

Name : Keytar
Race : Namekian
Age: 18
Occupation : time patroller

Keytar is an aspiring Time Patroller attending the academy to become a protector of time from those who seek to tamper with it. She comes from an alternate timeline where Namekians are female and can reproduce asexually like normal, however they can also reproduce sexually like saiyans, humans and other races in the multiverse however it doesn't happen often. Her mother was a time patroller however she has since retired due to wanting to raise Keytar however during her pregnancy one of her enemies found and attacked her. Keytar survived the encounter however due to the fight she was born with a defect that made her less efficient at regeneration. She can manage stretching and using the Great Namekian form just fine however if she were to lose a limb it'd take her hours to regenerate it and if she lost a vital organ she wouldn't be able to keep herself alive such as when Cell blew a hole in Piccolo.

Keytar is an intelligent and dedicated student at the time patroller academy and has two close friends, one a Frostbite Arcosian and Akita a Majin. Despite being highly accomplished she can't help but be jealous of the human student in her class that's ahead of her. Blitz is his name and she considers him her rival but she never declared it to him. She has a strong sense of pride sometimes taking on a challenge she can't beat on her own.

"Man I'm pretty sure I flunked that exam.." Akita says, holding her head as the three of them leave their class. "You didn't stay up late eating snacks again did you..?" Frostbite asked, looking over. "We're close to graduating and becoming full fledged time patrollers you should focus more.." Keytar said to Akita. "Hey I do great in combat training I just am not great with all that math stuff.." she looks down a little. Keytar puts her hand on Akita's shoulder "Next time study with us the three of us are gonna graduate to be a team right..?" She asks as they all smiled nodding in agreement. As they walked towards their combat class Blitz walked past them as they looked over. "Tch man he's such a show off.." Keytar mumbled.

"Are you still mad that he beat you when he joined our class..?" Frostbite looked over. "He was so smug about it..!" She proclaimed. "Actually he was a good sport about it. I think you're just upset that someone took your top spot in the class.." Akita said to her. "Gh..so what if I am, I worked hard to get to the top and he just shows up and outshines me on the first day!" She crossed her arms. "Well we're going into combat training so try and challenge him again. You got a lot better than last time though he worked hard too.." Frostbite said as they walked through the hall. "Yea this time I'll beat him for sure.." she said as she formed first a bit as Akita and Frostbite looked at each other unsure.

Once they got to their combat training class they were out in an open arena the platform being similar to a world tournament platform. "Now then today we are gonna do hand to hand combat training. Would anyone like to go first?" Their instructor asked. Keytar stepped up "Blitz I want to take you on, give me everything you got..!" She pointed at him. "Very well then.." Blitz steps up to the arena, both of them getting into a fighting position. "Now remember no fatal attacks and no ki weaponry now..Begin..!!" The instructor says as the two of them dash towards each other and start battling. They flew up high in the air throwing heavy punches and kicks at each other.

The two of them battled fiercely trading blows with each other as the rest of their class observed them. She clenched her fist and punched him in his gut before putting her hands together and slamming him towards the ground "HAH..!!". Once he gets back up he powers up and flies towards her as her eyes widened as he slammed his elbow into her stomach before he spins around and kicks her across the jaw. "You've definitely improved, I'm impressed " he said as Keytar grits her teeth a bit. She stretched out her arm to grab him grinning as she pulled him over to her till he formed a ki blast in his hand and detonated it point blank. "?! Gaah..!" He grabs her arm, putting it behind her back, flying towards the ground and pinning her down.

"Great job the both of you!" The instructor says as Blitz let her go and offered to help her up. "? Gh I'm fine on my own.." Keytar got up and crossed her arms walking back over to Frostbite and Akita. "Cheer up you did great it looked like you hurt him pretty good " Akita said trying to cheer her up as she pointed out Blitz holding his gut. "Wasn't enough to beat him.." she said watching the other students participate in battles. "Alright now before we close up this class a minor time rift occurred and the Supreme kai of time thinks it'll be a good idea to bring in a couple students to experience what time rifts are like. After hearing that Blitz, Akita, Frostbite and Keytar volunteered to go in being told to meet with their instructor to deal with the rift after class.
