ACADEMIC MUTUAL AID BRIGADE!

Asynchronous Class "Visit" Resources:

Scholars of Race, Power & Social Transformation Edition!

Many of us love to assign each other's work, and then visit one another's classes, whether through a Skype or Zoom visit, or stopping by the classroom when we are local! However, with #CovidCampus upon us, I thought it would be great to gather some already recorded asynchronous content that could be used in conjunction with assigned texts, whether our own or another scholar's. Possible content could include:

- Book talk or campus lecture
- Recorded conference panenary
- Podcast episodes where yoel or plu were a guest or host
- Recorded TV or radio appearances
- Anything else that would enrich a student engaging your work!
