

For my final art project I decided to make a detailed drawing of a scene. I made lots of hills and grass and Tried to make it as good as possible. I made Two drafts before I started doing my final one. It was a fun project that I enjoyed working on during quarantine it was fun and helped improve on your art skills. I feel like I did a good job on my Project And had a great time while making it.