

Maternity, Adoption, parental leave and neonatal care policy

(including time off for dependants, compassionate leave and bereavement leave)

This policy represents the agreed principles for Maternity, Adoption, parental leave, and neonatal care, including time off for dependants, compassionate leave and bereavement leave throughout the Nursery. All Nursery staff, representing Jack in the Box Nursery have agreed this policy.

At Jack in the Box, we aim to provide the highest quality education and care for all our children. We provide a warm welcome to each individual child and family and offer a caring environment where all children can learn and develop to become curious independent learners within their play.

Please read this policy in conjunction with our Data Protection policy for the information collected by Jack in the Box, the professionals this information may be shared with and the retention periods this data is held for as well as our sickness and absence policy, staff welfare and well-being policy and our employee handbook.

Pregnancy and Maternity Rights

You have certain statutory rights if you are pregnant. These are addressed below.

The rules on pregnancy and maternity are very complex, and any query should be raised with the nursery.

Antenatal Care

You are entitled to reasonable time off work with pay to attend antenatal appointments made on the advice of a registered medical practitioner, registered midwife or registered health worker. If requested, you must provide a certificate of pregnancy and an appointment card.

Maternity Risk Assessment

The Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999 (MHSWR) require employers to carry out suitable and sufficient risk assessments when considering the health and safety of all employees at work, and then to take steps to ensure that those risks are avoided. However, there are more specific regulations that need to be taken into account for new or expectant mothers, and a thorough risk assessment will be undertaken with your nursery manager. The purpose of an initial assessment is to identify:

- the presence of any females of potential child-bearing age (these females will usually be employees but may also be visitors, contractors (e.g. students) or volunteers).
- which work activities and/or areas of the workplace may pose a risk of harm to female employees and therefore warrant a full risk assessment.

These activities, and any actions taken, will be recorded.

Employers are only required to take action specifically to protect a pregnant worker when they have been advised in writing that the employee is pregnant, has given birth in the last six months, or is breastfeeding.

Maternity Leave

If you stop work no earlier than the 11th week before the Expected Week of Childbirth (EWC), and you meet the following conditions, you are entitled to 52 weeks' Maternity Leave. To comply, you must notify the nursery in writing as soon as possible or by the 15th week before the EWC, unless that is not reasonably practicable, of the following:

- that you are pregnant, by submitting a MAT B1 form.
- the EWC.
- the date on which you intend your Ordinary Maternity Leave (OML) to start, and.
- if requested, provide medical evidence of the EWC.

The nursery will confirm to you in writing the date upon which your 52-week Maternity Leave period will end.

You are legally prohibited from working during the two weeks immediately after the birth. This is known as the Compulsory Maternity Leave period and is considered part of the Maternity Leave period.

If you give birth before your intended Maternity Leave start date, your Maternity Leave will start automatically on the day after the birth of the child.

During the 52-week Maternity Leave period all contractual benefits except for your pay will be maintained as if you were not absent.

If you wish to return to work before the end of the 52-week period of Maternity Leave you must give at least 8 weeks' notice of your intended date of return.

If you decide to return to work early, and this is at the end of the first 26-week period known as Ordinary Maternity Leave (OML), you are entitled to return to the job you were in before your absence. If you return to work either during or at the end of the second period of 26 weeks' known as Additional Maternity Leave (AML), you may be able to return to your original job, or another job which is suitable and appropriate.

The above information is given for guidance purposes only and confers no extra rights to you beyond those provided by statute.

Keeping in Touch (KIT) Days

During Maternity Leave, you are entitled to up to 10 Keeping in Touch (KIT) Days. These are days when you may work for the nursery without bringing your Maternity Leave to an end. Work can be any work under your contract of employment and may include any training or activity undertaken with the purpose of keeping in touch in the workplace. Working up to 10 KIT days will have no effect on any entitlement to Statutory Maternity Pay. KIT days do not act to extend your period of Maternity Leave.

Any payment for these days will depend on the type of work, training or activity and will be agreed between you and the nursery. For further details please refer to management.

Holidays

Holiday entitlement will be accrued throughout your maternity leave at your normal rate. If you return to work after Maternity Leave, your holiday entitlement will continue to accrue as normal.

Annual leave can be taken either before Maternity Leave starts, at the end of your Maternity Leave, or within the annual leave year once you have returned to work, wherever possible.

You must have prior approval and authorisation for when these holidays can be taken.

Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP)

You will receive Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP) during your Maternity Leave in accordance with the statutory provisions, provided you meet the qualifying criteria. You must therefore:

- have been continuously employed for at least 26 weeks ending with the 15th week before the Expected Week of Childbirth (EWC).
- have average weekly earnings of not less than the figure set by the Government for the payment of National Insurance contributions.
- still be pregnant at the 11th week before the EWC or have given birth by that time.
- give at least 28 days' notice in writing of the date that you intend to start your maternity leave.
- provide medical evidence of the EWC.

For the first six weeks SMP is payable at the earnings-related rate, equivalent to 90% of earnings, and for the remaining 33 weeks of the pay period at the statutory rate as set by the Government, or 90% of average weekly earnings if this is less than the standard rate. The final 13 weeks of the maximum Maternity Leave period are unpaid.

Adoption Leave and Pay

Adoption Appointments

If you have been notified by an approved adoption agency that a child is being or is expected to be placed with you for adoption, you may take paid time off work to attend up to 5 adoption appointments arranged or requested by the agency ahead of the placement of the child.

If you are jointly adopting a child, the primary/main adopter (i.e. the employee electing to take Adoption Leave) may take paid time off work to attend up to 5 appointments and the secondary adopter may take unpaid time off work to attend up to 2 appointments.

If you are the secondary adopter, you will not receive payment for this time off.

The purpose of the appointment must be to have contact with the child or for any other purpose connected to the adoption.

The maximum time off work permitted per appointment is 6.5 hours.

The nursery may allow additional time off work to attend further appointments at its absolute discretion. You will not receive payment for this time off.

If requested, you must provide a declaration confirming the appointment is in connection with the adoption, has been arranged or requested by the adoption agency, and an appointment card.

Adoption Leave

If you are adopting a child and you meet certain qualifying conditions you have the right to take 52 weeks' Adoption Leave.

Employees may be eligible for Adoption Leave if they:

- have been notified by an approved adoption agency that they have been matched with a child and have confirmed the placement with the agency; or,
- are or expect to be the parent of a child under a parental order; or,
- are local authority parents who are prospective adopters.

You must notify the nursery of your intention to take Adoption Leave within 7 days of being notified that you have been matched with a child for adoption. Your notification should include the date on which the child is expected to be placed with you for adoption, when you wish your adoption leave to start and how much leave you wish to take. You may be asked to provide documentary evidence of the match from the adoption agency.

You may commence your Adoption Leave from the date of the placement of the child or at any time within 14 days prior to the placement. You can change the start date by giving 28 days' notice prior to the original commencement date. Adoption Leave cannot start after the date on which the child is placed with you for adoption.

The qualifying conditions are slightly different if you are adopting a child from abroad. If you are considering adopting a child from abroad, please seek further information from HR.

During the 52-week Adoption Leave period all contractual benefits except for your pay will be maintained as if you were not absent.

If you wish to return to work before the end of the 52-week period of Adoption Leave you must give at least 8 weeks' notice of your intended date of return.

If you decide to return to work early and this is at the end of the first 26-week period known as Ordinary Adoption Leave you are entitled to return to the job you were in before your absence. If you return to work either during or at the end of the second period of 26 weeks known as Additional Adoption Leave, you may be able to return to your original job, or another job which is suitable and appropriate.

Keeping in Touch (KIT) Days

During Adoption Leave, you are entitled to up to 10 Keeping in Touch (KIT) Days. These are days when you may work for the nursery without bringing your Adoption Leave to an end. Work can be any work under your contract of employment and may include any training or activity undertaken with the purpose of keeping in touch in the workplace. Working up to 10 KIT days will have no effect on any entitlement to Statutory Adoption Pay. KIT days do not act to extend your period of Adoption Leave.

Any payment for these days will depend on the type of work, training or activity and will be agreed between you and the nursery. For further details please refer to management.

Statutory Adoption Pay (SAP)

You will receive Statutory Adoption Pay (SAP) during your Adoption Leave in accordance with the statutory provisions provided you meet the qualifying criteria. You must therefore:

- have been continuously employed for at least 26 weeks ending with the date you are matched with a child.
- have average weekly earnings of not less than the figure set by the Government for the payment of National Insurance contributions.
- have met the notification requirements set out above in relation to taking Adoption Leave.
- have provided the nursery with evidence of the adoption.

SAP is payable for up to 39 weeks. For the first six weeks SAP is payable at the earnings-related rate, equivalent to 90% of earnings, and for the remaining 33 weeks at the statutory rate as set by the Government, or 90% of average weekly earnings if this is less than the standard rate. The final 13 weeks of the maximum Adoption Leave period are unpaid.

The above information is given for guidance purposes only and confers no extra rights to you beyond those provided by statute.

Paternity Leave and Pay

Introduction

If your partner becomes pregnant or you are jointly adopting a child with another person and have designated yourself as the secondary adopter, you may be entitled to take time off work for various reasons, and this policy explains what your rights are.

This policy applies where the expected date of childbirth is after 6 April 2024, or the expected date of adoption placement is on or after 6 April 2024. Where the expected date of childbirth or the expected date of adoption placement is earlier than these dates, our previous paternity leave policy will apply to you.

Ante-Natal/Adoption Appointments

You have the right to take time off to accompany your partner to ante-natal appointments or adoption appointments. This applies from the start of your employment.

In relation to a birth, you must be the father of the child, or the husband, civil partner or partner of the mother. An ante-natal appointment is one which has been made on the advice of a registered medical practitioner, nurse or midwife.

In relation to an adoption, you must be adopting the child jointly with another person. If you are a sole adopter, you may have separate rights to time off for appointments.

Under this right, you are entitled to take time off to attend a maximum of 2 ante-natal/adoption appointments, to a maximum of 6.5 hours per appointment. This time is unpaid.

You will need to provide a declaration relating to your eligibility and, amongst other things, state the date and time of the appointment. We have a form you can use for this which is available from Management.

The right applies whether the baby was conceived naturally or via donor insemination.

Eligibility For Paternity Leave

You must have been continuously employed by us for a period of at least 26 weeks by the end of the 15th week before the expected week of the child's birth or, in the case of an adopted child, for at least 26 weeks leading into the week in which the adopter is notified of being matched with a child.

You must be the father of the child, or be married to, or the civil partner or "partner" of, the child's mother or adopter. "Partner" in relation to a child's mother or adopter means a person, whether of a different sex or the same sex, who lives with the mother, or adopter, and the child in an enduring family relationship but is not a relative of the mother or adopter (a relative is defined as a parent, grandparent, sister, brother, aunt or uncle).

You must have, or expect to have, responsibility for the upbringing of the child.

Only one period of leave is available even if more than one child is born as a result of the same pregnancy or adopted as part of the same arrangement.

Commencement And Duration of Leave

Leave may only be taken during the period beginning with the date of the child's birth or placement and ending 52 weeks after that date or, in a case where the child is born before the first day of the expected week of birth, 52 weeks after that day.

Subject to the above, you can choose to begin your leave:

- on the date on which the child is born/placed with the adopter.
- from a specified chosen number of days after the date of the child's birth/placement (whether this is earlier or later than expected); or
- from a specified predetermined date which is later than the first day of the expected week of the child's birth/expected date of placement.

Leave can start on any day of the week, and you can choose to take:

- a) one week of leave
- b) two consecutive weeks of leave or
- c) two non-consecutive single weeks of leave.

During paternity leave you are entitled to the benefit of your normal terms and conditions of employment, except wages or salary, and you are bound by any obligations arising under those terms and conditions except in so far as they are inconsistent with the right to paternity leave.

Where possible, you should book and take your annual leave entitlement in the current holiday year. However, if you are unable to take all of your statutory minimum entitlement to annual leave because you were on paternity leave, you are entitled to carry over untaken annual leave into the following leave year.

Notification Requirements

Birth - Notice of entitlement

First, you must give us notice of your entitlement to take paternity leave in or before the 15th week before the expected week of the child's birth.

The notice must specify the expected week of birth and must include a signed declaration that:

- you are either the father of the child or married to or the partner of the child's mother, but not the child's father.
- if you are the father, that you have or expect to have responsibility for the upbringing of the child; and
- if you are the mother's husband or partner but not the child's father, the main responsibility (apart from any responsibility of the mother) for the upbringing of the child.

Birth - Notice of leave

Then, once you have chosen the dates of each occasion of your paternity leave, you are required to give us a further notice, in writing, of:

- when you want your leave to start and
- the length of leave you want to take.

You must also give us a signed declaration that you are taking leave for the purpose of caring for a child or supporting the child's mother.

A form that you can use for this notification is available from Management.

If you want to take leave starting on the date of birth, you need to give us the notice of leave at least 28 days before the first day of the expected week of the child's birth.

If you want to start your leave a number of days after the birth rather than giving an actual date, you need to give us the notice of leave at least 28 days before the day that falls that number of days after the first day of the expected week of birth. For example, if you want to start paternity leave 4 days after the birth of the child, you need to give us the notice of leave 28 days before the 4th day after the first day of the expected week of childbirth.

If you want your leave to start on a predetermined date after the first day of the expected week of the child's birth, you need to give us the notice of leave at least 28 days before that predetermined date.

Where it is not reasonably practicable for you to give notice as set out below, it should be given as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Adoption - Notice of entitlement

First, you must give us notice of your entitlement to take paternity leave no more than seven days after the date on which you were notified of having been matched with a child.

The notice must specify:

- the date on which you were notified of having been matched with the child,

- the date on which the child is expected to be placed with you or, where the child has already been placed for adoption, the date of placement.

You must also give us a signed declaration that:

- you are either married to or the partner of the child's adopter; and
- you have, or expect to have, the main responsibility (apart from the responsibility of the adopter) for the upbringing of the child.

Adoption - Notice of leave

Once you have chosen the dates of each occasion of your paternity leave, you are required to give us a further notice, in writing, no more than seven days after the date on which you were notified of having been matched with a child of:

- when you want your leave to start and
- the length of leave you want to take.

You must also give us a signed declaration that you are taking leave for the purpose of caring for a child or supporting the child's adopter.

Forms that you can use for the various notification requirements are available from Management.

Changing your mind about dates of leave – birth and adoption

You may change your mind about the date on which you want your leave to start or end, or cancel the period of leave chosen, providing you notify us in writing. The notice must be given by whichever is the earlier of at least 28 days before the original date of leave or the new date of leave, unless this is not reasonably practicable. If you give us notice to vary a period of paternity leave, you must also give us a signed declaration as to the purpose of the absence.

Required changes to dates of leave – birth and adoption

If you have chosen to start a period of paternity leave on a particular predetermined date, and the child has not been born/is not placed with the adopter on or before that date, you must change the date you want paternity leave to start and give us notice of the new date. This notice must contain a signed declaration as to the purpose of the absence.

Telling us the date of birth/placement

You must give us a further notice, in writing, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the child's birth or placement for adoption, of the date on which the child was born or placed, if the date of placement was not provided in the notice of intention to take paternity leave.

Paternity Pay

You may be entitled to Statutory Paternity Pay (SPP) if you meet the eligibility criteria.

Eligibility

You will qualify for SPP if you meet the following criteria:

- you have been continuously employed with us for at least 26 weeks' continuing into the 15th week before the week the baby is due/the week in which you were notified of having been matched with a child and remain employed by us at the date of birth/placement.
- your average weekly earnings are not less than the lower earnings limit relevant for National Insurance purposes.
- you have the prescribed relationship with the child and the mother/adopter.
- you intend at the start of the paternity pay period to care for the child or support the mother.

Length of Pay Period

The paternity pay period is a maximum of 2 weeks to be payable for the duration of your paternity leave.

Amount of Payment

Payment will be made at the standard rate for the duration of paternity leave. Jack in the box's bookkeeper will confirm the rate of pay to you.

Returning To Work

If you return to work following an isolated period of paternity leave; or a period of parental leave of no more than four weeks, you are entitled to return to the job in which you were employed before the absence. In addition, seniority, pension and similar rights should be as they would have been had the absence not occurred, and other terms and conditions should not be less favourable than those which would have applied had the absence not occurred.

Shared Parental Leave

You may be entitled to take shared parental leave if both you and your partner meet the eligibility criteria. Shared parental leave enables you and your partner to divide almost a year's leave between you after the child is born/adopted and gives you more flexibility over who will take leave and when. If you choose to take shared parental leave, you are still entitled to take paternity leave.

If you would like more information on shared parental leave, please speak to Jack in the box's bookkeeper.

Shared Parental Leave and Pay

You and your spouse, partner or child's other parent may be eligible to share up to 50 weeks' Shared Parental Leave (SPL) provided you both meet certain eligibility criteria.

SPL allows working parents to take up to 50 weeks' leave between them in order to care for their child. They may take leave at the same or different times, once the mother or primary adopter has notified their employer of their intention to end their Maternity or Adoption Leave period.

Leave can be taken in a continuous block or over a number of discontinuous periods.

You may also be eligible to receive Shared Parental Pay for the remainder of the Maternity or Adoption pay period to a maximum of 37 weeks provided you meet the qualifying criteria.

The rules on Shared Parental Leave are very complex. If you are considering requesting Shared Parental Leave you should discuss this with HR in order for the rules on eligibility, notification and your entitlements to be discussed in more detail.

The above information is given for guidance purposes only and confers no extra rights to you beyond those provided by statute.

Shared Parental Leave in Touch (SPLIT) days

During Shared Parental Leave, you are entitled to up to 20 Shared Parental Leave in Touch (SPLIT) days. These are days when you may work for the nursery without bringing your Shared Parental Leave to an end. Work can be any work under your contract of employment and may include any training or activity undertaken with the purpose of keeping in touch in the workplace. Working up to 20 SPLIT days will have no effect on any entitlement to Statutory Shared Parental Pay. SPLIT days do not act to extend your period of Shared Parental Leave.

Any payment for these days will depend on the type of work, training or activity and will be agreed between you and the nursery. For further details please refer to management.

Parental Leave and Pay

If you are the parent or adoptive parent of a child or have or expect to have parental responsibility for a child, provided you have 1 year's continuous service with the nursery, you are entitled to take up to 18 weeks' unpaid Ordinary Parental Leave for the purpose of caring for a child, up to the child's 18th birthday. Leave must be taken in a minimum of 1-week blocks, except for where a child is disabled, then leave may be taken as single days or multiples of 1 day. Parental Leave is limited to a maximum of 4 weeks in any year for each child.

At least 21 days' notice must be provided, and leave may be postponed apart from leave taken immediately after the birth or adoption, depending on the needs of the nursery.

The above information is given for guidance purposes only and confers no extra rights to you beyond those provided by statute.

Parental Bereavement Leave

Introduction

The purpose of this policy is to set out the nursery's stance on employee entitlements to Parental Bereavement Leave which are effective from 6th April 2020. The nursery acknowledges that the death of a child, or a stillbirth, can be one of the most harrowing experiences of someone's life. This policy explains the rights to time off, pay during time off and other support offered.

Eligibility

Parental Bereavement Leave is available from day one of employment. It is available to employees on the death of a child under the age of 18. You may take Parental Bereavement Leave if you fall into any one of the following categories:

- a 'natural' parent.
- an adoptive parent, and those with whom a child has been placed under the 'foster to adopt' scheme, provided the placement is ongoing.
- a 'natural' parent where the child has been adopted but a Court Order exists to allow the 'natural' parent to have contact with the child.
- an employee who is living with a child who has entered Great Britain from overseas in relation to whom has received official notification that they are eligible to adopt.
- an intended parent under a surrogacy arrangement where it was expected that a parental order would be made.
- a 'parent in fact', which is someone in whose home the child has been living for a period of at least four weeks before the death and has had day to day responsibility for the child, subject to exceptions. This category includes guardians and foster parents but does not include paid carers.
- the partner of anyone who falls into the above categories, where they live in an enduring family relationship with the child and their parent.

In addition, parents who suffer a stillbirth after 24 weeks of pregnancy are entitled to take parental bereavement leave.

Taking Leave

A total of two weeks may be taken as Parental Bereavement Leave, and you may choose to take leave as:

- a single block of one week.
- a single block of two weeks.
- two separate blocks of one week.

Leave may start on any day of the week and must be taken in whole weeks. It may be taken at any time in the 56-week period following the death.

If you have suffered a stillbirth after 24 weeks of pregnancy, you are still entitled to take your full entitlement to Maternity and Paternity Leave, provided you were eligible to take Maternity or Paternity Leave in the first place, in addition to Parental Bereavement Leave. Parental Bereavement Leave cannot be taken at the same time as Maternity or Paternity Leave.

Where more than one child dies or is stillborn, you are entitled to two weeks of Parental Bereavement Leave in relation to each child.

Notification Requirements

Leave to be taken within the first 56 days of the death

You do not need to give any advance notice of taking Parental Bereavement Leave. The nursery asks that you contact your manager by telephone the time you were due to start work on the day you wish leave to begin, or if this is not possible, as soon as is reasonably practicable, giving the date of the death, the date on which leave will start and whether one or two weeks is to be taken.

Leave to be taken later than the first 56 days since the death

You need to give one week's advance notice of taking Parental Bereavement Leave to your manager by telephone giving the date of the death, the date on which leave will start and whether one or two weeks is to be taken.

Cancelling or Changes Dates of Leave

You can cancel a period of leave that you have already told us about, as long as the period of leave has not already started. If you wish to cancel a period of leave which was to begin within the first 56 days of the death, you can cancel it by letting us know by your normal start time on the day that leave was originally due to start.

To cancel leave which was to begin later than 56 days after the death, you should let us know no later than one week prior to the intended start date.

You can also change the start date of leave by following the notice requirements above.

Payment during Leave

You will qualify for Statutory Parental Bereavement Pay during leave if you meet the following criteria:

- you have been continuously employed with us for at least 26 weeks by the week prior to the week in which the child dies.
- your normal average weekly earnings are not less than the lower earnings limit relevant for national insurance purposes.
- you are still employed by us on the date the child dies.

Payment will be made at the rate set by the Government each year or 90% of your average weekly earnings (whichever is lower).

In order to receive Statutory Parental Bereavement, Pay, you must provide us with notice of this and the following information within 28 days, or as soon as is reasonably practicable, of the first day of parental bereavement leave:

- the child's name.
- the date of the death or stillbirth.
- a declaration that you fall into the one of the categories listed under 'Eligibility' above.

Terms and Conditions during Leave

During Parental Bereavement Leave, you remain entitled to receive your normal contractual terms and conditions of employment that you would have received had you not taken this leave, with the exception of remuneration. This will include contractual benefits, subject to the terms of these benefits.

Right to Return

Upon your return to work, you are entitled to return to the same job, with the same terms and conditions, in which you were employed before your absence unless:

- the period of leave you have taken is more than 26 weeks when added to any other period of statutory leave including Maternity, Paternity, Adoption Leave etc. in relation to the same child; and,
- it is not reasonably practicable for you to return to the same job.

On your first day back to work, your manager will set time aside to hold an informal meeting with you to discuss any arrangements regarding your return to work and any additional support we may be able to offer you.

Carer's Leave

Introduction

Employees with caring responsibilities have a statutory right to take unpaid statutory carer's leave from day one of their employment. This policy sets out the Company's stance on employees taking time off for this purpose whilst ensuring the Company's operations are not unduly affected. The term 'dependant' for these purposes is prescribed in law and replicated in this policy. Employees will not be subject to detriment for taking carer's leave.

Entitlement

You are entitled to take one working week unpaid of carer's leave per rolling 12-month period to provide care or arrange care for a dependant with a long-term care need. When you make a request, we will look back over the previous 12 months from the final (or only) day of leave that you have requested to determine your exact entitlement at that time.

You can request to take your entitlement in a continuous block or separate occurrences, but each occurrence must be at least one half of your working day.

A dependant is defined as a:

- spouse or civil partner
- child
- parent
- person who lives in the same household but is not a tenant, lodger, boarder or employee
- person who reasonably relies on you to provide or arrange care. This could be, for example, an elderly neighbour.

A dependant has a long-term care need if:

- they have an illness or injury (whether physical or mental) that requires, or is likely to require, care for more than three months,
- they have a disability for the purposes of the Equality Act 2010, or
- they require care for a reason connected with old age.

You are not required to provide evidence of your eligibility in relation to a request for carer's leave.

Employees who request or take time off under this policy for reasons other than those for which the statutory right to carer's leave is intended may be subject to investigation and subsequent disciplinary proceedings.

Pay For Time Off

Time off for carer's leave is unpaid.

Requests For Carer's Leave

A request for carer's leave must be made in writing (please let Management know if you require any assistance with this) and must specify:

- that you are entitled to take carer's leave in terms of the person to be cared for,
- that you will take leave in order to provide or arrange care for that person,
- that you have not exceeded your entitlement, and
- the days on which you want to take leave and if the leave relates to part of a day, specify this fact.

The length of notice to be given is double the amount of time that you want to take off as carer's leave in that instance or three days, whichever is longer.

Postponing Carer's Leave

The Company may decide to postpone your request for carer's leave for up to one month, if we reasonably consider that the operation of our business would be unduly disrupted if you took carer's leave at the time you have asked for. We will try to avoid postponement wherever possible.

The Company will consult with you before determining a new date for you to take the carer's leave requested. The new period of carer's leave will be for the same length of time as the original request.

The Company will confirm to you in writing the reason for the postponement and the new agreed date of leave, no later than whichever is earlier out of: seven days after you gave the request to the Company and the earliest day or part day of the leave originally requested.

Other Policies

You have a statutory right to take a reasonable amount of time off work to deal with emergencies involving your dependants. If you need time off in an emergency to care for a dependant, you should read our time off for dependants' policy below.

Your entitlement to time off on the loss of a child are set out in the parental bereavement leave section (stated above), including details of eligibility, pay during time off and other support available.

If you wish to make a request for parental leave to care for a child, you should read our parental leave section below.

Neonatal Care Leave Policy

Introduction

Employees have a statutory right to neonatal care leave from day one of employment where they are responsible for a child receiving neonatal care, subject to eligibility requirements. We recognise that this can be a difficult and worrying time, both physically and mentally. This policy explains your rights to time off, pay during time off and other support offered. Employees will not be subject to detriment for taking neonatal care leave.

Entitlement

You may take neonatal care leave if you have parental or other prescribed responsibility for a child who is receiving, or who has received, neonatal care. This will apply if you are:

- a) the child's parent, intended parent, or partner of the child's mother at the date of birth
- b) in cases of adoption, the child's adopter, prospective adopter, or the partner of either, at the date the child is placed.

You are entitled to take neonatal care leave where you are responsible for a child receiving neonatal care that lasts for at least 7 consecutive days and starts within 28 days beginning with the day after the child's birth.

You are entitled to take one week of neonatal care leave for each consecutive 7-day period that your child is receiving neonatal care, up to a maximum of 12 weeks.

'Neonatal care' is defined in law as medical care that may be received in hospital, or out of hospital providing the child was originally an inpatient and the care is under the direction of a consultant. Neonatal care also covers children receiving palliative or end of life care.

We recognise that people other than those listed above in relation to whom the statutory right applies may want time off in these circumstances. Requests for time off in relation to these people should be made to your manager but these will be considered separately to time off for statutory neonatal care leave.

Notice Requirements

You can take neonatal care leave during two periods:

- a) "Tier 1 period" – starts from the day the child starts receiving neonatal care, ending with the 7th day after the child stops receiving neonatal care. Leave taken in this period can be taken in non-consecutive weeks.
- b) "Tier 2 period" – any period which is outside of "tier 1" during which you are entitled to neonatal care leave. Leave taken in this period must be taken consecutively.

You must provide the following information when you notify us of your intention to take neonatal care leave:

- a) your name
- b) the child's date of birth; and date of placement if adoption
- c) date(s) the child started receiving neonatal care
- d) date neonatal care ended if the child is no longer receiving it
- e) date you want the leave to begin
- f) number of weeks' leave you want to take
- g) declaration that you are taking the leave to care for the child
- h) declaration that you meet the eligibility requirements.

If you wish to take neonatal care leave in the tier 1 period you must simply notify us verbally by contacting Management before you are due to start work on your first day of leave, unless it is not reasonably practicable to do so, in which case you must notify us as soon as it is reasonably practicable. In practice, this means that no advance notice is needed but you must let us know before you start work on that day, where reasonably practicable.

Where you have given notice in the tier 1 period of your intention to take neonatal care leave before the child has stopped receiving neonatal care, you must tell us the date that the neonatal care ends, as soon as is reasonably practicable after that date.

Where the child starts to receive neonatal care again after you have told us that neonatal care has ended, you must tell us the date that the neonatal care started again and the date when it ends, as soon as reasonably practicable after each date.

If you wish to take neonatal care leave in the tier 2 period you must give us the required notice in writing no later than 15 days before the first day of leave when taking a single week, or no later than 28 days before the first day of leave when taking two or more weeks.

If you change your mind about taking neonatal care leave, you can withdraw your notice by following the same notice periods that you are required to give to take leave.

Notwithstanding the above, we may agree to waive the notice requirements where appropriate depending on the circumstances.

Your neonatal care leave will start on the day specified when you give notice unless the leave is due to start on the same day as the notice is given, or you are at work on that day, then it will start the day after.

Taking Leave

You cannot take neonatal care leave before the day after the first 7-day uninterrupted period of neonatal care. Neonatal care leave can only be taken in minimum blocks of one week.

You must take the leave before the end of a period of 68 weeks beginning with the child's date of birth or date of placement in cases of adoption.

If you accrue neonatal care leave after already starting another period of statutory family leave, such as maternity or paternity leave, then you can take the neonatal care leave after the end of the statutory family leave, providing it is within 68 weeks beginning on the child's date of birth or placement.

Pay During Leave

You are entitled to statutory neonatal care pay during neonatal care leave if you:

- a) are eligible for statutory neonatal care leave
- b) have 26 weeks' continuous service by the relevant week
- c) earn at least the lower earnings limit on average calculated over the period of eight weeks ending with the relevant week
- d) are still in employment in the week before neonatal care starts.

Where you are entitled to another form of statutory family leave payment, such as statutory maternity pay, the relevant week is the same as the qualifying week for that payment. In all other cases, the relevant week is the week immediately before neonatal care starts.

If you are eligible, you are entitled to a maximum of 12 weeks' statutory neonatal care pay, paid at one week per every 7 uninterrupted days of care the child receives.

The weekly rate of statutory neonatal care pay is the lower of:

- a) the current statutory rate
- b) 90% of your normal weekly earnings.

If you are eligible for statutory neonatal care pay, you need to give us notice in writing of your intention to claim it alongside your notice of intention to take neonatal care leave.

Where you are claiming statutory neonatal care pay in the tier 1 period, you must provide notice before the end of 28 days after the first day of the pay week the notice refers to.

If you are claiming statutory neonatal care pay in the tier 2 period, you must provide notice no later than 15 days before the first day of the relevant pay week when taking a single week, or no later than 28 days before the first day of the first relevant pay week when taking two or more weeks.

The notice must include:

- a) your name
- b) the child's date of birth; and date of placement if adoption
- c) date(s) the child started receiving neonatal care
- d) date neonatal care ended if the child is no longer receiving it
- e) declaration that the week you are claiming pay for was taken to care for the child
- f) declaration that you meet the eligibility requirements.

Returning to Work

You have the right to return to work to the same job unless you return after a specific point at which you will have the right to return to a similar job on no less favourable terms if it is not practicable for you to return to the same job. Your manager will explain how this affects you based on your individual circumstances.

Employee Assistance Programme

We would like to remind you that you have access to a 24-hour telephone counselling service, and we would like to encourage you to use it if you felt you would like to talk to someone about your situation. The service can be accessed by requesting details from your manager.

As part of our Employee Assistance Programme, you also have access to an online wellbeing tool, Wisdom AI, which you can use to find fast answers to any wellbeing questions you have. You can access Wisdom AI at any time via the Health Assured portal. The link in the menu bar will take you directly to the Wisdom AI homepage, where you can ask your question. More details of this service are available from your manager.

Use of Neonatal Care Leave

Employees who take time off under this policy for reasons other than those for which the statutory right to neonatal care leave is intended may be subject to investigation and subsequent disciplinary proceedings.

Time off for Dependants

You are entitled to reasonable time off, without pay, for urgent or unexpected incidents of real need involving a dependant, who is a member of your immediate family, or someone who reasonably relies on you for help when they are ill or injured, or for making arrangements for them to be cared for in the event of illness or injury.

The entitlement to time off in such circumstances is limited to what is reasonable for you to deal with the immediate problem and to organise any longer-term arrangements.

If you are unable to attend work due to unforeseen family circumstances such as the death of a dependant, breakdown of childcare arrangements, or illness of a dependant, you may be entitled to reasonable time off work.

Bereavement Leave

In the event of the death or funeral of a relative, civil partner or close friend, you may be granted appropriate time off work and payment at the discretion of the nursery after careful and sympathetic consideration has been given to the circumstances surrounding the bereavement.

Compassionate Leave

In the event that a member of your immediate family dies, falls seriously ill, or is injured, you may be granted paid compassionate leave at the discretion of the Company.

You may receive up to one day of paid leave where a close friend or close colleague has died and you wish to attend the funeral.

Entitlements will be provided on a pro-rata basis for part-time employees.

In exceptional circumstances, longer periods of paid compassionate leave may be granted at the discretion of the Company. Furthermore, additional days of unpaid leave may be granted at the discretion of your manager.

The Company will give careful and sympathetic consideration to the circumstances surrounding each case, taking into account the needs of the employee and the Company.
