

Introduction to the Escape

Escape the Cave

It's the weekend and your family are enjoying a picnic in the woods. After everyone has finished eating, you and your big sister ask if you can go and explore. "Okay," Dad says, "but stay together. Take my phone so you can call Mum in an emergency." You take the phone and set off.

After a while, you come across the entrance to a dark, gloomy cave. "Come on," exclaims your sister. "Let's investigate!" You both have fun exploring the cave. All of a sudden, you hear a scream. You turn around to see your sister on the floor, clutching her foot in pain. "Quick, call Mum's phone!" she yells.

You take the phone and try to dial but it is locked. In your panic, you can't remember the security code!

Solve the clues and puzzles to discover the phone security code and escape the cave. The clues could be anywhere so you need to keep your eyes peeled and your mind sharp!
