to forward the findings to them. Milly slouched back then sighed tiredly. A door nearby started glowing, she noticed and looked over until a terror dog hand covered her mouth then her body to the office chair. The chair turned as the door opened revealing a terror dog then the chair rushed towards the door as she continued screaming.

Chapter 7, The Keymaster:

Back in the scrapyard Jonathan yelled, "Owen! I told you to bring ALL OF THE equipment, not just one proton pack!?" Owen said, "Come on man we were in a rush..." Jonathan sighed then said, "Fine, we have to go to my house and get it... wait my father must know that I left..." Travis says excitedly, "Oh a stealth mission! Can I do it!" Jonathan looks surprised then says, "Oh yeah sure Travis just be careful man..." Travis hops on his bike then says excitedly, "I won't let you guys down!" He bikes off fast as Jonathan says, "He's going to be caught huh...?" Owen sighs then says, "Probably." Jonathan and Owen sigh as Travis is far gone on the bike. Travis makes it to the house then finds a nearby bush to scout out the place. Travis pulls some binoculars then looks into the house then sees that no one is there. Travis creeps to the door but it was locked so he sighed. Travis says, "Dammit... What do I do...?" Travis has an idea then he walks to Mike's house then knocks on the door. Mike answers but he looked like he was more messy with his hair, clothes and rips in his clothes. Mike says, "...Are you the Gatekeeper...?" Travis looks at Mike confused then says, "No...?" Mike then slams the door as Travis looks annoyed. Travis knocks at the door again then Mike answers. Mike says again, "...Are you Gatekeeper...?" Travis nods slowly then says, "I'm a friend of theirs, they told me to meet them here..." Mike opens the door enough for him then Travis walks in as Mike slowly sits on the couch. Travis sits on the ripped couch with Mike then Travis asks, "So uhhh Mike what's thi-" Mike gets a little mad then says, "No... I'm Vinz Clortho, The Keymaster..." Travis says nervously, “Oh yes my bad... Vinz.” Vinz slouched back on the couch then Travis asked, “Hey Vinz do you have a pair of keys in that pocket...?” Vinz looks skeptical but then looks in the pockets and finds the keys as Vinz asks, “These..?” Travis nods then says, “Can I borrow them?” Vinz is still a little skeptical but gives them to him then Vinz says, “Yes... But if you betray us... You will be punished just like the others in this world...” Travis gulps the nods fast as Vinz gives him the keys. Travis says nervously, “I must go now...” Vinz nods as Travis rushes out the door. Travis makes it to Jonathan’s dad’s house with the keys then what happened just had processed in his head. Travis scouts the house from the bush after seeing no one’s home. Travis grabs his Walkie Talkie then says, “Boy’s do you copy?” Jonathan responds, “Go ahead Davini.” Travis says, “Well... Your dad’s house was locked then I went to see if maybe Mike had some spare keys. Once I got there he answered but he looked like a mess with messy hair, crumpled and ripped clothes...” Jonathan says, “That’s not like him... he’s usually wearing a suit or not so casual clothes...” Travis continues, “...Well he was and then he asked me If I was something called the Gatekeeper? I said no then he shut the door on me so I knocked again he asked the same question then I said I was a friend of theirs...” Jonathan says, “The Gatekeeper...?” Travis says, “Yeah but I did get the keys but he talked about if I betrayed him he would be punished like the other people in this world... It was very freaky... But I’m on my way inside your dad’s house to get the pack.” Jonathan says, “Copy. We will do some research at the library. Meet us when you get the pack.” Travis says, “Copy that.” Travis creeps up to Jonathan’s father’s house then tries each key until he unlocks the door. Travis walks in then looks around the house. Travis walks into Jonathan’s room then finds the proton pack. Travis picks up the pack then he puts it on, Travis straps it up then starts playing around with it until he hits a switch then the pack goes off making the carpet catch on fire. Travis quickly unstraps the pack then rushes to find a bucket then fills it with water, as Travis runs to the room he has a feeling he is being watched. Travis makes it to the room then puts out the fire as he sighs. Travis picks up the pack again then takes it outside and places it on the wagon. Travis gets on his bike then bikes off to the library to meet with Jonathan and Owen. Travis sees them waiting outside as he bikes up. Owen says, “Finally... Took you long enough, we have been waiting for a while.” Travis was breathing heavily but said, “S-sorry...” Travis catches his breath then says, “I got the pack...” Jonathan says, "Good... Also we did some research and found more of that Keymaster you talked about." Jonathan adds, "In the early 1900's around 1920-ish... A cult was formed by a man named Ivo Shandor to worship a god called Gozer. It is said two human vessels are needed to summon Gozer to this plane one of these people must be Mike." Travis looks surprised then says, "Does this mean... that Mike is possessed?" Jonathan says, "Yes, He is more than likely possessed by Vinz Clortho, The Keymaster..." Travis says, "He did say that his name was Vinz..." Jonathan says, "Yeah he is definitely possessed..." Owen asks, "So what do we do now?" Jonathan says, "We test the equipment, find the other possessed person, and try and prevent the end of the world." Owen asks, "So what are we waiting for, let's go!" The trio rushes off on their bikes to the scrapyard then once they get there they set up some junk piles to test on. Jonathan asks, "So who is going first?" Travis says, "I'll do it." Jonathan shrugs then says, "Okay I'll strap you up... fully this time." Jonathan straps Travis into the pack and then says, "Make sure those straps are fully on." Travis feels around then says, "All straps feel snug." Jonathan says, "Okay Travis I'm going to switch on the pack." Jonathan adds, "Also grab the wand." Travis grabs the Neutrons Wand and grips it in his hands. Jonathan switches a small lever in the crevasse of it then the pack springs to life. Jonathan says, "Now press that switch that is right next to another switch." Travis presses the switch and some lights flicker to life. Jonathan says, "Now press the one under the one you pressed." Travis pressed the switch and a powering up noise came out of the wand. Jonathan says, "Lastly press the one switch at the other side of the switches you pressed." Travis presses the switch and the pack makes some more power noises. Jonathan says, "Press the button above the switch and it should work... Please be careful." Travis nods then presses the switch as the proton pack spurs out a particle stream from the barrel of the wand. The stream hits the pile of junk then after a while Travis stops pressing the button as Owen says sarcastically, "Woah, woah, nice shootin' tex." Travis looks at the spot where the junk was as Jonathan says, "It's gone..." The trio look at the spot as Jonathan speaks up, "I need to go get the other two packs." Jonathan adds, "Travis, Owen you two go back to my father's house then grab the Packs and traps and I will go back to my uncle's house to see if I can find more answers on this Gozer person." Travis and Owen nod as They hop on their bikes then they bike off. Jonathan sighs then says, "Well better get going." Jonathan starts to walk until he grabs the Walkie Talkie then says, "Boy's copy?" Owen answers, "What happened...?" Jonathan says, "Could one of you come pick me up and take me to my Uncle's house?" Owen says, "Oh yeah on my way." Owen bikes up to Jonathan as he hops on the wagon then they bike off. They make it to Jonathan's Uncle's then he hops off then says, "Thanks Owen make sure you get the rest of the stuff." Jonathan grabs the proton pack that was on the wagon then puts it on. Owen nods then bikes off as Jonathan walks up to his Uncle's bored up house. Jonathan says, "God damn it..."

Chapter 8, The Gatekeeper:

Owen biked up to Travis who was waiting nearby Jonathan's father's house. Travis says, "Took you long enough." Owen says, "Sorry I had to help Jonny to get this plan done." They hid the bikes nearby then walked down the sidewalk. They were passing Milly's house then Owen said, "Well since we're here let's go pay Milly a visit!" Owen rushes off to knock on her door as Travis rushes behind him. Travis says, "I don't think that's a good id-" The door opens as Milly answers with a weird orange looking robe thing then Milly speaks up, "Are you the Keymaster...?" Owen looks confused then says, "What? No." Milly slams the door then Travis sighs. Travis says, "Wait this feels familiar..." Owen and Travis say together, "The Gatekeeper!" Owen pulls out his Walkie Talkie then says, "Jonathan copy?" No one responded then Owen said again, "Jonathan... Copy?" Still no response then Owen puts the Walkie Talkie back on his hip then says, "Guess we're, On Our Own..." Travis says, "You're probably right..." They knock again on the door then Milly opens it then asks, "Are you the Keymaster...?" Travis gulps then says, "No but we are friends of his. We were asked to meet him here?" Milly nods then moves aside to let them in. Milly says, "You are a little young to be a cultist... Are you sure you are in the right place...?" Owen speaks up a little nervous, "Oh yeah we are devoted to Gozer. Gozer is the savior." Owen and Travis nervously chuckled as Milly says, "...Okay my name is Zuul..." Travis says, "Nice to meet you Zuul." Zuul says, "Feel free to look around this place... I guess..." They notice the computer on the desk nearby, then Travis whispers to Owen, "We should go check the computer..." Owen whispers back, "Yeah good idea Travis..." Owen and Travis walk over to the computer then find its password locked. Owen says frustrated, "Dammit..." Travis looks around then finds a sticky note with the password on it. Travis says, "Hey Owen looky here." Travis gives Owen the sticky note then he gets into the computer. It had left an unset email to Jonathan's email. Travis speaks up, "We should send it... It could be important." Owen nods then sends it as they turn off the computer they walk back to the living room seeing that Zuul was sleeping on the couch. Owen whispers, "We should get out of here..." Travis whispers, "Yeah good idea..." They sneak out the front door then quietly close the door. They walk a house down just in case then Owen pulls out his Walkie Talkie again then says, "Jonathan Copy!" Owen gets frustrated with Jonathan's unheard reply then yells, "Jonathan do you copy!?" Still no noise or voice comes from the Walkie Talkie then Owen puts the Walkie Talkie on his hip then says, "Let's just get this equipment so I can go yell at him..." Travis says, "Maybe it's not working... remember when we were in his Uncle's house and we tried getting to him and it didn't go through?" Owen nods still frustrated but then says, "You're probably right..." They walk to Jonathan's father's house then Travis pulls out the keys that he got then unlocks the door. They walk inside then walk around then they make it to Jonathan's room. They find the 2 other proton packs then they find 3 muon traps. Travis says, "Wait... We should grab Jonathan's laptop and that portable internet thing." Owen nods then says, "Yeah you're right but where would they be?" They both think for a while then they both say, "His dad's room!" They both nod then rush off to find his dad's room. Eventually they find it, then they try to open it but it was locked. Owen sighs then says, "Dang... What do we do?" Travis says, "Let me see if any of these keys can unlock this door." Owen sighs as Travis tries each one of the 30 keys on this keychain. Owen gets bored so he decides to go explore. Owen walks around then stumbles across a rope connected to a hatch above him. Owen says, "Ooo Attic... Let's see what's up there..." Owen pulls down the rope and a ladder comes down. Owen climbs the ladder into the Attic, once he's in he sees a whole bunch of pictures of Jonathan's father and the Egon Spangler guy they had read about. Owen looks around then finds a note seeming to be given to Jonathan's father. The note said, "Dear brother, I will not be able to finish what I set out to do. Finish my work or the world as we know it can crumble as the Apocalypse happens... You're brother, Egon Spangler." Owen put down the note then looked around then found a box. Owen opened the box then pulled out some beige colored flight suits. Owen put them back in the box as Travis yelled, "Owen! Where are you!" Owen yells back, "I'm in the attic!" Travis looks around then finds the ladder then says, "Woah... I didn't know this was here..." Travis says, "Hey these flight suits could come in handy... Maybe we should take it?" Owen says, "You're probably right, let's put this box by the equipment." Owen takes the box to the front door then places it down next to the equipment. Travis had walked back to trying keys at Jonathan's Father's room then Travis yelled, "Hey! I unlocked the door!" Owen rushed up then said, "Jeez finally..." Travis rolls his eyes as they walk in Jonathan's father's room. They find his computer and portable wifi thing in one of his drawers. Travis grabs the things then says, "Let's get out of here..." They walk to the front door as Owen says, "I'll bring over the bikes and the wagon!" Travis nods as Owen rushes out, a few minutes go by as Owen bikes up then says, "Okay load me up!" Travis nods as he puts the proton packs, muon traps, the box of flight suits, then Jonathan's computer and portable wifi box. Owen says, "I'll meet you at Jonathan's Uncle's house!" Travis says, "Okay! I'm going to go check on something..." Owen nods then says, "Okay man just be careful." Travis nods then walks back into Jonathan's father's house. Travis says, "I need to clean and lock up this place..." Travis begins cleaning the house then he closes all the doors. Travis cleans the house as well as he could then Travis locks Jonathan's father's room then he closes the attic. Travis turns off all the lights but as he was about to turn off the last light he noticed a lamp flickering. Travis went over then turned it off but as he looks a little closer he notices the lamp wasn't even plugged in. Travis had grabbed the goggles Owen found in Jonathan's Uncle's house so Travis decided to put them on. Travis looked around then looked at the lamp, he jumped back as he saw a small bluish ghost that kinda looked like a mini lightning bolt. Travis pulled up the Paragoggles then noticed that the Ghost was seeable now. Travis stood still then the Ghost turned then stared at him until he rushed him. Travis layed on the floor a little shook covered in some mysterious sticky substance. Travis got up then walked out the front door then locked it. Travis got on his bike then went off. Travis pulled up to the front of Jonathan's Uncle's house on his bike once Travis pulled up Owen laughed then said, "Woah man what happened to you?" Travis looked a little shook but said, "I found a ghost and it uh slimed me..." Owen laughed for a while then said, "That's funny man." Travis rolls his eyes then says, "Have you heard from Jonathan yet?" Owen says, "Nah... Not yet." Travis says, "Hope he is okay..." Owen laughs then says, "Oh he's fine." Travis says, "How long has he been in there..." Owen says, "Oh I dropped him off uhhh around four thirty?" Travis asks, "Okay what time is it now?" Owen looks down at his watch then says casually, "Oh seven fortyfive." Travis yells, "Seven Fortyfive!?" Owen says, "Come on man he will be fine... He's smart and he will figure out a way to get back." Travis gets annoyed then says, "That's it I'm going in." Travis stomps to the front of the house then walks in. Owen says, "Travis, wait!" Travis turns around then says, "What Owen?" Owen says, "Come on man we should wait..." Travis says, "Why? What is going on?" Owen sighs then says, "I saw something rush into there..." Travis yells, "What!?" Owen says, "But wait he will get it!" Travis says, "He needs our help Owen... He can't get one all by himself... you need to suck up your fear so we can help our friend." Owen sighs then says, "Fine... Let's go in." The two boys rush in to go so they can help their friend.

Chapter 9, Spores Molds and Fungus:

Jonathan had noticed his Uncle's house was bored up. Jonathan says, "Well guess it's time to get rid of some boards." Jonathan switches on the proton pack then he blasted the boards as he stopped blasting he noticed the boards were gone. Jonathan walks in then pulls out his PKE meter off of his waist then it starts beeping fast towards the basement door. Jonathan follows the beeping into the basement then he makes it to the first part of the basement. Jonathan noticed that this time the beeping was not towards the place he explored last time but this time another area. Jonathan walked over to this new area then noticed a pattern in the wall that looked like it needed to be put in a certain way. Jonathan solved the pattern then a door opened then he walked in. Inside the room there was a model of a deep area of the park. It looked like a minefield but it was filled with muon traps instead. Jonathan says, "What is this place...?" The PKE meter turns on by itself then starts beeping like crazy. The model lights up then the muon traps open. Then everything stops, then the quiet drowns the room. Jonathan looks around again then finds a rocking chair with lots of rips and scratches. Jonathan says, "What the...? Why is this chair so beaten up...?" A loud crash of something falling fills the once eerily quiet room. Jonathan quickly turned around then noticed something fell off a cluttered desk in the corner of the room. Jonathan stares at the desk until a small lamp flickered to life once this happened Jonathan slowly approached the desk. Jonathan walked over then the lamp pointed to the wall as he saw many pictures, half of himself and the others of a girl he had never seen before. The lamp looked back down then a drawer opened, Jonathan noticed a note in the drawer. Jonathan looks at the note then says, "Do you want me to read it...?" The lamp moves in a nodding like motion so Jonathan grabs the note. The note said, "Dear Nephew, I'm not sure if you will get this letter but I wanted to tell you you need to help me. Knowing your father he will be too scared to finish my work but you will be a smart young man. I, More than likely, am still there with you." Jonathan notices a map rolled up next to where the note used to be. Jonathan picks up the map then says, "This too...?" Jonathan looks at the lamp then it makes that same nodding motion until the light flickers off. The room was now eerily quiet yet again, until the PKE meter started going off again. Jonathan looked around startled; he didn't see anything at first until he saw a purple ghost with a plump body and stubby arms. Jonathan grabs the neutrona wand then powers it on. The ghost heard this then tried to run but Jonathan had started blasting and had got the ghost in the capture stream. Jonathan wrestled the ghost in the basement until it escaped the capture steam. The ghost rushed out of the basement as Jonathan rushed after it. Jonathan chased the ghost out of the house until it made it outside. The ghost floated off as Jonathan stood out of breath. Owen and Travis were staring in shock until Owen spoke up, "Jonathan...? Was that real?" Jonathan nodded, then said, "Yeah... That slippery ghost escaped..." Travis said, "Well uh... we got the stuff." Jonathan looked at the stuff and noticed his laptop then saw some flight suits he had not seen before. Jonathan said, "Where did you find these flight suits?" Owen said, "Well we found it in your dad's attic..." Jonathan looked at the flight suit then noticed there were two name tags saying, Spangler and Perkins then the other suits only having spangler on them. Jonathan said, "We need to go look for something..." Travis says, "What? Where?" Jonathan says, "The forest deep in the park." Jonathan gets on the wagon as Travis and Owen bike off. The trio pulls up to the park then they get off their bikes. Jonathan pulls out the map then says, "This way." They walk for a while until they come across a huge hole that was gated. Jonathan says, "This isn't the place but it looks important so Ima mark it." They continue to walk until they find the muon trap field. Jonathan says, "Here it is..." Owen asked, "What is it?" Jonathan says, "Our way to defeat Gozer." Vinz was growing tired of waiting so he decided to try and find the Gatekeeper himself. Vinz walked around the whole town looking until he found the house Zuul was in. Vinz knocked as Zuul opened the door then said, "I am the Gatekeeper, are you the Keymaster?" Vinz answers, "I am the Keymaster, are you the Gatekeeper?" Zuul answers, "Yes." They both say, "Shall we begin?" They go inside the house and close the door. The trio went back to the Junkyard but when they arrived the Ghost Jonathan encountered was here. Owen and Travis walked up to the junkyard then stopped. Jonathan bumped into them then said, "Hey what the-?"

Chapter 10, We Be Fast And They Be Slow:

Jonathan gasped then grabbed the proton pack then strapped it on. Jonathan whispers to Travis, "Travis grab the Muon trap." Travis nods then grabs the trap. Jonathan stands his ground then says aloud, "Hey Ghost!" The Ghost turned then Jonathan said, "Don't mess with the Ghostbusters!" Jonathan blasts the particle stream then the Ghost gets stuck in it. Owen yells aloud, "You got 'em! You got 'em... Travis the trap!" Travis nods then rolls out the trap. Jonathan yells, "Travis once I say go press on the petal then look away!" Jonathan moves the ghost above the trap then yells, "Go!" Travis then presses on the petal as the boys look away. They slowly look back then Jonathan walks slowly up to the trap then slightly hits it with his foot. A small purple bolt goes around the trap. Jonathan says, "It's in there..." Owen says, "We did it." Travis says, "We did it!" They all high five each other. Meanwhile at the gated hole Vinz and Zuul were sitting inside then a large dark cloud forms then some purple lightning strikes them then they turn into Terror Dogs. The trio was still shocked that they caught a Ghost until the large dark cloud covered the city. Jonathan looked scared then said, "Oh no it's happening..." Owen and Travis get confused then Travis asks, "What is happening?" Jonathan says scared, "Gozer. He's here." Owen and Travis looked shocked, then Owen asked, "Okay, so what do we do?" Jonathan calms down then says, "We suit up and try to defeat a god." Owen and Travis gulp then they all grab individual flight suits then put them on. They all strap on their proton packs then put on the utility belts. Jonathan puts the PKE meter on his belt as well as a Muon Trap. Travis puts the Paragoggles on his head then he puts a Muon Trap on his belt as well. Owen does the same then Jonathan says, "Dang this stuff is heavy..." Travis says, "You got that right." Jonathan says, "I think we should go to the gated hole."

Owen says, "Good idea." At the hole Gozer walks up then a temple that looks like it came out from the ground as the two Terror Dogs go to some pedestals then Gozer walks up to the temple then sits on a throne. The boys followed the map then came across the huge temple. Owen says, "Well Jonny. Go talk to it." Jonathan sighs then walks up. Jonathan then yells aloud, "Gozer the Gozerian! We would like for you to maybe leave this place?" Gozer looks at the boy then says, "Are you a god?" Jonathan looks back then Owen nods then Jonathan says, "Uhh... No?" Gozer turns and says, "Then... DIE!" Purple lightning comes from its hands then hits them making them fly back. They try to get up then Travis says, "Jonny If someone asks if you're a god you say YES!" The boys were sore but they slowly got back on their feet but the heavy equipment made it harder to. Jonathan sighs then says, "Sorry I got caught up in the moment." The boys get up then Owen says, "What do we do?" Jonathan thinks for a moment then says, "The Trap field! We have to lure Gozer to the trap field! From what I read you need to capture the Terror Dogs to weaken Gozer." Owen says annoyed, "And how do we do that?" Jonathan perks up then says, "I need to get back to my uncle's house." Owen says, "I'll take you but why are we going back?" Jonathan says with an action movie tone, "It has something we need." Owen laughed then said, "What are we in an action movie or something?" Jonathan sighed then said, "Very funny Owen..." Travis frowned with them arguing like idiots then he remembers Gozer is still there so he yells, "Hey Gozer's here remember!?" Owen and Jonathan stop arguing then nod as Jonathan hops on the wagon then Owen gets on the bike. They bike off then after about 30 minutes of biking they make it to Jonathan's Uncle's house. Jonathan hops off then says, "I'll go in by myself." Owen grabs his arm then says, "No, we go in together." Jonathan sighs then says, "Fine." They walk in the house then to the basement. Jonathan says, "Come with me." Owen looks around then says with shock, "So this is what's down here...?" Jonathan says, "Yeah just follow me." They make it to the second study then they walk to the firepole room. Jonathan says, "We have to go down the pole." Owen says nervously, "Are you sure? I don't think we can get ba-" Jonathan goes down the firepole then Owen sighs then follows after him. Jonathan walked in as Owen gasped then said, "Woah this place is so cool." Jonathan says, "Yeah it is huh?" Jonathan walks around looking for something. Owen says, "So what are we looking for?" Jonathan says, "Just a second." Jonathan pulls out a Muon Trap but it looks like an R/C car.

Jonathan says, "Ah here we are... We can use this to trap one of those dog things... from what I remember reading it should make Gozer weakened." Owen says, "Wait really?" Jonathan nods then says, "Then we need to..." Jonathan was interrupted by a large earthquake then Owen with some fear in his voice said, "What was that?" Before Jonathan could speak a glitchy voice came through Jonathan's Radio, "B-oy's... Com-e i-n?" Jonathan and Owen rushed out with the R/C trap as Jonathan said into his radio, "Just a second man!" They make it out as some rubble covers the entrance to the basement. Jonathan says, "Dang it." Owen says, "Oh no..." They walk out of the house as another earthquake happens. Travis's voice comes from Jonathan's radio, "Boy's come in?" Jonathan says into the radio, "Sorry Travis, what is going on?" Travis's voice comes through the radio, "Well while you were down there... I saw the old barn glowing in the distance, then a huge army of ghosts erupted from the barn." Jonathan says shocked, "What!?"

Chapter 11, Savin' The Day? Part 1:

Jonathan says into the radio, "We're on our way!" Travis says through the radio, "Okay hurry!" Owen rushed out of the house with the R/C Trap then he yelled, "Jonny! What did I miss? Did Travis reply?" Jonathan sighed then said, "Yeah he did and we might have some trouble getting to him..." Owen looks confused then says, "What...? Why?" Then a pair of purple ghosts pass by them as Jonathan says, "That's why..." Owen says, "We better get going." Jonathan and Owen get to their areas on the bike and wagon. Owen says, "Let's go!" They biked for another 30 minutes seeing ghosts everywhere terrorizing anyone who was outside. Officer Awes saw the kids being all fearless so she followed them. They made it near the temple where Travis was hiding in a bush as he said, "Where were you guys!?" Owen, out of breath says, "Sorry biking with this equipment is harder than it looks..." Travis sighs then says, "So what do we do now?" Jonathan says, "One of you needs to get that R/C Trap under one of those dog things. I'll try and distract Gozer." Owen says, "Travis you can do the R/C... Jonathan be careful." Travis nods then grabs the R/C Trap then places it on the ground as he grabs the R/C remote. Jonathan walks back up to the temple then says aloud, "Umm excuse me?" Gozer looks at Jonathan with a confused but intrigued look. Jonathan continues, "Yeah. Hi. I'm uh Jonathan we met a while ago and we maybe started off on the wrong foot uh-" One of the terror dogs growls but Gozer pets it to calm it down. In the very back Officer Awes whispers, "What is that thing? What are they doing?" Travis started driving the R/C Trap until it made it under the Terror Dog. Jonathan smirks then states, "Well... Thanks for visiting Cali but it's time for up to go.."

Gozer looks confused as Travis opens the R/C Trap then the terror dog turns back to its ghost form then gets sucked into the trap. Gozer turns into a dust-like form as the other terror dog barks. Officer Awes gasped quietly then said, "What are they doing?" Owen rushes to grab Milly then he carries her to the wagon then places her in, he bikes away. Jonathan notices the Terror Dog jump at him so he moves out of the way then runs. Travis notices the Terror Dog chasing Jonathan so he drives the R/C Trap near them then Terror Dog sees the Trap then chases it. Jonathan runs to the Trap Field then finds a lever and a muon trap petal next to each other. Jonathan says, "This is it... we need to get Gozer over her..." Jonathan says into the radio, "Boy's if you can lead Gozer over to the Trap Field that would be greatly appreciated!" Owen and Travis say at the same time from the radio, "Copy that!" Owen biked fastly to Milly's house then rushed inside then placed her on the couch. Owen sighs then whispers, "Please be okay..." Owen rushed back out then got on his bike as he rushed off to the Trap Field. Owen saw Travis then yelled, "Travis! Get Gozer's attention!" Travis nods, then walks up to the dust-formed Gozer, then yells, "Hey, flat top!" Gozer in his dust-form looks over annoyed. Travis then yells, "catch me if you can, Gozerian scum!" Travis runs as Gozer follows behind once they get there Gozer thinks he has Travis cornered. Owen biked up then the second Terror Dog showed up then Jonathan said aloud, "Gozer the Gozerian! It was nice while it lasted huh?" Gozer looks confused as Jonathan presses the lever then stomps on the petal. The noise of power came stinging until it stopped, it was fully silent. Jonathan yelled, "No!" Gozer put his hand up then the R/C Trap was in Gozer's hands then he ripped it open letting the Terror Dog ghost out. Officer Awes comes out with her gun then yells, "Police! Put your hands in the air!" Jonathan yells, "Wait no! Watch out!" The Terror Dog ghost possesses Officer Awes making her into a Terror Dog. Jonathan yells, "Boy's fall back!" The trio run off then make it a good distance away. A car pulls up in front of them then the window rolls down. Jonathan gasped then said, "Josh!?" Josh speaks up, "Jonathan, Owen, Travis are you guys okay what are running from?" Jonathan said, "I'll explain later... Can you take us somewhere?" Josh nods then says, "Okay get in!" Josh drives off then a little later in the drive Josh speaks up, "What is going on?” Jonathan says, “It’s hard to believe but we are trying to defeat Gozer.” Josh looked at him then noticed he had a flight suit and a proton pack on the floor in front of Jonathan. Josh speaks up, “The Ghostbusters? Where did you find this stuff?” Travis speaks up, “Jonathan’s Uncle’s basement.” Josh says with a little shock, “Wait... That means those are real?” Jonathan nods then says, “We tried to capture Gozer but the mechanism that our Uncle made broke so we need to find another way to capture Gozer.” Josh perks up then says, “You guys can figure this out at my house!” Jonathan smiles then says, “Wait really?” Josh smiles then says, “Yeah of course you’re my cousin!” Owen and Travis say aloud, “Wait, he is your cousin!?” Jonathan chuckled, then said, “Was it not obvious?”

Chapter 12, Savin’ The Day? Part 2:

Josh pulled up in his driveway then he got out as the other boy’s got out too. Josh unlocks his house then walks in as the trio follows behind. The trio take off their flight suits and proton packs then place them in a closet. Josh says, “You can use the living room! I’ll get some snacks!” Jonathan smiles then says, “Thanks cousin!” Josh walks to the kitchen then Owen speaks up, “So what do we do about this Gozer situation?” Jonathan then says, “Well the Trap Field is out of the question...” Josh walks out with some cookies then says, “Wait did you say Gozer?” Travis nods then says, “He’s out there looking for us...” Josh then says, “Jonathan I think I know what to do.” Jonathan perks up then says, “What do we do?” Josh asks, “Was there a big temple?” Jonathan nods then says, “Yes it looks like it came from the ground.” Josh says, “The packs... I know how they work... Was the temple glowing and did it have a door at the end?” Travis says, “Yeah it was glowing!” Owen then says, “I remember there being a door.” Josh then says, “This is a dangerous plan... but you need to cross the streams at the door... The only downside is that your body could explode...” Jonathan looks scared then he sighs as Josh speaks up, “But there is a small chance you could survive.” Owen sighs then says, “Do we risk it Jonathan?” Jonathan says a little more confidently, “We must do what’s right! Let’s do it.” Jonathan puts his hand in the middle followed by Owen and then Travis. Josh puts his hand in then says, “You’re going to need all the help you can get.” Jonathan sighs then says, “You can’t... We don’t have any more proton packs?” Josh goes to his room then comes out with a blue proton pack. Jonathan says, “Woah where did you get this?” Josh then says, “Uncle gave it to me before he went missing...”

Jonathan says, "I don't think he's gone... I think he is still here..." The lights flicker then Jonathan smiles then says, "See?" Josh looks around surprised then says, "He was around all along..." Jonathan says, "Can you take us to the place?" Josh nods then says, "Sure! Let's hope we survive..." Jonathan puts his hand in the middle then Owen follows as well then Travis does. Josh puts his hand in then they all put their hands back then say in unison, "Ghostbusters!" Jonathan, Owen, Travis and Josh put on their Flight Suits then strap on their proton packs. They all walk out slowly like they're in an action movie. Jonathan says, "Okay seriously now Let's go!" They all put their proton packs in the back of Josh's car then they get in the car. Josh starts the car then says, "Let's clean up this town!" Jonathan, Owen, and Travis yelled, "Yeah!" Josh steps on the gas as they speed off.

Chapter 13, Cleanin' Up The Town:

Josh pulls up then parks into the parking lot of the park. Josh says, "We're here." They all get out of the car then grab their proton packs. Jonathan says, "Well let's go." They all walk to the temple once they get there Gozer stands then stares at them. Jonathan yells, "Smoke 'em!" They all use the practical stream aiming them towards Gozer as she does a backflip to behind them. They all turn around then Jonathan yells, "Again!" They all use the practical stream again, this time Gozer and the two Terror Dog's disappeared. Josh half chuckled then said, "I think we neutralized it..." Jonathan pulls out the PKE meter then says, "Uhh These readings don't look good..." A voice booms around, "Subcreatures! Gozer the Gozerian, Gozer the Destructor, Volguus Zildrohar, the Traveler, has come! Choose and perish!" Jonathan looks around but he can't locate the sound of the voice as Josh speaks up, "What do you mean, choose?" Jonathan adds, "We don't understand!" Gozer's voice booms, "Choose! Choose the form of the Destructor!" Owen fake laughs then says, "Oh I get it! If we think of Grimace, Grimace will appear and destroy us, okay? So empty your heads!" Gozer's voice booms, "The choice is made! The Traveler has come!" Josh says, "Woah! Woah! Nobody choosed anything! Jonathan, did you choose something?" Jonathan says, "No!" Josh adds, "Owen did you choose anything?" Owen says, "My mind is blank?" Josh yells, "I didn't choose anything!" Jonathan, Owen, and Josh then turn back to Travis then Travis says with a trembling voice, "I couldn't help it. It just popped in there." Owen says frustrated, "What? What just popped in there?" Travis says, still trembling, "I-I tried to think..." A huge boom followed by a small earthquake came through. Jonathan yelled, "Look!" They run towards an area where the tree's are not in the way to see what it was. Travis says, "No! It can't be!" Owen says, "What is it?" Travis says, "It can't be!" Josh says, "What did you do, Travis?" Jonathan says, "Aw shoot..." Travis says solemnly, "It's the Stay-Puft Marshmallow Man..." Stay-Puft roars then stomps on a house as Josh says, "Well there's something you see everyday..." Travis says, "I tried to think of the most harmless thing. Something me and my family loved. Something that could never, ever possibly destroy us. Mr. Stay-Puft..." Owen says sarcastically, "Yeah nice thinking, Travis..." Travis adds, "I used to roast Stay-Puft marshmallows with my mom and dad..." Owen says, "Okay Travis has gone bye-bye... Jonathan, you got any ideas?" Jonathan says nervously, "Sorry Owen I'm too terrified for rational thinking." Stay-Puft sees them then growls as Josh says, "Oh, no..." Owen says, "Mother pus-bucket!" The three rush off to the bush they hid in before trying to capture Gozer. Josh says, "We need to cross the streams!" Owen says nervously, "But we could die!" Jonathan says, "We have a small chance to live, remember?" Owen says seriously with a hint of sarcasm, "I love this plan! Let's do it!" They rush to the temple then stand there for a minute. Jonathan says, "Well this is it, turn off the safety..." They all turn the safety on their proton packs then Owen speaks up, "It was nice being friends with you all... I hope to see you guys on the other side!" Then Owen turns on his particle stream and aims it to the door's of the temple. Then Travis speaks up, "I'm glad to be friends with you all and I appreciate you guys caring for me!" Travis then turns on his particle stream then merges his particle stream with Owens. Josh says, "It was nice working with you guys. You guys are like family even if one is already!" Josh turns on his particle stream then merges the particle stream with Owen and Travis's particle stream. Jonathan speaks up, "I hope we survive this so we can go home... I love y'all! Jonathan merges the particle stream with the other three as Stay-Puft had just gotten to us then he turned surprised as a huge explosion happened. Jonathan slowly gets up. He was covered in marshmallow goo then he yells, "Owen! Travis! Josh!" Owen gets up also covered in marshmallow goo then Jonathan rushes over to help him up. Owen says, "Dang..." Jonathan says, "You okay?" Owen says, "As okay as I can be." Josh got up, he was the least covered in marshmallow goo Josh found Travis as he yelled, "Help! I can't see it is all white! Am I dead!?" Josh chuckled then wiped the marshmallow goo from his face then said, "You're alive." Travis hugged Josh as Josh said, "Let's go..." Jonathan and Owen find Josh and Travis, Jonathan said, "Did we do it...?" Josh nods then says, "We did it... We survived and saved the world!" Owen looked over then saw a rock formation resembling the Terror dogs Owen said, "Oh Jonathan... I'm so sorry..." Some fingers poke through with some rubble as Jonathan says, "Wait!" They all go over then start breaking the rocks then Officer Awes says tiredly, "W-where am I...? What are you boys doing here?" Owen says, "We saved you." Travis adds, "But right now that doesn't matter, we need to get you out of here." Jonathan says, "Get her out of here and me and Josh will see if we can find Mike!" Owen and Travis nod then rush off with Officer Awes as Jonathan and Josh look around then find the other Terror Dog formation. Jonathan yells, "I found him!" Josh rushes over then they get Mike out of the rubble. Mike looks around then sees Jonathan then says, "Is it over?" Jonathan nods then says, "Yeah we did it." Mike gets up then says, "Well let's go..." Josh says, "Here let me help you." Josh puts Mike's arm around him then he walks off. Josh turned his head then said, "Jonathan, you coming?" Jonathan says, "Go on ahead I need to go to my Uncle's house..." Josh nods then takes Mike out of the forest as he gets out he sees Jonathan's father waiting for them, Rick yells, "Mike! Josh! Where is Jonathan!?" Josh looks at Rick then says nervously, "Oh hey Unc... Well he went to your brother's old house..." Rick looks surprised then says, "Josh take Mike home then meet me there!" Josh nods then rushes off as Rick gets in his car then speeds off. Rick pulls up then parks then he gets out and sees Jonathan's two friends Owen and Travis. Rick says, "What are you two doing here?" Owen says, "Jonathan told us to wait for you..." Travis adds, "He wanted us to tell you to meet him." Rick nods then says, "Thanks." Rick rushes in then finds Jonathan sitting in the living room. Rick yells, "Jonathan!? What is the meaning of this!?" Jonathan says, "Sit down... We need to wait for Josh..." Rick sighs then sits down a while later Josh comes rushing in. Josh says, "I heard you guys were waiting for me?" Jonathan says, "Sit down." Josh nods then sits down as the lights start to flicker, Rick says scared, "What is going on!?" Jonathan says, "Calm down..." Rick gasped as Egon came out but he wasn't alive anymore. Rick says shocked, "Brother...?" Jonathan walks up to Egon as he kneels down then fixes his glasses. Jonathan hugged him as Egon hugged back. Josh walks over as Egon puts his hand on his shoulder then Josh hugs him as Egon also hugs back. Rick says, "I'm sorry brother... For not believing you and being a coward... I should have listened..." Rick hugs Egon as he hugs back then he slowly disappears. His spirit was now at rest, Rick goes to Jonathan then says, "I'm so proud of you." Rick hugs Jonathan then he looks at Josh. Rick says, "I'm also so proud of you." Rick hugs Josh then Rick says, "We should get going..." Jonathan says, "Dad?" Rick looks over then says, "Yes son?" Jonathan says, "Can we come back here?" Rick says, "Maybe..." Jonathan, Rick, and Josh walk out then meet up with Owen and Travis as Rick says, "Okay who's hungry? I'll go pick up Mike so we can all eat and I'll pay for everyone!" Everyone yells, "Yeah!" Jonathan says, "Oh yeah we have a new neighbor who was a part of this, let's invite her too!" Rick nods, then says, "Sure!" They all walk off to the dinner smiling and laughing together. The TV anchor says, "It's a weird day in a small city in California! Where lots of Marshmallow goo was found deep in the park's forest! More on this story as it develops!" A voice says, "What? We got rid of him years ago? Eh it's probably not from that thing..."

Epilogue, 1 Year Later:

It had been one year since the Gozer incident and no one believed what happened. I can't blame them, it's pretty unbelievable... They took the equipment and said we can get it back once one of us gets the proper license to. So after high school I plan to go college and get a degree in Parapsychology and Nuclear Physics. Me, Owen, and Travis got grounded for a long while. Not like we don't sneak out and hang out anyway, Mike, Milly, and Officer Awes made a full recovery. I still think about my Uncle... Oh right, we moved into his house after getting evicted from our old house because of minor fire damage. So we fixed it up like it was back when my dad went here. I also got the rubble out of the basement and fixed that area up. I use the basement to work on stuff like my Uncle would have. Oh yeah Josh comes and visits every so often he's also bummed about the police taking the proton packs. Luckily we got to keep the flight suits! It was very hard to get that Marshmallow goo out of them though. My dad hasn't been so well. After a couple of months he started becoming very weak... Oh I heard a crash. Thank god he is okay! My dad just fell. Anyway, I hope everything goes better in the future.
