The Fight For Health Care

Health care is important because Having health insurance is important for several reasons. Uninsured people receive less medical care and less timely care, they have worse health outcomes, and lack of insurance is a fiscal burden for them and their families. Moreover, the benefits of expanding coverage outweigh the costs for added services. Hillary Clinton, our Democratic candidate and Donald Trump our Republican candidate, are competing to be the next president of the United States. They are trying to remedy medicines and important.

Hillary Clinton believes that

Health care is the maintenance and improvement of physical and mental health, especially through the provision of medical services. I've fought for quality, affordable health care my entire career. As president, I'll defend the Affordable Care Act, build on its successes, and go even further to reduce costs. My plan will crack down on drug companies charging excessive prices, slow the growth of out-of-pocket costs, and provide a new credit to those facing high health expenses.
