Good evening Leon Green,

I've been a dedicated subscriber of your YouTube channel, I like the idea of quitting normal job and being an entrepreneur and becoming the business owner of Ecom Stride Academy.

As a marketing consultant, I completely understand all the pain of opening a new business.

So tell you what why don't we set up a quick 15-minute Zoom call we'll talk about:

Your Number One Struggle: Creating the perfect sales funnel, I noticed that (foundr.com) offers a very successful e-commerce course, and I believe we can learn from them and apply it into crafting a high-converting sales funnel.

Your Number one Goal: Sell your course find interested customers and achieve high conversion rates. I'm eager to learn more about your goals and, if you're open to it and I'll give you a game plan to help you get there.

Is that fair?
