The 4th Anniversary of the 2016 Evo 'Red' Insurrection.

April 1st, 2019
Office of the Press Secretary

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Today marks the fourth anniversary of the terrible insurrection launched by the Beijing Red Guards, a Communist militant group based in Evo, four years ago on April 1st, 2016.

I therefore proclaim that on this day, April 1st, 2019, shall be known as the Red Insurrection Commemoration Day.

Violence erupted on Main Street when these terrorists fired indiscriminately in the direction of the Nexus. With SWAT and Police Officers being directly fired upon, we fought back as these terrorists wanted to take over the Government of Evo, demanding their Communist ideals. A State of Emergency was declared by the incumbent President.

Some time later, the Security Forces regained control. Communism did not prevail. It never will.

This clearly represents the might and courage of the Citizens of Rockford in their assistance to Evo.

No matter what instability or challenge our country might face, we will never give in to tyranny, autocracy, or plain political murder. Since then, we've faced and continued to face threats, as all countries do.

As your President, I will continue to fight for the very freedom we so proclaimed in our Constitution. From the Revolver Gang, to the Beijing Red Guards to the Greater Marionian Reich. Our fair share of extremism, left and right. I will remind you all: Democracy can disappear in a heartbeat. That's why we must never let go. Not ever. We mustn't take it for granted.

Thank you,
