

IN MEDIA RES CALL FOR OUTSIDE COORDINATORS

CALL: InMediaRes is always looking for new topics that help us understand the intersection of media and culture. If you have a theme week topic you would like to propose please email inmediares@gsu.edu with the following information:

- The title of your proposed theme week
- A brief description of the theme week topic
- A list of confirmed theme week curators (total 5)

If your proposal is selected, you will be assigned an InMediaRes liaison who will help you communicate with your curators and coordinate your theme week. Note: theme weeks must have a confirmed roster of curators before it will be added to the InMediaRes editorial calendar

Academics, journalists, critics, media professionals and fans are all welcome to submit proposals.

The actual piece will include either a 30-second to 3-minute clip, an image, or a slideshow that will be accompanied by a 300 to 350 word response to/contextualization of your clip, image, or slideshow. In addition to the your piece, you will be expected to engage the other pieces presented that week to encourage discussion and further flesh out the individual topic in relation to the week's theme.
