

Avatar: Nick, 34 y/o, lives with his loving family and works a part-time job. He recently brought a new guitar and is looking to improve his skills and use them to amaze his family.

Current state: Nick is finding it hard to develop his skills with the guitar which is making him find guitar boring as he's stuck. He often tries to learn new techniques that can quickly progress his fingerstyle learning speed, the problem is that he is struggling to understand fingerstyle due to lack of guidance from an experienced mentor.

Dream State: Nick wishes that he could learn to play effortlessly, play any song he desires, be able to play in front of his family and friends well, and play fingerstyle fast, without mistakes. This will make him more confident in his abilities with a guitar and reignite the passion he once had for guitar, creating never-ending excitement when he holds a guitar.

Roadblock: The thing that is keeping him away from accomplishing that goal is the fact that he can't find the right teacher or course

Solution: If Nick discovers Nathan and this course, he will finally be able to play confidently and fluently.

Product: The course will give him some mentorship on how to master fingerstyle effortlessly, he will learn how to develop his guitar abilities faster than anything he's seen before and play beautiful music
