EXT. TRAINING GROUND - DAY (FOGGY)

HINDERO- 45m. Kaiyo's father. Legendary warrior. Hindero is swinging his sword slowly through smoke, it is silent. CUT TOO: KAIYO-(12m) sneaking up on his father, Hindero turns around putting his sword in front of Kaiyo.

HINDERO

You are getting better I couldn't tell which statue you hid behind this time, you are getting faster but you are not focusing my son if you were paying attention I would never have seen you

KAIYO

How do you know I wasn't paying attention? What if it was all a part of my plan!

HINDERO

If your plan was to stand outside of your cover you were not focusing you even failed to notice that with this fog I would have never seen you coming from behind me

a woman steps through the fog smiling and she rubs Kaiyo's head
LA'DARA- (32fm) kaiyo's mother. she waves at them, Hindero turns and smiles at her then turns back to Kaiyo placing his hand on his shoulder

HINDERO

Go to your room and study I must talk to your mother

KAIYO

Awww, but I wanna train more!

HINDERO

Studying is training of the mind kaiyo
you will need it if you wish to be a worrier ready for the world

KAIYO

Really!? I'm gonna study so much now!

Kaiyo hugs his mother then leaves the scene.

LA'DARA

Don't study yourself to death kaiyo
dinners almost ready

La'dara holds Hindero's hands they both Kiss and La'dara takes his sword from him and she looks at it

LA'DARA

That boy didn't hear a word I said, did he? And I see you're using my sword this time, how was training?

HINDERO

He is getting good he just needs to focus, and your swords are better they don't remind me of my past but they remind me of you

LA'DARA

listen...I know you said to keep this talk away from home but...king titan request your services again mercenaries are looking for you and everyone thinks you are doing nothing, please, one time
just pick your sword up and put an end to this chaos...for the protection of your child OUR child

HINDERO

LA'Dara....you know I can't, years ago I was nothing but a killer I pick that sword up I turn back to that you must understand this I- (interrupted)

LA'DARA

I do understand! I killed people too but there is nothing you can do to change that you can only do better. It's either you make the choice or those mercenaries are gonna find us! You'll have to do something Hindero looks away from her, looking guilty. La'dara puts her hand on his shoulder and puts the sword into his hand she holds it close to his chest.

LA'DARA

King titan has aided you before...i was hoping that maybe...he'll stop these mercenaries, I was hoping you would protect us

HINDERO

I will protect us...but not with Murder, senseless killing, NO, it cannot be that way

LA'DARA

And when they threaten the life of your child? OUR child (gets face to face with Hindero) will it be senseless then? Our dead bodies beneath you, will you stand there fighting with reason? These are killers coming after you, not protesters, not Bullies KILLERS. Please! For the sake of our lives!

HINDERO

IT WILL NOT come to that, I will talk to them, i have no intent on risking your lives....I don't want to...you don't have my word but you have this...I will kill when reason has failed ONLY when I have no choice

La'dara backs away as Hindero gets serious he takes the sword and stands strong

LA'DARA

Thank you....I know this is going to be hard, but your strong I know you still are, remember there is nothing senseless you can do..these are ruthless men who deserve a ruthless faith

HINDERO

I will do what I can
