

Kim Hollenback Bio

Kimberly Hollenback is LASP's Regional VOCA Supervising Attorney as of April 1, 2022. She is also the Media Office Managing Attorney. She joined LASP's Delaware County division in August 2018 as a Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Staff Attorney based in the Media office. She continues to work with clients in obtaining Protection from Abuse (PFA) orders. "I'm from Delaware County and still live here, so I'm happy to be able to serve fellow Delco residents," she said.

Kim holds a J.D. from Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law. In addition to her academic accolades, she also won Outstanding Pro Bono Service Honors and was Domestic Violence Law Society Vice President and a founder. She served as law clerk to Hon. Ronald Susswein, Superior Court of New Jersey, Mercer Vicinage, in Trenton. Kim has worked for the Defender Association of Philadelphia, the Delaware County District Attorney's Office in Media, and for the AIDS Law Project of Pennsylvania. Her B.S. in criminal justice, magna cum laude, is also from Drexel.

She received the Delaware County Bar Association's Illumination Award in January 2025.
