

Assignments

The second most common question is about upcoming assignments. Again, if you have internet access, that information is readily available.

The assignments for the semester are posted on Canvas. Just click the link for the Modules page, and you will see all the assignments and due dates there.