Payment Policy

To make things flexible for you, I offer two payment options:

- 50% after final delivery (only when you're fully satisfied)

Option 2: 3-Part Installment Plan

- 1st payment: Upon starting

Note: Payments made are non-refundable once work has begun. This protects the time and effort invested in each piece. Thank you for understanding.

Commission Process

1. Booking & Communication

Please reach out via:

- Email: bespokeartstudio123@gmail.com
- Instagram or Twitter DMs
- Or use the commission form on my Linktree

Be sure to include the commission type, detailed description, references for characters and backgrounds, and any story you'd like reflected in the piece.

If you're unsure, I'm happy to work creatively from scratch.

2. Sketch Phase

I'll provide an estimated start date. Once work begins, you'll receive a sketch for approval.

Unlimited adjustments can be made at this stage.

3. Painting Phase

Once the sketch is approved, I'll move to the final painting.

Please note: major changes requested during this stage may require additional payment to compensate for time already invested.

4. Final Delivery

You'll receive watermarked previews during the process. The final, full-resolution version will be delivered after final payment is completed.
